Miners' Journal.

POTTSVILLE, PA.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1857.

☞ We invite the attention of the press throughout the United States to the following.—We are desirous of collecting all the statistics referred to below—as speedily as possible:

COAL STATISTICS.

Will the press of the country pass the article around?

As Coal exists in a large portion of the Western and Southern [illegible] and in Western Pennsylvania—we are desirous of ascertaining the number of Bituminous Collieries now worked, and those that will be ready in 1857, or which are progressing—whether worked by drifts running in from the water level—by sinking a Shaft or Slope—depth of Slope and Shaft—the Steam power employed at each Colliery—the quantity of Coal mined in 1856—the number and thickness of veins as far as ascertained, and the extent of Coal area as far as known—the principal markets, and the distance to those markets, whether by Railroad or Canal.

We will be thankful to any person residing at any Colliery, if he will give us the above information as early as he can—stating the name of the person or persons or company working the same, together with the name of the County or State in which the Colliery is located.

Address: B. BANNAN, Editor Miners' Journal, Pottsville, Pa.

☞ Hon. Henry Wilson of Massachusetts, we are indebted for public documents.

☞ C. Leib, Esq., Clerk of the Illinois House of Representatives, will accept our acknowledgments for public documents.

☞ Our Advertising Columns.—The pressure upon our columns of a variety of matter, precludes the possibility of noticing in detail the new advertising favors to be found under their appropriate heads. We can only ask the attention of the reader to them in a general manner.

☞ The Delaware, Lackawanna and Great Western Railroad Co. have declared a dividend of three per cent for the last six months, payable in Warren Railroad Stock. Drake Mills, Esq., has been elected President of the Road, to supply the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Phelps and Mr. Warren has been re-elected Treasurer.

☞ Progress in Missouri.—Two members of the Missouri Legislature have openly avowed themselves to be opposed to the extension of slavery, and in favor of Missouri becoming a free State.—Exchange.

A gentleman from St. Louis informed us, a short time ago, that an effort would shortly be made to divide Missouri, with a view of making that portion, including St. Louis, a free State.

☞ Civil and Mining Engineer.—Mr. Henry Pleasants, a talented graduate of one of the most eminent educational Institutions of the country, the Philadelphia High School, a gentleman of attainments and ability, who has had much practical experience as a civil and Mining Engineer, in the Eastern States, has we are pleased to state, located in this Borough for the purpose of pursuing his profession.—His office is in Centre street,—same building occupied by Mr. Poole. While calling attention to the fact of Mr. Pleasants' intention to make this Region the sphere of future duties we ask a kind consideration of his professional merits, which we feel confident cannot fail to be followed by an appreciation of their character.

☞ The Weather in Northumberland County.—Nine days of the past month, commencing with the 18th and ending with the 26th, were the coldest our Northumberland neighbors have experienced for many years. From a correspondent at Shamokin, we have received the annexed statement of the condition of the thermometer at that place on the days stated:

☞ The Erie City Bank.—The cashier of this Bank now in a state of suspension, thinks that the Bank will resume payment about the first of next month. The difficulty originally was caused by the Bank drawing a draft on New York, of larger amount than it had funds at that point to meet. As soon as the mistake was discovered, an attempt was made to meet the draft by the withdrawal from other Eastern points to New York of funds of the Bank, more than sufficient for the purpose. The heavy snow storm interfered however, with the design, and the draft was protested. This is a brief explanation of the principal cause of the suspension. If the Bank is not pressed too hard by note holders and other creditors, which would force it into assignment, it will resume business at the time stated. It would be well to give the Erie City Bank a fair chance.

