Wit and Humor.

☞ PRETTY NEAR THE MARK.—"I was in company the other night, a number of ladies being present, when a young man proposed a conundrum, which he said he had read in the papers. It was this:—'When is a lady not a lady?' There was a pause. 'Give it up,' said all around, when, to the infinite horror of the whole party, the querist exclaimed, 'When she's a little buggy.' Nobody laughed—some were demure, some indignant, and some no doubt inclined to scratch—the querist's face a little. He was disappointed. Fumbling in his pocket he pulled out a paper, which consulting for a moment, he ejaculated, "Oh, I beg your pardon, ladies, I made a mistake. The answer is, 'when she's a little tuddy.' I knew it was some sort of a carriage."

☞ THE CAT SPECIES.—"My son, how many species of cats are there?" "Five." "I thought, Gussy, there were only two—the domestic and the wild cat." "I tell you there is five. Don't yer suppose I knows, old lady?" "I dare say; but be a little more respectful, and name them." "Well, there's wild cats and tame cats." "But that makes only two." "Jest you wait, old lady, till I get through, won't yer? Ain't there cat-fish and cat-a-line and cat-a-wampus?" "And you may add another species to your list," said the mother of this hopeful, "when your father returns look out for a cat-o'-nine-tails."

☞ AS JUDGE W. was walking the street, a woman hurried out from her house, and mistaking him for her husband, expected from California, accosted him eagerly: "Oh, Joseph, Joseph." The Judge solemnly presenting to her the palms of his open hands gravely enunciated, "Stop, Madam, stop; I am no Joseph." The woman, seeing her mistake, quietly replied, "Excuse me, sir, my husband's name is Joseph, but not Potiphar"—and turning, she left the Judge to cogitate who was ahead.

☞ A WESTERN justice of the peace ordered a witness to "come up and be sworn." He was informed that the man was deaf and dumb. "I don't care," said the judge, passionately, "whether he is or not—here is the Constitution of the United States before me; it guarantees to every man the right of speech—and so long as I have the honor of a seat on this bench, it shall not be violated or invaded. What this Constitution guarantees to a man, he shall have, I reckon."

☞ "PUNCH" ON BONNETS.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely, so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

☞ ONE OF THE TOASTS.—The following toast was offered by "J. G." at the celebration near Greencastle on the 4th inst:—

The Union.—May the man who wishes its dissolution take sick on Monday, get worse on Tuesday, die better on Wednesday, send for the doctor on Thursday, die on Friday, be buried on Saturday, and go to the d—l on Sunday.

☞ THE SIGNS and pass-words of the extensive secret society of "Have Nothings," have recently been revealed by a member, who has obtained a "spill" by the death of a near relative. Of course he has left the "Order" since he received his Windfall.—The degrees are four in number, viz: The Dry degree, the Hard-up degree, the Sponge degree, and the Artful-dodge degree.

☞ DOCTOR LOLLYPOP having advised every body to go in the country, if they wished to feel well, induced us to "try it on."—Accordingly we went into the suburbs yesterday, staid fifteen minutes, and have felt imminently fine ever since. For putting one in a good way generally, and making the inards feel as nice as a one-horse cotton hat, the country may be put down as a good deal of an institution.

☞ PEOPLE who expect to get to heaven by dropping a shilling in the contribution box on Sunday, and shaving a dozen devils on times that sum on Monday to make up for it, are as likely to have a seat in paradise as a one-ox express is to beat the summer lightning.

[We copy this among our funny items, but it is nevertheless true.—Eds. Jour.]

☞ GENERAL NIEPEOITCHTZKI has been appointed to the command of the fifth corps of the Russian army. Bringing out such a name as this does not look much like peace. The Turks may beat him, but he will defy them to pronounce his name, and if he beats them it can be truly said that they will never be able "to tell what hurt them."

☞ A PRIZE was offered for the best conundrum at Burke's benefit in Sacramento, and the following won it, over fifty competitors:—"Why is a Chinaman the most wonderful of known animals?" Because his head and tail sprout from the same end."

