character: Ah! when I Was a little boy ... I'deeply fell in love— But whether she was ugly, or The prettiest little dove.

I don't remember, but I know
I loved her to excess—
And it was all because she wore
A beautiful red dress!

The blandest air that ever breathed The blandest art that ever breathers
Along the month of June
Bore heavenly odors on its wings
In that sweet afternoon—
The clover blossums looked more red,
I he flowers the plucked, alus!
Resithed paradise; and around her spread
A halo on the grass:

I see her now—the red; red bird That hopped about and sang; That charmed my ever, and ears, and oh! That gave my heart's pang looked and loved, and loved and looked, Impatient to cares
The little engel in her bright
And beautiful red dress.

I know they say that red is Dutch And voiger, and all that; But it was red that gave my heart Its sweetest pitipal! That opened first the fount of love Which since has known excess. But never yet so sweet a thrill As throbbed to that red dress.

I've liked the color ever since-The loveliest of the seven!
It lends the rose its richest tint,
And crowns the how of heaven.
I like it in the ruby lip.
And in the maiden's blush,
And in the raddy streams that from And in the maiden's blush, And in the raddy streams the The ripened vintage gush.

I like it in the evening cloud
That hangs upon the west,
Deep-blashing in the crimson flood
As Phebus sinks to rest.
I like its tint at early dawn,
And at the evening's close;
I like it everywhere, except Upon the toper's nose.

ABSENCE OF MIND.-I heard of a clergy man who went jogging along the road till he came to a turnpike. "What is to pay?"-"Pay. Sir, for what?" asked the turnpike man. "Why, for my horse, to be sure." "Your horse, Siri what horse? Here is no horse. Sir." "No horse? God bless me," said he suddenly, looking down between his legs. "I thought I was on horseback." REPARTEE .- "In your travels." writes Troy correspondent, "possibly you have met the late Dr. H--n, of New York. He was one of the wittiest men to be found among our "diggins." But few could gain an advantage over him in repartee, and seldom did he allow any one to have the last word. While passing through a street in one of our large cities, he was accosted y an old acquaintance, whom he immediately recognized. The doctor, with his usual politeness, grasped his hand and gave it an old fashioned squeeze, remarking, at the same time, that "it afforded him a great deal of pleasure, now and then, to shake an honest man's hand.' The gentleman had had a business transaction with the doctor, in which he thought he had been wronged, and, not feeling very friendly he instantly responded: "Well, doctor, I wish I could say the same of you. The doctor promptly replied: "Well, friend B-, if you had lied, as I did, you could!". B ____ left, LARGE FEES .- Sir Astley Cooper, the celebrated surgeon, is said to have received the highest fee ever given for an operation. It was upon an old gentleman 70 years of age. a resident of the West Indies, who, being afflicted, went to England to undergo autoperation. It was performed with Sir Astley Cooper's accustomed ability; and upon visiting him one day when he was able to quit his bed, he observed to his surgeon that he had feed his physician, but not his surgeon. He desired to know the amount of his debt, and Sir Astley replied, "Two hundred guineas." "Pool: on the first day of January. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Why are W. Sick?

T HAS BEEN the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering.
IOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the Werk, the Verrous, the Delicate, and the Infirm, f all climes, ages, sexes, and constitution Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of the medicines in the United States, and offers them to his modicines in the United States, and offers them to a free and outlightened people as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

These Fills Purify the Blood.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs; the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Dyspensia and Liver Complaints.

Nearly hair the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world that nothing has been found equal to them it cases of disorders of the liver, dyspensia, and stomach complaints generally.

They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have falled. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

General Deblity: III Health.

Many of the most despotic tovernments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses.

Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties nover fail to afford relief.

There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pactures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1864, i seld over one thousand bottles per day of it.
Some of the wholesale druggists who have been in the

and H. Rabebou. PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. S. NO DOUBT, the most wonderful

Is, NO DOUBT, the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress. The following is from a distinguished member of the medical profession:

St. Faul, January 1, 1835.

