breeding to improve the fleece of the animals received from the King of Spain, and they have succeeded in obtaining a delicate, small animal, which yields the well known Saxony wool. The gentleman who purchased the sheep at the sale of the royal flock, purchased also a still larger number of Saxony sheep; carried both kinds to Australis, and laid the foundation of the family of Australian sheep, producing a fine silky woel .--This has been effected by crossing the breads from England and Saxony.

Whence came the merinoes of the United States? Mr. Livingston, our Minister to France in the latter part of the reign of Louis XVI., got a few from the Rambouliet flock in that kingdom, and carried them to New Rochelle in New York. Col. Humphries, our Minister at Spain at that Baws, Steel Squares, Broad Axes a Hatchets time, received some as a present from the Spanish King, and carried them to Connecticut ; but they Adzes, Bentty's Framing Chinel Ship Augurs and Bitts, never amounted to much. On Napoleon's invasion of Spain the spoond time, to re-establish liwrsland Farmin Implements, Cabinet Trimmings, in Joseph on the throngs, the royal flocks were sold, by order of the Cortes, to reise money to defend the nation. The purchasers were to have a right to carry them out of the kingdom. William Jarvis, still living in Vermont, our Concul then at Lisbon, bought eleven hundred at that auction, and sent them to Baltimore, Philadelphis, New York and Boston, reserving a flock to himself .--He has retained that family of sheep to this day, on his farm in Vermont, where he has ever since resided, and has kept shearings of the fleece every Description of the purposes of compari-paper.
