There were sixty-one votes polled at the late election; some few of the voters of our village do not swear, but there are usually a number of accomplished swearers in town not yet entitled to a vote, and many of our boys can hold a hand with any of their seniors. All things considered, we think the income of the Association might be estimated at half a dozen palings a day from fifty regular contributors, which would pale fifty yards a day. A few court-days would supply all the rails, and the Sunday cursing could be set apart as a fund for posts. The little boys might find the uails; and after the paling was completed, the villagers could affect such phrases as 'Darn my skin,' 'By the Great Mogul,' etc., and whitewash it."

"GIVING fits" we have often heard of. We remember a quack doctor who was called in to attend a case of fever which baffled his skill. and when the patient became impatient, complaining of the doctor's want of success, the quack replied, "Well, I give up, I can't break up this fever; but I'll give you something to throw you into fits, and I'm death on fits!"

But did you ever see a fit? A man in passing along up Water street, saw a placard announcing the exhibition of a remarkably-talkative parrot. He turned in, after paying his shilling, and stood before the bird, who was dumb as an owl.. ' The stranger finding all attemps to draw the parrot into conversation quite in whin, called out to owner:

"I thought you said that this 'ere animal could talk?" "So she can, when she sees fit."

"Well then, I wish you would send for Fit, amazin' quick, for I am in a hurry!"

Whittaker is one of the richest men in those parts, and has made his money by driing snarp bargains. His hired man was one day going along with a load of hay, which he overturned upon a cow. The poor thing was smo.hered to death before they could get her ont. Her owner, Jones, called upon Mr. Whittaker the next day, and demanded payment fog the loss of his cow. .

"Certain ," said Mr. Whittaker, "what do you think she was worth?" "Neri about ten dollars," said Jones.

"And how much did you get for the hide and tallow?" "Tea dollars and a half, sir."

'Oh. well, then you owe me just fifty cents." Jones was mystified, and Whittaker very fierce in his demand, and before Jones could get the thing straight in his mind, he forked over the money.

places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854. I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in Some of the wholesale druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters. In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors —lut since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.