Prof. O. J. Wood.—Dear Sin.—Unsolited, I send you this certificate. After being nearly bald for a long time, and having, fried all the half restoratives extant, and having ried all the half restoratives extant, and having no faith in any, I was induced, on hearing of yours, to give it a trial. I placed myself in the hands of a barber, and had my head well rubbed with a good, stiff brush, and the Restorative then applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was all nglow. This I repeated every morning, and in three weeks the young hair appeared, and grew rapidly from August last up to the present time, and is now thick, black and strong-soft and pleasant to the fouch, whereas, before it was harsh and wirr, what little there was of it, and that little there, was disappearing rapidly. I still use your Restorative about twice a week, and shall soon have a good and perfect crop of hair. Now I have read of these things—and who has not?—but have never seen hitherto, any case in which any person's hair was really benefitted by any of the hair tonica, &c., of the day: and it really gives me pleasaire to record the result of my experience. I have recommended your preparation to others, and it silready has a large and general sale throughout the Territory. The people here saw its effects, and have confidence in it. All who have used it here will chickle with me in what I have written. The supply you sent us as the wholesale agents for the Territory, is already exhausted and daly inquiries are made for it. You deserve credit for your discovery. I, for one, return you thanks for the benefit it has done me, for I certainly had despaired long, long ago, of ever effecting any such result. I conglatalate you that your fortune (and a large one) is already made. for I certainty made focting any such result. I congratuate fortune (and a large one) is already made.

Yours hastily,

J. W. BOND,

Firm of Bond & Kollogg, Druggists Broof field. Mass. January 12, 1855.

Prof. Wood—Drak Sts:—Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation. dandruft, and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from childhood, and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the pleasure and profit.

Yours truly,

J. K. BRAGG.

us at least one gross of each size, as an article so justicelebrated as your Hair Restorative willsell. Please sen CARTER & BROTHERS. Chicago, Ill., May 1st, 1854.

Northeast Fennsylvania, March 9, 1854.

Siz:—In consequence of having hair, for several years past; not only gray, but perfectly white. I have cut it short, and worn caps to hide it from view; but, some 3 months since, I was induced to use your Hair Restorative, and I must, in justice, say, that its effects were almost miraculous; for it has changed it gradually to all its former splandar as to color, and left it so noftand glossy as to be more beautiful than it ever was when under the influence of the finest oil. I carnettly, therefore, recommend it to every lady as decidedly the best propagation, for toilet use, of anything in the world.

S. K. M. KEPNER, Clerk, Table 27 355.

R. H. GRESSANG has been appointed Agent for this county, for the sale of "FISK'S PATENT METALLIC BURIAL CASES." Which supercede all other kinds in use. Being perfectly also preserves the loody from immediate decomposition—also preserves the loody from immediate decomposition—from one-place to another. The face is covered with a thick glass, with metal top, which can be removed at any time, and the free of the corpes seen by its friends or reliatives. We fright give you hundreds of certificates, to corroborate of statement, as to the advantages the Mechanic Coffin has over the Wooden, but the following will suffice: Washington, April 5th.

Genilemen:—We witnessed the utility of your ornamental "Patent Metallic Burial Cases," used to convey the remains of the late Hon. John C. Calhoun to the Congressional Cometery, which impressed us with the belief that it is the best article known to us for transporting the dead to their final resting place.

With respect, we subscribe ourselves, yours, etc., (Signed), Henry Clay, Lewis Cass, Dan. Webster, Wm. R. King, Jeff. Davis, J. M. Berrien, J. Y. Mason, D. B. Atchinson, A. C. Green, Wim. P. Mangum, Henry Dodge, D. S. Dickinson. D. S. Dickinson.

Potts die. June 9, 1855 CLARK'S PATENT FLOURING MILL.

The Great Invention of the Day. THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Schwikill county that he has secured the right to sell EDWIN and JAMES M. CLARK'S new Patent Flouring Mill, which is pronounced the great st American invention of the day. The subscriber will, in about three weeks have one of these Mills in full operation in Tremont, where he invites all persons to call and see it in operation.

This highly ingenious, and much needed Invention, furns an entire new feature in the manufacture of Wheat tion in Tremont, such as a second to operation.

