"DTING FOR A COCK TAIL."—Davis has only one fault—he reis too high a value on "distilled liquors." This habit has reduced Davis to seedy trowsers and generalship. On Monday last, Davis was "dying for a cock-tail," but as ill-luck would have it, he had not the necessary funds to realize his desires. Davis thought over the matter, and then made a rush for Rodmond's. He entered the bar-room with his hair streaming out behind like "For heaven's sake, hand me a glass of liquor —ciuntryman just fell down in State street and cuthis head open so that his life is despaired of," —The bar-keeper flew around and handed Davis shout three gills of first quality brandy. Davis reized the mug and rushed out. He returned in about three gills of first quality brandy. Davis raid: "Glad to hear it," and felt like a Samaritan for the remainder of the day.
