The following from the New York Post, entitled "Brooks's Canada Song," carries out Prentice's idea poetically. It is good:

To Canada, Brooks was asked to go,
To waste of powder a pound or so,
He sighed, as he answered, No, no, no,
They might take my life on the way, you know.
For, I am afraid, afraid, afraid.
Bully Brooks is afraid.

Those Jersey railroads I can't abide,
"Its a dangerous thing in the trains to ride.
Each brakeman carries a kuffs by his side,
Each brakeman carries a kuffs by his side,
They'd cut my throat, and they'd cut it wide;
And I am afraid. afraid,
And I am afraid. Bully Brooks is afraid. There are savages haunting New York Bay,
To murder strangers that pass that way.
The Quaker Garrison keeps them in pay,
And they kill at least a score a day.

And I am afraid, afraid.
Buily Brooks is afraid.

Beyond New York, in every cat,
They keep a supply of feathers and tar;
They daub it on with an iron bar.
And It should be smothered ere I got far.
And I am afraid, afraid, a Bully Brooks is afraid.

Those dreadful Yankees talk through the nose; These dreadful Yankeet this through the stand is terrible, goodness knows;
The sound is terrible, goodness knows;
And, when I hear it, a shiver goes
From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.
From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.
From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.
From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.

From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.

From the crown of my head to the tips of my toes.

So. dearest Mr. Burlingame.
I'll stay at home, if 'tis all the same.
And I'll tell the world 'twas a burning shame
And I'll tell the world 'twas a burning shame
Thut we did not fight, and you're to blame.
For I am afraid, afra d, afraid,
Bully Brooks is afraid.

EXAMINATION OF A DEBTOR.-Mr. Snap, of the firm of Snap, Bustle & Co., is considered a lawyer of great shrewdness. Mr. Snap is some on collecting a debt, and allows that there is not a man in the state sufficiently stocked with brains to get ahead of him in an examination.

Among the gentlemen who failed in 1854, was

Mr. Bickram, a dealer in clothing. Buckram Mr. Bickram, a dealer in clothing. Buckram owed, at the time he "caved in," some seven thousand dollars, a large portion of which was due to Bite & Brothers, of New York. Mr. Buckram offered to compromise with Bite & Brothers, by paying forty cents on the dollar. Bite & Brothers, refused, and went to law. As Buckram offered no defence, they of course obtained judgment. An defence, they of course obtained judgment. An execution was issued. It produced nothing, however. If Buckram possessed funds, they were placed where the Sheriff could not get at them.—

Mr. Snap reported to Bite & Brothers. Bite & Mr. Snap reported to Bite & Brothers. Bite & Brothers read the report, and told Snap to bring hers read the report, and told Snap to bring Buckram before a judge. Mr. Snap did so. The examination came off a short time since, and showed that Mr. Buckram was too old a bird to be caught with chaff.

"Mr. Buckram, have you any money?" "How much?" "Fifteen hundred dollars." "Where is it?" "In my pocket." Will you pay it over on the judgment held against you by Bite & Brothers?" "Why not?"

"Have you any other money?"
"Not a red." "Any piauos?" "Any jewelry?" "What does it consist of?"

"Two brass breastpins and this ring"
"And what is the value of that ring?" "One hundred and fifty dollars. It's gold, "And does that belong to you?" "Yes, sir-to me indvidually."
"And are you willing to apply that in part payment of Mr. Bite's judgment?"
"Couldn't think of such a thing." "Why not, sir?" "It's exempted by the statue."

"Nonsense! No law exempts jewelry." "You are mistaken, sir."

Here Mr. Snap appealed to the Court. The court decided that the exemption law did not apply to jewelry. "But how as regards family pictures?" interrogated Mr. Buckram. -. "I hat's a different matter. ROCK DRILLING MACHINES FOR MINING. G. ARTHUR GARDNER, Patantee, Trinity Building, New York. OR tunneling or shafting—operated by hand, horse, or steam power. Smallest form of the machine weighs but 80 pounds, can be operated by one man, and strikes 120 blows per minute. The blow is obtained by the compression of an India Rubber Spring; which, expanding, throws the Drill with great force. In conglomerate rock one maw can drill a hole 13/2 inches in diameter, 6 inches in depth, per hour—in ordinary sandstone, 2 to 3 feet per hour. It drills equally well at any angle. In a drift-way, 6 feet by 6, two of these machines can be worked. The work of this machine can be seen at Ellet's Tunnel, on Port Carbon road, where it was exhibited. Machines can be furnished of increased power of an anted.

AND ALL SCHOPULOUS HUMORS.

Have You Tried it?

This important question should be asked every invalid who is suffering from pulmonary trouble in this fickle climate. Have you tried WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF COD LIVER OIL AND LIME? It will not nauscate like the plain OIL, but is on the contrary, pleasant to the taste; moreover, the Phosphate of Lime is, in this combination, a most remarkable aid to the healting properties of the Pure Cod Liver Oil, as the following certificates (selected from a host of like grateful acknowledgements) will amply show. No person-hould neglect, for a single hour, a cough, or any affection of the dungs, lest the most serious consequences follow. Dr. Wilbors preparation is both safe and simple, and sure in all ordinary cases, and has performed some surprising cures in decided consumption, where ordinary medical aid has decided consumption, where ordinary medical aid has STOMACH OR LIVER. Such as Indigestion. Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains. Heartburn. Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is: a 'purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Hollsund Professor. Beerhave. Recarse of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them. I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must leacknowledged.

knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must is cacknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation.—Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds it way directly to the sent of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find in this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of sincular remedial properties.

Caution i.—The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to huy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.