This highly ingenious, and much needed Invention, forms an entire new feature in the manufacture of Wheat into Flour; and the splendid branner in which it performs its work, Grinding, Bolting, and separating the grain at a single operation into seven different qualities of Flour and Feed, and that within a space of only twenty-one feet in length by four feet in brack h, at the rapidity of twelve bushels per hour, on a pair of French burr milistones only thirty inches in diameter. The Grain is converted at a single operation into Extra and Superline Flour, Fine Flour, Middlings, Shipstuffs, Shorts and Bran, any power being applicable to propel it, from a four horse up to any other desired. The small space it occupies would not be missed when placed in a room with other machinery, and the small amount of power it requires to propel it, makes it certain that, ore long, it will supercede and revolutionize all other Flouring Mills. So applicable is this Mill to the wants of the world, that every saw-mill, ma-bine shep, locomotive shop, foundry, force, rulling mill, o. any building having a power already erected, can now have within its walls a complete Merchant Flouring Mill, at the trifling cost of from four to seven hundred dollars, and thus the enormous amount of Grain raised within the United States, can be converted into Flour within its limite.

With one of these Mills nearly every large Colliery establishment in this county where steam power is used for pumping, should be supplied. They could be erected at a small expense and would enable them to manufacture their own flour.

This, Mill only occupies the space of 21 feet in length, at a small expense and would enable them the true their own flour.

This Mill only occupies the space of 21 feet in length, by 4 in width. It is also portaile and when put up can be placed in a wagon or dray, and with a single horse bauled to any part where they desire to use it. Its construction is so simple that it can be connected with any encine by a single shaft.

Single or Township Rights will be disposed of by the subscriber, residing at Tremont. Hundreds of certificates from Millers and others who have seen the Mill in operation, can be seen at the residence of the subscriber.

____ ADVANTAGES OF SUBSOIL PLOWING EDITOR LIFE ILLUSTRATED In your issue of Sept. 8th I see an article headed as above The advantages arising from subsoiling an far different from those there set forth. It is true that alumina-not "alumen"to a very slight extent, food for plants in all probability-at least many of the best agriculturists claim it as such. Whether it is co not it matters little, as the amount thus used is very slight and may be furnished by the majority of tillable soils without any special addition of this material, as it is the chemcal basis of clay. The reladvantages anhsoiling are first to so deepen the soil as a present a greater surface for the travel of roots, and consequently prepare more food within reach of the plant.

Second, allows roots to penetrate deer's enough into the soil to reach a moist-sta stratum during draught. Third, in wet weather allows water to page down and filter away more rapidly into porous substratum, if such exist under the surface soil. Plowing an additional depth of three four inches is not subsoiling, no matter whether it be performed with an ordinary plow or regular subsoil plow. Subsoiling is done by first turning a furrow with the ordinary surface plow, then following in the bottom of the same furrow with a plow-made expression for sulisoiling running to full depth say from twelve to eighteen inches below the top furrer. or in all twenty to twenty-four inches from the surface of the soil, lifting and loosening the soil, but not turning it over. This is subsoil plowing, and its effects on any buttery re or light, sandy lands are admirable and to doubted by the mass of intelligent farmers. Subsoiling is an expensive operation; thenfore, unless well done, should not be attempt ed. Partial subsoiling may be done by raning the lifting subsoil plow in the bottom of the drill for corn, or running it at full depth half way between two rows of corn or other hoe crop at the first or second cultivation.-This may in part preserve a crop from the evils of drouth, and may be appealed to where time will not permit the more thorough method to be performed.

Subsoiling enables us to make the mechanical or physical conditions of the sail better. but it does not add manure. By presenting new surfaces in the soil, which have not been before roubed of their plant-food, the amount of crop is increased, but distinctly at the erpense of the soil. Therefore, without addtional care in manuring, we shall, by deeper plowing, subsoiling, etc., only hasten the erhaustion of soils pursuing the same system which improved agriculture boasts of doing

Should your space admit, I would like continue this subject at some future time. I is of the greatest importance that farmen should use the subsoil plow, and use it rightly.

Respectfully, yours, HENRY C. VAIL APPLES FOR HUMAN FOOD .-- With us the value of the apple, as an article of food is far underrated. Besides containing a large amount of sugar, mucilage, and other nate tive matter apples contain vegetable acids aromatic qualities, etc., which act powerfully in the capacity of refrigerants, tonics, and antisepties; and when freely used at the season of mellow ripeness, they prevent de bility, indigestion, and avert, without doubt. many of the "ills which his flesh is heir to."
