much to the Colonel's annoyance.

One morning after breakfast, in presence of some large gentlemen who had staid with him over the night, and were now on their way to town, he called his overseer, and said to him:

"Mr. Allen, I desire you to impound Big

"Mr. Allen, I desire you to impound Big Brindle, in order that I may hear no more animadversions on his eternal depredations."

Alten bowed and walked off, sorely puzzled to know what the Colonel meant.

So after Col. W. left for town, he went to his wife and asked her what Col. W. meant by telling him to "impound" the ox.

"Why," said she, "the Cole meant to tell you to put him in a pen." Allen left to perform the feat, for it was no inconsiderable one, as the animal was very wild and vicious, and after a great deal of trouble and vexation he succeeded. "Well," said he, wiping the perspiration from his brow, and solitoquizing, "this is impounding, is it? Now I'm dead sure the old Col. will ask me if I have impounded Big Brindle, and I bet I'll puzzle him as bad as

The next day the Colonel gave a dinner party, and as he was not aristocratic, Allen, the overseer, sat down with the company. After the second or third glass was discussed, the Colonel turned to the overseer, and said:
"Eh, Mr. Allen, did you impound Big Brin-

PAYING OFF A WASHINGTON CAR-DRIVER. -My amusing and eccentric friend G. had a singular experience: He was driven from the station-house in one of those queer contrivances of one horse and a door in the rear. After being backed up before numerous ho Leaf Tobacco, Manufactured Tobacco & Cigari tels, without finding a resting place for self or lugrage, he was at last set down. For an hours ride the driver demanded $5. G. did not grown much nor screw off the number with a pair of sensors, as Mrs. Ramsbotham is said to have done; but he fixed the number in his memory. A few days infter, about tels, without finding a resting place for self or is said to have done; but he fixed the number in his memory. A few days after, about time for the scamp of a driver to forget the transaction, he saw the concern being Jriven down the avenue. Stopping it, he made at engagement to be taken immediately to Mt. down the avenue. Stopping if, he made an engagement to be taken immediately to Mt. Vernon. He asked the driver if he thought they could get back in time for the evening train, and on being assured in the affirmative promised him double fare. They set off at a tremenduous pace. On the first piece of smooth street G, softly opened the door and stepped out. He had the satisfaction of seeing the two-wheeled vehicle continue and disappear at a fearful rate, and has enjoyed many a hearty laugh since at the supposed ustonishment and blank dismay of the unsuspecting driver on arriving at his place of destination. The only reasonable conclusion to which he could have come was, that G. being a small man, had been jolted to pieces and spilled out along the road.—Intercepted

Angels in Petricoats.—A funny correspondent of the Portland Transcript says:

I have recently gin up all idea of women folks, and come lack to perlitikal life. I am more at hum in this line than in hunting the fair seekts. Aingills in petticuts and "kiss me quicks' is putty enough to look at," I gin in, but darn'em they are as slippery as eels; and when you fish for em, an' git a bite, you somehow or other, find yourself at the wrong somehow or other, find yourself at the wrong somehow or other, find yourself at the wrong special contents.

Collections settled with prompiness at current rates of Exchange, without charge. Foreign and American Coin furnished for Shipping and Custom House furnished for Shipping and when you fish for em, an' git a bite, you somehow or other, find yourself at the wrong end of the line—they've totched you! An' when you have stuffed em with peanuts, candy and doggerytypes, they'll throw you away as they would a cole tater. But I've done with em now. The Queen of Sheber, the sleepin' beauty, Kleopatry's needle, Pom pey's pillow, an' Lot's wife, with a steam engine-to help','em, couldn't tempt me. The very sight of a bonnet riles me all over."

"Why, I mean, Colonel," said Allen, "that of the cholery, ripped and tared, anorted and pawed dirt, jumped the fence; tuck to the woods, and would not be impounded no how."

This was too much; the company roared again, in which the Colonel was forced to join, and in the midst of the laughter, Allen left the table, saying to himself as he went, "I reckon the Colonel won't ask, me to impound any more oxen."

STAUFFER & HARLEY. PARITY OF REASONING.—Lately, at a distribution of prizes in a German village, a little girl seven years old, whose parents had just been turned out of their lodging, because they had failed to pay their rent, was asked by the rector.

Could not pay their rent!"

