The witnesses being sworn, two or three were examined and deposed. One said that he heard the noise and did not see the fight; another that he had seen the row but did'nt know, who struck first, and is third that he was very drunk and coulin't say much about the skirmage.

Lawyer Chops-I am sorry, gentlemen, to have occupied your time with the stupidity of the witnesses examined. It arises, gentlemen, altogether from misapprehension on my part. Had I known as I now do, that I had a witness in attendance who was well acquainted with all the circumstances of the case, and who was able to make himsolf clearly understood by the court and jury, I should not so long have trespassed upon your time and patience. Come forward, Mr. Harris, and be sworn.

So, forward comes the witness, a fut shuffly old man, a "little" corned, and took his oath with an air.
