THE first locomotive ever seen in the United States was purchased in Liverpool by Rogers, Ketchum & Grosvenor, of Paterson, for six thousand dollars and used by them as a pattern. She had ten wheels on engine and tender, drivers included, which bear but little resemblance to the present locomotive wheels.

She was regarded as the ne plus ultra of the age both in style and strength, and in 1828 was used on the Patterson and Jersey City Railroad. Recently she was sold to the Car-roll Branch Railroad of Ohio.
