Emthusiastic Meeting.
An anti-Lecompus meeting was held in New York on Wednesday, Hon. Georga Bancreft presiding. Hon. F. P. Stanton delivered a strong speeth.

In the State Senate on Thursday, Mr. Stranb reported a bill to incorporate the Dimes Saving Institution of Pottsville. Such an Institution in good hands, would be a benefit to the community. Liquor bills are as absoduct at Harrisburg this winter, as blackborries in August. Ave as Probibition. We want so farcical essentiates. The present law is violated with impunity in this County.

The Guilletine at Work. The are is sharpened for every Douglas head in the enjoyment of faderal patronage. This policy way succeed in attiking down some few friends of the Senater from Illinois, but the resetting of all persecution is damaging to those who employ it as a weapon, and may serve to help, rather than harm him in the long run.

From Ennass.

From Ennass we have new that the Territorial Legislature had adjourned. Governor Deuver did not sign the bill calling a new constitutional convention. Parties of armed men were roving about in the neighborhood of Fort Scott, but no fighting had occurred. A band of free State men have visited Kickapoo with venguance for the infamous frauds perpetrated there. Several houses have been burned, and a number of notorious proslavery men driven off into Missouri.

The Lecompton Constitution.
It is possible that next week this infamous measure will be forced through Congress—the work of James Buchanan. The act will light the torch of sivil war in Kansas. We say to the people of that Territory, resist it, and you will have not only the sympathies of the North, but its strong arm to saisist you in resisting territory. arm to assist you in resisting tyranny. If the Constitution does not pass let the South bluster disunion. We of the North are not to be again humbugged by the cry of "wolf, welf!"

Congressional.

In the United States Senate on Thursday, Mr. Green of Mo., reported from the Committee on Territories a bill for the admission of Kaness into the Union as a State, accompanied by a long re-port, which was not read. Minority reports were submitted by Messre. Douglas and Collamer, which were ordered to be printed. Mr. Green gave no-tice that he should call up the matter at an early day. The consideration of the bill to increase the army was resumed, and the fourth section was stricken out by ayes 24, noes 23. Mr. Wilson's amendment was adopted, providing that the reduction to take place at the end of two years shall not operate on any officer in commission at the date of the approval of the act.

An amendment was adopted, providing that, in no case, shall the increased army forces be coninued in service over two years. In the House, the entire day was consumed in partican debate. As WE ANTICIPATED.-Intelligence from Washington states that Speaker Orr's Committee of Investigation of the Kansas frauds has determined to stifle the inquiry which the House ordered. This proceeding is a piece with everything hitherto done about Kansas. No regard has been paid to regularity, to parliamentary rule, to fairness, nor to decency, from the outset, and of course we See signature. "J Duroxco," on each box—none may presume that so it will be to the end.— The majority of the House, after a thorough and determined canvass, and an unprecedently large vote, decided to have full investigacompton Constitution, and ordered a Committee to make it. To Speaker Orr was deferred the appointment of this Committee after parliamentary custom, and with the obligation of honor, and impartiality, and uniform rule resting upon him to constitute it with a majority in favor of the investigation. He disregarded the imperative obligations of his position, and gave a majority of the Committee to its enemies. In doing this he has set a pernicious example, the consequence of which will surely return to plague the inventors.-The objects of the House having been thus frustrated, nothing remains to be done but to fight the battle over again when the Committee shall report. The public sense has become so used to fraud and outrage and villainy of every description practised against Freedom in Kansas, that this conduct of Speaker Orr and the Investigating Committee will also be viewed as a matter of course in the march of this infamous drama to its final completion. THINK OF HOME. The husband who in his moments of relaxation from the cares of business, allows his thoughts to revert to his family circle, is in a measure safe from the trials and temptations of the world. We rewho give a practical turn to such thoughts. ORPHANS' COURT SALE.