Mr. Wagonseller's Speech.—In to-day's issue we give the speech of Mr. Wagonseller, in the House of Representatives, on the Senatorial question. While Mr. Wagonseller in many terms, explains his motives for voting as he did, which will elicit commendation from his constituents, the truths he utters must sink deep into the consciences of those who have attempted to foist John W. Forney upon the people of Pennsylvania. Mr. Buchanan's letter proves how inconsistent with previously expressed sentiments was his recent indelicate act of dictating to Pennsylvania who should be re-elected for the position of United States Senator. It is a rock upon which his ship will split, no matter how careful its sails may be trimmed, or how ably the helm be managed. At the outset to lose the confidence of his party in this State, must prove disastrous to the harmony of his Administration. Read Mr. Wagonseller's speech.

The True Foundation of Permanent Government.—Barbarians as we esteem them, yet the Chinese are in advance of us in practical application of the true principles of a firm and lasting government. Education and talent elevate the the humblest to the highest positions in China. In the United States, the ignorant and dishonest too often find their way into our Legislative bodies, as members, while the bigger the fool, the higher the position he attains. Ah, we have something to learn from China in this respect.

The Chinese too, excel us in the mode and justice of their punishment. At the period when they flocked in large numbers into California, they observed a man punished for being drunk.—They were astonished and remarked that in China in such a case, the only man punished was the man who sold the liquor. In that respect too, we learn of the barbarian Chinaman. When we recognise education and talent as the passwords to official station, and punish the vile vender of intoxicating liquor, in place of his victim, we may claim rank with the despised Chinese, and our country may possibly run through as many centuries of existence.

The Gas Difficulty.—Elsewhere will be found the proceedings of the Committee of consumers, and a communication from a Committee of the Company. While the determination expressed to stop the use of the gas on and after the first of the month, has been carried out not only by those who signed the protest, but by many consumers who had not their names appended to it, and while active preparations are on foot, to erect new Works, if the concessions demanded are not granted, the Company appears disposed to yield somewhat the position it at first assumed. Any movement however, short of the reduction asked for, will prove useless, as our citizens have their blood fully up to the boiling point. This community is proverbially, patient and of long suffering. Evils are meekly borne. Extortion submitted to. Arouse it however, to a keen sense of imposition, and it is formidable. In this spirit it is now engaged in combating the Gas Company.

The Committee appointed for the purpose is now engaged in collecting subscriptions for Citizens' Gas Works. Subscriptions are limited to $1000, in order to have the stock equally distributed throughout the community. In the space of two hours yesterday morning the Committee obtained names opposite the amount of $8600, and by this evening we have no doubt the sum needed for the project will be made up. If then the Gas Company does not come to satisfactory terms, measures will be adopted for the immediate erection of new Works, or purchase of the Company's Works, should it be disposed to sell them at their actual worth, or even $5000 or $6000 beyond that. Reform in this matter our citizens are determined to have.

Bigler and Buchanan.—The question at present is, does Buchanan trust Bigler? It is surmised that he does not, as Bigler is timid, irresolute, inconsistent, to the last degree. The feebleness of his administration was the result more of the irresolution of its chief than any other cause. Pennsylvania never had a feebler, more irresolute, more inconsistent, more unpopular administration than William Bigler's, because it never had a Governor who so entirely lacked all the elements of a strong, firm, reliable, acceptable public servant. In 1851 Bigler was unfaithful to Buchanan when he sought the nomination for the Presidency. Will he risk a second disappointment? Since then Buchanan opposed Bigler's election to the Senate, and he was defeated as a delegate to the Convention that nominated Buchanan. Although Bigler stumped the State for Buchanan last Fall, and shockingly misrepresented the Opposition, still it was but toadyism to be reinstated at Wheatland. Buchanan will never trust Bigler. He will use him. He will not break with him. But Bigler will be an uninfluential man in the Court Circle. The Harrisburg Telegraph says:

We hear it stated that the explanation given by Buchanan for his letter in Forney's favor, is that no man in the State so thoroughly understood his opinions as Forney; that Mr. Bigler did not know and could not represent his opinions; and that if Forney were not elected, he would be compelled to look for a spokesman to the representation from some other State. All this is probable; and the statement we believe to be correct. Besides, Bigler has not the calibre to stand for the President in the Senate. He has little knowledge on any subject, is a mere superficial babbler, and has taken, and will take no rank in that body, as a debater. Buchanan is not so foolish as to trust his interests to so frail a vessel.

