[FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL] THOMASTOWN, Oct. 30, 1857. Mr. B. BANKAN-SF.-In the Workman's Advocate of Get. 24th. 1857, printed in Mineraville, we found an ar-ticle headed "Highway Robbery in Thomastown, Cars township." The people of Thomastown and vicinity all fiel affected at such a libel against their character. He may that a farmer was robbed of the contents of his wa-gon, and that the people of that neighborhood are all highwaymen. He dees not give any author's name, but maliciously charges it upon the people, who deny the as-iertion-and if the editor does not some out and give his author for the charge and defond himself, horns and all, they are determined to pull him ont by the tail. The gentleman interested with the York Company's businessi a this vicinity are punctual to justice, and the iron fendleman interested with the York Company's business in this vicinity are punctual to justice, and the iron hand of the law is also here without interest, favor or af-fection to any of us. They require him to give the au-thor of the charge, or they will proceed against him ac-pording to law. It's For the people of Thomastown.
