following manner: 'That brooch which in my breast I wore, (You said you had it from ross mother,) Which, when you gave to me, you swore For life I'd wear it, and no other. Canst thou forget the cheerful morn, When in my breast thou first didst stick it? I can't restore it—it's in pawn— But-base deceiver!-there's the ticket?

But we are keeping the reader from the affecting rhymes which it was our purpose to introduce out a word of comment, as they abundantly speak for themselves': Way still, sweet HELEN, thus severe: Abate at length those cruel rigors, Thou knowest how I love thee, dear, Thou knowest how I love thy 'niggers.'

Oh! lift me from this dark abyes Of auguish, dear bewitching railer! I have no other coat but this, I have no credit with my tailor. My brains, at times, wild visions seize, Chill fears around my heart are flocking, My pants grow white about the knees, My hat is absolutely shocking.

This feeble frame is wasting fast, r love is strong and hunger stronger; The bracelet that I sent thee last Was bought on tick—they trust no longer. Why tell me that my words are wild? Why my mad feelings bid me tutor? The man that wins thy father's child, Thou knowest. HELEN, wins the pewter. Tis vain to talk to Love of rule. The heart is no such docile scholar:

I love thee, HELES, like a fool, For thou hast the almighty dollar. I love thy pouting, cherry lips, Dearer than ever bee loved honey; I love thy rosy finger-tipe, . Thy laughing eyes, thy ready money. 'I love thy little fairy feet, . . So small the merest child could span 'em. Thy cheeks like peaches fit to eat, Thy thousand cotton bales per annum! I love thy gi rious golden curls That grace thy neck of alabaster; Thy little 'migger' boys and girls;

I long to hear them call me mastery 'Ah! yes, to sum my love for thee Would baffle all the power of figures; My heart were flint indeed to see, noved, that splendid lot of 'niggers.' 'I love the air that plays around Thy brow, thy form, thy habitation; I worship e'en the very ground

Thy footsteps press-'t is thy plantation. 'E'en when in slumber's arms I rest, My spirit still thine image follows: I clasp thee to my throbbing breast, And find thee-joy!—a sack of dollars. The vision changes: now I kneel Before thee, and a speech beginning, I see thre-rapture!-head to heel Turned to asscore of 'niggers' grinning. 'Can dreams so blissful, so divine, Prove cheating fancies of a minute! Oh! no: that fily hand is mine; That hand and all the tin that's in it. Then, then, of what delights untold Shall we, sweet litten be partakers, .

When bound in one bright chain of gold, We settle on thy father's acres. A SPOONFUL OF "PUNCH." THE TATEST INTELLIGENCE FROM AMERICA. Barnum is busy in getting up a "Baby and Perambulator Show." WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTH
MA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS.
Have You Tried 12?
This important question should be asked every invalid who is suffering from pulmonary trouble in this fickle climate. Have you tried WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF COD LIVER OIL AND LIME? It will not museate like the plain OIL, but is on the contrary, pleasant to the tastic; moreover, the Phosphate of Line is, in this combination, a most remarkable aid to the healing properties of the Pure Cod Liver Oil, as the following certificates (selected from a host of like grateful acknowledge ments) will amply show. No person should neglect, for a single hour, a cough, or any affection of the lungs, less the most serious consequences follow. Dr. Wilbor's preparation is both safe and simple, and sure in all ordinary cases, and has performed some surprising cures in decided consumption, where ordinary medical aid has failed:

Dr. Wilhor: Divring nearly the whole of the past failed:

Da: William:—During nearly the whole of the past winter. I had suffered seriously with a cough, which had so irritated my lungs, that my physician frankly admitted his fear of consumption following this trouble ut the Spring weather set in. Medicine seemed to afford me little relief, until I tried your preparation of Cod Liver Oil and Lime. The effect I am forced by facts to admit, was almost magical, and I have the pleasure of asyling at this writing. (May 2d, 1853.) I am entirely free from any purposers trouble. pulmonary trouble.

With thanks to you for your valuable discovery, I cordially recommend it to those who are thus afflicted.

Rheumatië and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose conditutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation.—Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds it way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickoning every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find in this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

Caution:—The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many limitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until von have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

BY PARK BESTAMIN. Talk not to me of the southern lawers, Of odors breathed from tropic flowers. Of spice-trees after rain; But of these sweets that freely flow When June's find breezes stir the low - Grass heaped along the plain.

This morning stood the verdant spears, All wet with diamond dew—the tears By Night serenely shed: This evening, like an army slain, They number the pacific plain With their fast fading dead. And when they fell, and all around Such perfumes in the air abound As if long-hidden bives Of sudden richness were unsealed, When on the freshly-trodden field They yielded up their lives. In idle mood I love to pass : These ruins of the crowded grays,
