A numberill is a excelent thing.

When in the rain you're caught—
But when it stops a rainink.

Why, it isn't good for much. The rain is another excelent thing.
It wets the country round,
And makes the bests and passings
Go pokin' up the ground. Lightnin's poorer stuff, and made Of bottles and of silk, And thunder's only made to spile And sour the mornin's milk.

The Auburn (Alabama) Gazette thus chronicles an interesting ceremony and an affecting scene:
Tuesday, the 10th inst., was a day of great moment in our office. It was no, less an occasion than the departure of the ex-Junior from the cames of his labors and triumphs. At 7 o'clock A. M. the Procession was arranged in the Sanc-tum Sanctorum, according to the following pro-

the Hall of Justice and the tricery Store, returning up into the Shoemaker's shop, through the Cemposing Room, into the Press Room, where the Senior Editor, mounting the Press, delivered the following eloquent address to the retiring Junior: iollowing eloquent augress to the retiring Junior:
"Sir: (great applause.) We regret to part with you: (hear, hear! and applause) but necessity (great cheering) like a great many lawyers, (cheers) knows no law! (Hear, hear! with long, loud and vociferous cheering.). You go for your good, (appleuse,) and we trust that you may meet (continused applause) with that success (increased cheering) which you commently deserve!" (Immense and prolonged cheers, at the close of which, the and prelonged cheers; at the close of which, the Junior replied substantially as follows; but with the sir: Your eloquent and feeling remarks, (hear, hear!) have filled me with emotion, (cheers) so that I can scarcely find words to address you. (applause) But (cheers) I wish you well, (immense applause) I wish you great success! (great cheering.) May you live a thousand was a for the substantial sub years, (tremendous applause) and may I go to your funeral!") prodigious, long, and loud applanse.)

The procession then returned in the same order to the Sanctum Sanctorum, where it was dismissed. Here several ladies (Mr. Slaughter was a very great favorite with our Auburn ladies) had assembled to bid the Junior farewell. Handkerassembled to bid the Junior inceweit. Fini chiefs rose, tears fell, the Junior vanished.

SINGULAR EFFECT OF ELECTRICITY ON NE. GRORS.—During the thun fer storm of last Friday, a friend related the following: A gentleman residing a few miles dut of town, ecently carried home a small electrical machine for making some experiments, . As soon as he got home, the negroes as usual flocked around him, cager to see what master had got. There was a boy among those darkies that had evinced a strong disposition to move things when they wants moving, or in other words to pilfer occasionally. "Now, Jack," says his master, "look here; this machine is to make people tell the truth; and if you have stolen anything, or lied to me, it will knock you down."

"Why, master," said the boy, "I never lied or stole anything in my life."
"Well, take hold of this;" and no, sooner ha the lad received a slight shock, than he fell on his knees and hawled out, "Oh, master! I did steal your cigars and a little knife, and have lied ever. so many times; please to forgive me." The same experiment was tried with like suc-

The same experiment was tried with like subcess on half a dozen juveniles. At last an old negro who had been looking on very attentively, stepped up.

"Master," said he, "let this nigger try. Dat masheen is well enough to scare de children wid, but dis nigger knows better."

The machine was then fully charged, and he received a stunning shock. He looked first at his hand, than at the machine, and at last rolling his eyes, "Master," said he, "it ain't best to know too much. Dars many a soul gets to be damned by knowing too much, an' it's my 'pinion dat the debil made dat masheen just to ketch you soul somehow, an' I reckon you had jest take an' burn it up an' have it done gone!"—Montgomery Advertiser.

Have You Tried 111.

This important question, should beasked every invalid who is suffering from pulmonary trouble in this fickle climate. Have you tried WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF COP LIVER OIL AND LIME? It will not nauscatelike the plain OIL, but is on the contrary, pleasant to the taste: moreover, the Phosphate of Lime is, in this combination, a most remarkable aid to the healing properties of the Pure Cod Liver Oil, as the following certificates (selected from a bost of like grateful acknowledgements) will amply show. No person should neglect, for a single hour, a cough, or any affection of the lungs, lest the most serious consequence follow. Dr. Wilbor's preparation is both safe and simple, and sure in all ordinary cases, and bas performed some surprising cares in decided consump, lon, where ordinary medical aid has failed:

IMMENSE SUCCESS!

THE CHEAPEST MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD.

BALLOUS DOLLAR MONTHLY.'

Designed for Every American Home.

NCOURAGED by the unpreceden-Ballou's Dollar Monthly is printed with new type, upon fine white paper, and its matter becarefully compiled and arranged by the hands of the editor and proprietor, who has been known to the public is connected with the B is ton press for sixteen years. It pages contain news, tales poems, stories of the sea, sketches, miscoliany, adventures, biographies, wit and humor, from the lest and most popular writers of the country. It is also spiced with a record of the notable events of the times, of peace and war, of discoveries, and improvements occurring in either hemisphere, forming an agreeable companion for a leisure moment or hour, anywhere, at home or abroad, each number being complete in itself.

No sectarian subjects are admitted into its pages; there are enough controversial publications, each devoted to its peculiar set or clique. This work is intended for "The Milliox," north or south, east or west, and is filled to the brim each month with chaste, popular and graphic miscellany, just such as any father, brother or friend, would place in the hand; of a family circle. It is in all its departments, fresh and original, and, what it purporis to be, the cheapest magazine in the world.

Any person enclosing $1 to the proprietor, as below, shall receive the magazine for one year, or any person sending us eight subscribers and $3, at one time, shall receive a copy gratis.