☞ WHEN a young man's head has begun to "run" on "alabaster shoulders," exquisite ankles, and similar exciting goods, he must either be "shut up," discontinue business and travel, or else "jine" some interesting piece of calico for life.

☞ SAUCY.—The celebrated Whitson's dining with lady Jekyll, she asked why woman was made out of a rib?

"Indeed, my lady," replied he, "I don't know, except it was because the rib was the crookedest part of the body."

☞ ONE of the German Almanacs, remarks that "A young girl is a fishing rod;—the eyes are the hook—the sweet smile is the bait—the lover is the gudgeon—and marriage the butter in which he is fried."

☞ A NEW ORLEANS editor recording the career of a mad dog, says:—"We are grieved to say that the rabid animal, before he could be killed, severely bit Dr. Hart and several other dogs."

☞ A GENTLEMAN who had rather a tart wife; asked her one day at the table, if she could give him some preserves. "No, I cannot," said she, "but I would like to give you your deserts."

☞ A YOUNG lady at breakfast, asked a gentleman to hand her the "then fruit," indicating a plate of eggs. The gentleman suggested "Shanghai berties" as a more fastidious term.

☞ NEVER abate one atom of your dignity or (as the scrupulous may call it) your impudence, because you are out of money. Pay with gold when you can—when you can't—pay with brass!

☞ "HE knows on which side his bread is buttered," is now rendered, "He is aware on what portion of the staff of life the oleaginous product of the dairy is dispensed."

☞ THERE is no place like home unless it's the home of the young woman we are "after." That is of course an exception. Future poets will please notice.

☞ A NEW mode of dispersing a mob has been discovered—said to supersede the necessity of a military force. It is to pass round a contribution box.

☞ TO KEEP skippers out of bacon in the summer:—Eat your meat early in the spring. We never knew it to fail.

☞ "SAL," said lisping Bill, "if you don't love me, thay tho; and if you love me, and don't like to thay tho, squeeth my hands."

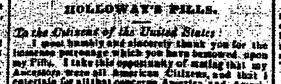
MEDICINAL.



HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States:

I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the kind and message which you have transmitted upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of saying that my Ancestors were all American Citizens, and that I consequently feel all that concerns America and American, the most lively sympathies, so much so that I originally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions and manner of living, travelling to establish myself among you, but Providence has otherwise determined that I must remain in New York.

THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
78, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York.

PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD,

AND

LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The Citizens of the Union suffer much from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, scarcely any are free from the influence of these destructive maladies, hence life wears fast. The fair sex, perhaps the most handsome in the World, up to a certain period when, distressing to say, many lose their teeth and good looks, while yet in the prime of life, such end evils may be effectually remedied by continually keeping the blood pure, and the Liver and Stomach in a healthy action, when life will flow smoothly, and resemble plants in a congenial clime, where an eternal spring appears to reign. As it regards the preservation of the teeth, nothing like the use of Holloway's Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.

A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, OF 10 YEARS' STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Johnson, Astor House, New York, January 5th, 1854.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 78, Corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York—SIR—It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a debility that rendered me perfectly helpless. I was induced to such an extremity that I gave up my ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when at last I was recommended to try your Pills. After using them for three months, I found myself become in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as I ever was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others. I remain, Sir, yours respectfully,

(Signed) JOHN JOHNSON.

Letter addressed to care of Mr. Curtis Hatch, Agent at Ravena, Ohio.

TO DR. MARCHISI:—I have been troubled with Female Complaints—a painful nature, and all the attending difficulties, at times rendering my life most miserable. I have had the attendance of some of the best physicians; with but little success in the course of my life, and I had given myself up to die on the occasion. For five months before commencing with your medicine, I had not been able to perform any labor, could not walk across the room at a time, and scarcely went out of doors—in short, I was completely prostrated, both in body and mind, and expected to drag out the rest of my days in
