guish of our fair, but maniacal correspondent,

"You see I went to bed pretty all fired used up after a hull day on the old road, before the plank was laid, kalkilatin on a good snooze; waal, just as the shivers began to ease off, I kinder felt sumthing tryin to pull off my shirt, and diggin their nebs into the small of my back; tryin to get a good hold. Wiggled, and twisted, and puckered. All no use-kept agoin it like all sin.

"Bimehy got up and struck a light, to look around a spell. Found about a peck of bed bugs scattered around, and more droppin off my shirt and runnin down my legs every min- Pean Steamers.

Brought it up, and made a circle of tar on the floor, lay down on the inside, and felt comfortable that time, anyhow. Left the light burnin and watched 'em. Seed 'em get together and have a camp-mentin' about it, and then they went off in a squad, with an old gray headed one at the top, right up on the wall out on the ceilin, till they got to the right apot, then dropped right plump into my face.

Fact, by thunder. "Waal, I swept 'em up again and made a circle of tar on the ceiling too. Thought I had 'em foul that time, but I swan to man if they didn't pull straw out of a bed, and build a regular bridge over it!"

Seeing an incredulous expression on our visiges, he clenched the story thus: "It's so, whether you believe it or not, and some of 'em walked across on stilts!" Bed-bugs are curious critters, and no mis-

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every 22-June 2, 1855 THE CREATEST

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has Every Kind of Humor, from the worst scrufula down to a common pimple He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never falled ex-cept in two cases (both thunder humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Roston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples n the face. Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles. Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst cank running ulcers.

One buttle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the ase of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted cure the most

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofla.

A henofit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. It know the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I heyer sold a bottle of it but that sold another: after sitrial it always speaks for itself.—

There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising: first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful; and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1816—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854. I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in the annals of patent; medicines was over like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

as a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, reat and wonderful virtues have been found in it that great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awind malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, sick Headuche, Dyspepia. Asthus, Feverand Ague, Pain in the side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

discovery of this age of progress. The following is om a distinguished member of the medical profession from a distinguished member of the medical profession;

S. Prof. O. J. Word—Dans Siz:—Unsolicited, I send you this certificate. After being nearly said for a long time, and having tried all the half restoratives extant, and having no faith in any, I was induced, on hearing of yours, to give it a trial. I placed myself in the hands of a barber, and had my head well rubbed with a good, stiff brush, and the Restorative then applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was all aglow. This I repeated every morning, and in three weeks the young hair appeared, and grew rapidly from August last up to the present time, and he he whick, black and strong—soft and pleasant to the touch, whereas, before it was harsh and wirr, what little there was of it, and that little there, was disappearing rapidly. I still use your Restorative about twice a week, and shall suon have a good and perfect crop of hair. Now I hay's read of these things—and who has not?—but have never seen hitherto, any case in which any person's hair was really benefitted by any of the hair tonics, i.e., of the day; and it really gives me pleasure to record the result of my experience. I have recommended your preparation to others, and it already has a large and general sais throughout the Territory. The people here used it here will colicide with me in what I have written. The supply you sent us as the wholesale acouts for the Territor, is already exhausted, and daily inquiries are St. Paul, January 1, 1855. Six:—Unsolicited, I send you

The supply you sent us as the wholesale agents for the Territory, is already exhausted, and daily inquiries are made for it. You deserve credit for your discincry. I, for one, return you thanks for the benefit it has done me, for I certainly had despaired long, long age, of ever effecting any such right. I conglatuate you that your fortune (and a large one) is already made.

Yours hastily. Firm of Bond & Kellogg, Druggista Brookfeld. Mass., January 12, 1855.

Prof. Ward—Prak: Siz.—Having made trial of your liair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff, and a constaint tendency to itching with which have been troubled from childbood, and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the pleasure and profit.

Yours truly,

They will direct the attention of their sons to these Universal Rules and commend every one to follow them. We are indebted for most of them to that excel lent manual, the Illustrated Register of Rund Affairs, every line of which is a text in itself for a more elaborate article:

Never keep animals on short allowance-if you starve them, they will surely starve you Although, in draining land thoroughly, you purse may be drained, yet the full crops that follow will soon fill it again.

Trying to farm without capital is like tria to run a locomotive without fuel. Money and wood must both be consumed, if they are to move the machine of the farm or of the nil Always give tie soil the first meal. If the is well-fed with manure, it will feed all elseplants, animals, and men.

If you wish to give an energetic movement to all your farm machinery, and keep its hundred wheels in rotation, be sure not to be without a good rotation of crops. If you allow your animals to shiver, your fortune will be shivered in consequence; that is, the farmer who leaves his cattle to the winds will find his profits also given to the winds. Heavy carrot crops for cattle will soon return carats of gold. Did you ever hear the musical notes of a starving herd of hogs? Extinguish by food those notes speedily, if, you would avoid even more annoying notes after pay-day has passed. Fences operate in two ways-if good they are a defense, if poor an offence. Many a farmer, by too sparingly sceding his new meadows, has had to cede his whole farm. Every farmer should see daily every animal he has, and inspect its condition: Weekly visits, as with some, soon result in weakly an-pulverization, it allows the roots to pass freely through all parts of the soil.

From the Illustrated Register of Rural Affairs TEN REASONS FOR UNDERDRAINING 1. It prevents water which falls from rest.

4. By facilitating the mixture of manure through the pulverized portions, it greatly increases its value and effect. 5. It allows water falling on the surface to pass downward, carrying with it any fertilizing substances (as carbonic acid and ammonia). until they are arrested by the absorption

6. It abstracts in a similar manner the heat contained in falling rains, thus warming the soil, the water discharged by drain mouths being many degrees colder than ordinary rains 7. The increased porosity of the soil resders it a more perfect non-conductor of heat, freezing in winter. 8. The same cause admits the entrance of air, facilitating the decomposition of enrich ing portions of the soil. 9. By admitting early plowing, crops may be sown early, and an increased amount reap ed in consequence. 10. It economizes labor, by allowing the work to go on at all times, without interruption from surplus water in spring, or from a Recipes. DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING PASTRY.-In making pastry or cakes, it is best to begin by weighing out the ingredients, sifting the flour, pounding and sifting the sugar and spice, washing the butter, and preparing the fruit. Sugar can be powdered by pounding it in a large mortar, or by rolling it on a paste-board with a rolling pin. It should be made very fine and always sifted. All sorts of spice should be pounded in a mortar, except nutmeg, which it is better to grate. If spice is wanted in large quantities, it may be ground in a mill. The butter should always be fresh and very good. Wash it in cold water before you use it, and then make it up with your hands into hard lumps, squeezing the water well out. If the butter and sugar are to be stirred together, always do that before the eggs are beaten, as (unless they are kept too warm) the butter and sugar will not be injured by standing awhile. For stirring them nothing is so convenient as a round, hard stick, about a foot and a -half long, and somewhat flattened at one end. The eggs should not be benten till the other ingredients are ready, as they will fall very soon. If the whites and yolks are to be beaten separately, do the whites NOTICE.—The business of the late firm for SNYDER & MILNES, will be continued by the subscriber in all its various branches of Steam Engine building, Iron business, that it sums branches of Steam Engine building, Iron Machinery, for Rolling Mills, Blast Furnaces, Rallmad Cars, &c. &c.
