FOR GOVERNOR JAMES POLLOCK, or housenesseling; FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER: GEORGE D. RSIE, or ALLECHERY; FOR SUPREME COURT:

DANIEL M. SMYRER, OF MORTGOMERY. GONGRESS ON THE CLERGY. On the first page will be found in full the proceedings in both Houses of Congress, last week, relative to the three thousand New England clergymen's remonstrance housest the Nebraska Bill. The remontrance itself, which was printed in our last, was perfectly respectful and drawn up in the usual form, the only variation being in the adoption of the style of diction peculiar to the profession. Lengthy comment on the debate in the Senate would be superfluousit is only necessary to read the speeches of Mesers. Douglas & Co., to pronounce sentence upon them. The epitheis applied by them to the petitioners fall short of the mark and can only recoil with annihilating effect upon the speakers, when it is known that among the remonstrants were ten Doctors of filed in the office of the Secretary of the Common-wealth, and the said Secretary upon the receipt of such certified copy shall enter thereon and upon of Andover, in the number, and three Bishops—Easteurn, Burgess and Baker. In support of this decision the following reasons given 1. The measures directed by the 14th section of this act are in violation of the 14th article of the bill of right. That article declares that every subject has a right to be secured from all unreason able searches and seizures of his person, his houses whis papers, and all his posses-ions. SCHOOL BILL The sections of the State School Bill, no pelore the Legislature, relating to a division of the School Fund for Sectarian purposes, have excued much attention throughout the Commonwealth, and numerous remonstrances have lately been forwarded to Harrisburg against them.
