THE MAHANDY HOUSE.

THIS HOUSE will be opened for the reception of boarders, visitors and the traveling bublic generally, on the 4th day of July next.—The House is situated in the town of Ashland, in the county of Schuylkill, Pa., about 12 miles from Potsville, on the turnpike leading from there to Sunbury, and at the terminus of the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven Ralivad, in the beautiful valley bounded on the south by the Mahanoy Mountain, and on the north by the Locust Mountain, which forms the Mishanoy Coal Field, containing inexhaustible veins of the purest authractic coal, many of which are now being successfully worked. The scenery of the surrounding country is most beautiful, picturesque and imposing, and while the visitor is engaged in viewing the beauties of nature, his attention is called to another object, by the shrill whistle of the icomotive, wending its way alongside of the mountains toward the mines, to receive the freight of Coal for the long train of cars attached to it; or to the loud puff of the stationary engines at the mines, which designate its needlity. The air in the vicinity is clear and invigorating, and the water pure and salubrious, so that it will be a most desirable resort for those in good health who desire to retain it.

The Mahanoy house has just been completed. It is admirably adapted for a Hotel for the many conveniences it affords. The parlors and chambers are large, well lighted and ventilated, and will be furnished with entire new furniture. The proprietor will use every exertion to make the sojuern of those will part affords in few services in a few weeks, passenger trains will run through to Ashland.—The name of the Post Office is "Fountain Spring."

This our feeble evening prayer;
Thou hast seen how ofth to-day,
We, like sheep, have gone astray;
Worldly thoughts, and thoughts of pride,
Wishes to thy cross untrue;
Secret faults, and undescribed,
Meet thy spirit piercing view;
Blessed Saviour! yet, through thee,
Pray, that these may pardoned be. Holy Spirit! breath of balm! Fall on us in evening's salm; Yet awhile, before we sleep, We with thee will vigils keep,—

We with thee will vigils keep— Lead us on our sins to muse, Give us truest penitence, Then the love of God infuse, Breathing humble confidence; Melt our spirit, mould our will,— Soften, strengthen, comfort still. Blessed Trinity be near.