A FRIEND of ours a few days since, was in a grocery store in the country, when two boys came in, the largest of whom was scarcely tall enough to reach the counter comfortably, the other about two biscuits shorter. The tallest of the young gentlemen tiptoed up, and deposited a penny on the counter.—

"Look here," says he to the storekeeper, "give this little chap a stick of caudy—will you? I'm in a hurry," and he stepped out, leaving the "little chap" to wait for his sweetening.

A man of an exceedingly contracted mind was one day complaining to an acquaintance that he had a very acute pain—a little sharp pain, not bigger, seemingly, than the point of a pin. "It's amazing strange," he continued, "don't you think it is? What do you suppo e is the cause of it?" "Why, really, I that he had a very acute pain—a little sharp pain, not bigger, seemingly, than the point of a pin. "It's amazing strange," he continued, "don't you think it is? What do you suppo e is the cause of it?" "Why, really, I dont know," replied the other, "what part of you should be liable to so very minute a pain, unless it be your soul."

Apvice Gratis—Be content as long as your mouth is full and body covered—remember the poor—kiss the pretty girls—don't rob your neighbor's hen roost—never pick an editor's pocket, nor entertain an idea that he is going to treat—kick dull care to the deace—black your own boots—seew on your own buttons, and be sure to take a paper and pay for it. Good practical advice.

The Athens (Gr.) Advertiser gives the following obituary notice of a deceased citizen of that county: "He was the father of eleven sours—fire of the sons having married five siters. He had also one hundred and eightynine grean grand-children; and nother came near stang to death, by bees, and another came near stung to death by bees, and another came near losing his life by the same!"

An Illinois lawyer, defining a thief, wound up his speech to the jury in behalf of his injured client, with the following rousing appeal:—True, he was rude—so air our buffalers.—But he was rough—so air our buffalers.—But he was a child of freedom, and his answer to the despot and tyrant was, that his home was on the bright setting of the sun!"

Cruelity to Children.—Jim, does your mother ever whip you?"

"No; but she does a precious sight worse, though!"

"What's that?"

"Why she washes my face every morning."

Bast.—The thing on account of which its mother should never go to the opern, consequently, need never have a new hat.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTH MA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DICHLITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS. AND ALL SCROFULDIN HUMORS.

Have You Tried it?

This important question should be sked every invalid who is suffering from paimonary trouble in this fichle climate. Have you tried WILDOR'S COMPOUND OF COD LIVER OIL AND LIME! It will not nauscatelike the plain OIL, but is on the contrary, pleasant to the tysis; moreover, the Phosphate of Lime is, in this coming bination, a most remarkable aid to the healing properties of the Pure Cod Liver Oil, as the following certificates (selected from a bost of like the following certificates (selected from a bost of like the following certificates) will amply show. No person should neglect, for a single hour, a cough, or any affection of the lung, lost the most serious consequences follow. Dr. Wilhor's preparation is both and and simple, and sure it sill ordinary cases, and has perfirmed some surprising cursa in decided consumption, where ordinary medical aid has failed: fulled:

DE: WILEOR:—During nearly the whole of the past winter, I had suffered seriously with a cough, which had so irritated my lungs, that my physician frankly admitted his four of consumption following this trouble at the Epring weather set in. Medicine seemed to afford me pring wearner set in. Medicine seemed to afford me little relief, until I tried your preparation of Cod Liver Oil and Line. The effect I am forced by facts to admit, was almost marical and I have the pleasure of saying at this writing, (May 2d, 1852.) I am entirely free from any pulmonary trouble. rulmonary trouble.

Nith thanks to you for your valuable discovery, I cordially recommend it to those who are thus afflicted.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand tottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so 'sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it siways speaks for itself.—
There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plential, and yet fits value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sudd about six bottles per day—in April, 1854. I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in April, 1854. I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in the manuals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In myown practice I always kept it strictly for humors—lut since its introduction as a general family medicine, creat and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic its—a disease which was alreat and wonderful virtues have been found in it that i never suspected.

Soveral cases of epileptic fitz—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. Q, what a merey if it will prove effectuat in allwass of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropay, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Lives, Sigk Handsche, Dyspeptal, Asthum, Feyer and Ague, Pain in the side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in disease of the kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more cood than any medicine ever known. rood than any medicine ever known. These are almost microscopical in their tinity, and indeed are so fragile that they can only perme ate the finest and most perfectly favorable soil. Any obstruction in the form of a stone consolidated mass of earth, or other obstacle operates to direct them, and consequently to prevent the supplying their proportional share of nourishment to the tree. They are, in many respects, strictly analogous to the lac ly possess all the fragility and minuteness of organization which characterise the latter. It will hence be seen that any exposure o
