54 7a to about a million and a quarter of dollars.-11 25 The Senate then resumed the consideration of the resolution submitted by Mr. Iverson, providing that a committee be appointed, authorized to summon the members of the late Naval Board, for the purpose of ascertaing the reasons which governed their action. The discussion of this question continued until the 5 33 | Senate adjourned.

HOUSE .- The General Appropriation Bill was made the special order of the day on and after the 15th of April, excepting Mondays,

Fridays and Saturdays. Mr. Campbell of Ohio, from the Committee on Ways and Means, to which had been referred the bill for the suppression of Indian hostilities in Oregon and Washington Territories, reported a substitute, appropriating 300,000 to be expended under the tion of the President, for restoring and maintaining a peaceable disposition on the part of the Indian tribes on the Pacific coast, and $120,000 for the purchase of gunpowder .----After some debate on the question, during which Mr. Campbell, of Penna., said he was in favor of voting the money forthwith, and holding the administration to an account