To establish confidence between Buchanan and Bigler, a new creation of both would be necessary. Buchanan would have to be made more forgiving, and Bigler more honest—Buchanan less implacable, and Bigler less trickery—Buchanan more a man, and Bigler less a knave. We leave our readers to pass upon the probability of such an occurrence.

Headache, Loss of Appetite and Mental Depression.—Nicolus Schoster, living on Coal Hill, says: "My sincerest thanks are due to the friend recommending your Holland Bitters. Having suffered for some time with headache, loss of appetite, mental depression, and in fact general disorder of the system, I now feel, after using but one bottle, conscious of returning health."

Pottsville, February 7th, 1857.

At a stated meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pottsville Water Company held at their Office, February 2nd, 1857, on motion of E. Yardley, Esq., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

Whereas, the resignation of Benjamin Pott, Esq., from the Board of Managers of the Pottsville Water Company having been tendered, is necessarily but reluctantly accepted; therefore be it unanimously

Resolved, That the present Board of Managers, on behalf of the stockholders, respectfully tender to him the sincere thanks of the Company for his fearless, faithful, and judicious efforts in placing the works in their present effective operation.

Resolved, That it is the unanimous opinion of this Board that to the indefatigable exertions of Benjamin Pott, Esq., the citizens of Pottsville are indebted mainly for their present abundant supply of pure water, so essential to their comfort and the protection of their property—while the stockholders will bear in grateful remembrance the careful attention, fidelity and energy with which he ever discharged the various duties as Manager.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be entered on the minutes, and a copy be handed Mr. Pott—and that the Secretary cause the same to be published in one or more papers of the Borough.

THE COAL TRADE.

Pottsville, February 7, 1857.

The quantity sent by Railroad this week is 19,579 06 tons. Total for the season 235,184 07 against 186,496 12 tons to same period last year.

The whole supply sent from this Region is required for the city consumption and on the line. No Coal, as far as we can learn, is being stored at Richmond.

The Success of the Coal Organization.—Last year, 3,359,504 tons nett weight, were shipped from Schuylkill County, and all the Operators except twelve, we believe, representing about 2,900,000 tons, have signed the agreement to conform to the organization, leaving less than 500,000 tons not represented. Of the twelve Operators, only one, representing about 10,000 tons, has positively refused to sign—and several of the others, among which are only three or four large Operators, are holding it under advisement, and five or six have not been seen. With such a unanimity of sentiment among our Operators, it would be positively to be regretted that a single one, (unless it is to furnish an exception to a general rule), should be withheld his co-operation.

Anthracite Coal is getting scarce in New York, and Schuylkill and Lehigh have advanced to $7 per ton of 2000 lbs. The consumers are paying pretty dear for the false promises held out by speculators last season, and judging from some of the wild statements put forth in some of the New York papers, about the immense supply of coal from new sources, they feel anxious to be "humbugged again."

Some intended remarks on the state of the Coal Trade have been crowded out this week by the Annual County Statement, which we received at late period, and could not be postponed.

DESIRABLE COAL LEASE FOR SALE.

The SUBSCRIBER will sell a very desirable Coal Lease on the celebrated vein of coal, known as the Baltimore vein, situated about one and a half miles below Plymouth, in Luzerne county, Pennsylvania. Said vein ranges from 25 to 30 feet in thickness, and the coal is of the best quality mined in the Wilkesbarre Basin. The Coal lies above the water level, and the Scranton and Bloomsburg Rail Road is located almost at the mouth of the Tunnel, which gives the purchaser the option of transporting his coal to market, either by Railroad or by Canal—at the Nanticoke Dam, where landings are erected for the shipping of Coal. The capacity of the Colliery depends only upon the extent of the market for coal. The lease extends for a term of 14 years. Samples of the Coal can be seen at the office of the subscriber, when also the terms of sale will be made known.
