THE following 'comes greeting' from an old friend and correspondent, who has made Knick's long-time readers 'laugh ready to split their sides,' something like a thousand times: 'La' is la' out west. Some years ago an attach-La is in out west. Some years ago an attachment was issued and levied upon the stock in trade of a stage company, and the consequence was very disastrous, of course; passengers were piled up here and there, just where the writ found them; mails were stopped; and the deuce was to nay everywhere.

J. Jones, attorney for Company, went out through the several counties of the State where the plunder was held by authority of the people of the State of ____, and moved (as Jones might move, as the law then stood) before a side-judge for a 'dissolution of the writ.' Jones went for ward swimmingly for awhile, and knocked over the writs, one after another, like a row of bricks. He finally reached the county of ----, where he found the attorneys on the other side, and the judge, all evidently expecting him; for they were ing whiskey down the judge at a log-tavern, pouring whiskey down the judge at a log-tavern, telling him fuuny stories, and talking extravagantly about his legal ability and the high repuation which he had acquired on the bench.
The judge at last took his seat, put on his specks, opened the 'Revised Statutes,' and spread them out solumnly before him; and 'the hearing' went forward. But the judge grew dranker and drunker; his eyes waxed heavy; and how and then he gave a half-surge side-ways in his seat.

Jones raised several objections to the proceedings, and insisted upon points of irregularity; but the judge reptied that he di-did-u't k-know but dr. Jo-ones was right, but he could n't tra-tra vel out.

Jo-ones was right, but he could n't tra-tra vel out. side or 'The Staterts!' At which the opposite side of th then he gave a half-surge side-ways in his sent. Jones raised several objections to the proceedings, ounsel nodded their heads and winked at each

'At last Jones saw that it was all of no use .-Some six or seven times the judge had told him he couldn't travel out-side of the Staterts.' Yes! he would 'traver out-sade of the Sade 18. 1882 he would 'traver out-sade of the Sade 18. 1882 he way. He did 'rise upon him:

"You old bloat!' exclaimed Jones—'you've been in the keeping of those two jetti-fuggers all which drawing hear the close, he said: Brethering, I am an hostler, and I must curry these horses before I leave. Here is this high-blooded Episcopalian horse: see what a highfuend he carries, and how black his coat is, and soft as silk: ries, and now black his coat is, and soit as sits; but he'll kick if you touch him on his Litany or Prayers: Whoa, Sir, whoa! Here is an old soher Methodist horse: Whoa! old fellow! Just slip away his love-feasts and class-meetings, and he'll tick till be falls! Whoa! you old Shouter! whoa! Ah! here is the horse that is ready to kick at all times: don't you go near his Confessional or Pe-nance: Whoa! Mr. Pope! how beautiful his trappings are !—his surplice and mitre! 'When, Sir! whos!' and so he went on through the various denominations. When he was nearly through, an old Methodist gentleman, well known in the place. iffered his services to conclude, which was readily accepted. He said: Friends, I have learned this rning how to dress down horses, and as the brother has passed two of them. I will take it upmyself to finish the work : Here is an animal that is neither one thing no the other. He is treacherous and uncertain; you can not trust him: he'll kick his best friend for a controversy. Whoa! Mule, whon! See, Brethren, how he kicks: 'Whoa! you old Campbellite!-whon! Here, friends, is an animal that is so stubborn, he

he is so stubborn that he would not go where a prophet wished him: he is so hard-mouthed tha Samson used his jaw as a weapon of war against the Philistines. Whoa, you close communion Baptist: whoa! 'Do call me an as " exclaimed the minister, jumping ap: 'Whoa!' continued his tormentor: 'see him kick! whoa!' Hold bim friends!—whoa! and thus the old gentleman went on; the minister ranting meantime until he got out of the church. WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTH-MA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS. This important question should be asked every invalid who is suffering from pulmonary trouble in this fickle climate. Have you tried WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF COD LIVER OIL AND LIME? It will not nauscate like the plain OIL but is on the contrary, pleasant to the taste: moreover, the Phesphate of Lime is, in this combination, a most remarkable aid to the healing properties of the Pure Cod Liver Oil, as the following certificates (selected from a host of like grateful acknowledgements) will amply show. No person should noglect, for a single hour, a cough, or any affection of the lungs, lest meast serious consequences follow. Dr. Wilbors preparation is both safe and simple, and sure in all ordinary cases, and has performed some surprising cures in decided consumption, where ordinary medical aid has falled:
