My Deav Sir.—It passed in pleasure to address you at this particular time, as an important and interestin period of my political life is now at hand. The State elegation is over, and the great Democratic telest can at this pariticular time, as an important and interesting period of my political life is now at hand. The State elegition is over, and the great Democratic ticket came near a defeat. I really shake in my bootswhen i consider the probable result of any own State in November. The complexion of the State election was dark indeed, and is like to be darker unless the white folks can be made believe that I am a better man than a Buck Nigge. The arrangement of the Fillmore and Fremont men in Philadisphia, on the 16th inst. threatens death to me indifficultify and collectively. We cannot, under the cligging stances ask or expect the Fillmore men to vote for the Cliffichmat Platform. After, the Presidential election, I will want a 'lodge in some vast wilderness.' The mountains of Schuylkill county will suit a defeated tandidate as well as any other place. It is there I can find the Democracy winking at the faults of the South, for the sake of their votes. It is there I can find the Black Republicans weeping, for Fambon with one eye on Bleeding Kanasa, and the other looking around for a new mare's near. It is there I can find the Union, men, who know and East, no West, &c., but who are in favor of the Union furt as it, is, which is likely to be case, even if the Wooly Horse be elected. There, too, I can find every mother's on and daughter tuying their Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware and Provisions at your cheap store, as if the Union was safe. My friend Forney tells me that your stock of Goods, purchased this Fall, is large enough to stopply the wants of Schuylkill county and Election? However, but if you have any platforms for sale, my friend Forney and myself will make a selection immediately after the Preddential alection. William Darlington, M. D., Chester Co., William M.
