READ THIS EXTRAORDINARY CASE. Dn. SWAINE-Dear Sir. I feel it a debt of gratifude due to you-and a duty to the affleted generally, to offer my humble testimony in favor of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. Some three years since, I was violatly at-tacked with Cold and Inflammation of the Lungs, which was accompanied with a very distressing Cough, and pain in the breast and head; a very considerable discharge of offensive unceus from my Lungs especially upon changes of weather, however slight. At first i felt no alarm about my condition, but was pretty mon convinced that I was rapidly going into Consumption. I grew daily weaker, and at length was scarcely able to walk nbout, or.speak abore a whieper, such was the exceeding weakness of my Lungs. During this time I had tried various preparations and prescriptions, but found no relief-growing all the time worse. Just there I was advised and persuided by a deaf friend in Wilmington to make trial of your Syrup of medicine, and having implicit faith in the sayings of my divide. In the theore of the handt of emprice, but understanding your claims to the profession and practice of medicine, and having implicit faith in the sayings of my finent. I forthwith purchased of Dr. Shaw, one dy our agents, a few bottles, and commenced its use. My disease yeas at his timp of 20 or 25 months fanding, and couse-quently was deeply spated. I found, however, considera-but being a public spaker, I frequently attempted to preach with my increating strength, and, thoreiver une-guente of acting thus imprudently, J. had to use 12 Pawling's Dam, Port Providence ['henixvill Phenixville, ?

In the general appropriation bill we find an item of forty thousand and seventy eight dollars to reimburse the Patent Office fund for the s amounts heretofore paid out for seeds and the collection of agricultural statistics. It will be remembered that the Clerk in charge of the Agricultural Bureau made a visit last year to Europe to replenish the stock of seeds for distribution. Seeds, we understand, have been distributed with great liberality to every part of the country.
