WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION,

Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Branchitis, General Debility, and all Scrafalous Humars.

The Propristor has succeeded (from directions of Professor Stone) in Combining the Oil and Lime so perfectly this the taste of the Oil, which is so nauscous to persons generally, is entirely overcome, and it can be taken by this most delicate females with pleasure. And as regards the benefit of this article over the pure oil, the following case, by Prof. Stone, is sufficient to convince the most scepiteal. The young lady was 24 years of sge.

Her disease was one of unmixed phthisis, which had been expected to terminate in the course of a few months, fatally: The upper part of both her-lungs was filled with tubertes; and in some places were beginning to soften. The rase was evidently a bad one. The treatment of cod livin oil was at first used, but, without marked improvement. The postplate of time was atom, administered with the oil, and the result, as in the case of many others, was seen apparent. The patient was rapidly getting well.

CALTION.—On account of the great replication of this compound for all lung Complaints, the subscriber would caulion the afflicted against using any except that manufacturist by him, as he has the only recipe in the U. Stiftes for combining the pure Oil with Lipse in a proper manner. Therefore as you value your health, purchase notic except that manufactured by

As a soothing preparation if has no equal. In cases of infants with bowel complaints, cholera morbus, restlessness, crying, or general pain, it has been proved a perfect balm. As a specific for bowel complaints of adults, it has nover failed. During the cholera of 1832, 1834 and 1849, it failed in no instance when used before death had positively struck the patient. I have had returns from more than one thousand persons, who used it during those memorable periods, testifying to its wonderful curative powers. 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. J. S. ROSE, has been a regular practitioner of medicine for thirty years in Philadelphia, is a graduate from the University of Pennsylvania, (in 1820), and an honorary member of the Philadelphia Medical Society.

I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchiel's Uterine Catholleon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable: I was almost unable to walk. Physicians pronunced my case falling af the womb. Extensive ulcerations, commencing with fluor abus. The pains, irritation, prostration and the intolerable facilit discharge rendered life almost a burden. In this miserable condition, Dr. P. Y. Newland recommended Dr. Marchie's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I found myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me ardently desire that all my sex, alike unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine.

GUM BELTING, &C. TO MINERS & MANUFACTURERS. JUM BELTING, Packing, Blasting Paper, Gum Hose, &c., &c.
The subjectiber desires to call the attention of Coal Operators, Machinists and others, to his Arency for the sale of Uum Beiting, Fracking, Fracking, Hydraut and Conducting Hose, Steam Packing, Miners' Safety Lamps, ducting Hose, Steam Packing, Miners Saiety Lamps, Blasting Paper, &c., &c.

GUM BELTING.

The experience of the last eight years has gained for this Belting the confidence of the consumers; this together with the fact that great improvements have been made in the quality, warrants the manufacturers in asserting it to be superior to leather or anything class, for all open Belts, (more especially for heavy or main Belts) for the following reasons:

1. The perfect equality of width rnd thickness which it 2. No degree of heat under 300 degrees Farenhelt in-2. No degree of heat under 300 degrees Farenhelt injures it, and it remains fléable in any degree of cold.

3. It is of great strength and durability, does not slip on the pullies, consequently a gain of power is obtained, and, when adjusted to machinery does not require alteration, as is the case with leather, or any other.

4. The cost is much below leather or any other Belting. These Relis are inore durable than leather, and range from 25 to 100 per cent, cheaper in price, than the leather liets of the same strength. They are also peculiarly adapted to Colliery purposes because the coal dirt and dust seem only to add to their durability—and after bring worn out are worth nearly, if not quite, half price for packing. through him, that have to be made of a measure within the riven time.

THE HEALTH OF HORSES SACRIFICED.

This is a thing which may be seen almost every day. The ways in which it is done are manifold. The health and comfort of man's noble servant are sacrificed, in the stable, on the road, and is also tied up without shelter from cold and wind, while his master is cozily enjoying himself by a warm fireside. The feeling of every one who has any compassion in the constitution of his nature, must often be pained by sights which so uften come before him of the comfort of the noble horse so horribly neglected, and heedlessly sacrificed.

One of the ways in which this is done is probably little considered. Many owners of horses, probably, shut them up in a close unventilated and perhaps dark stable, without it once occurring to them that they are thus injuring the health and destroying the comfort of their animals. The stench and pungency which meet one on opening the stable-door in the morning, might make some think of this matter who do not seem to. If they were shut up a night or a few hours in their own stable.

perhaps then they might. A horse cannot breathe the atmosphere of many stables with out injury to his eyes, and especially to his lungs or respiratory organs. As this is the season when horses are being stabled, pasturing being about over, it would be well for many horses, and for their owners too, if they would see that their stables are provided with means of ventilation, and that every source of pungent and foul smells be removed as early and sffectually as possible. - Country
