The Rose fiend exults. His loud laugh pursts upon the frightened ear, and women who entertained the slightest hope of saving from Costruction husbands, sons and brothers, gradually being drawn into the frightful vortex of intemperance, wail, and wring Their hands in despair. The Legislature almost unchecked, is considering and will undoubtedly, bass a liquor bill, which ifft receives the sanction of Governor Packer, will open a Free Trade in Rum, appalitig to contemplate. Where is public opinion? Is it paralysed? Are we to sit in sullen despair, see the law daily violated, and permit unrebuked, our Legislature to enact laws, opposed to social peace and happiness? If so, we have already lost the dignity of citizens of a Republic. 'Twere better we herded with Hottentets, and squatting, gaze listlessly the entire day in

GOTHAMITE BUBBLES. CORRESPONDENCE OF THE MINERS' JOURNAL. Rip's Introduction—The Fancy Dress Ball at the Crystal Palace—Hasquerade Balls—New York Cent Coiners—Ocean Steamship Service—Kans ument-Religious-Theatrical, &c. New York, Thursday, April 15, 1858.

DEAR JOURNAL:—Nothing affords me, a wearied, ennuied denizen of this Babel of wonders, people, appens and crimes, more real pleasure than a saif of Schuylkill County air which I re-ceive weekly, through the medium of the Jous-NAL. It brings back the faces of old friends, and boy days, when the only cloud which obscured my sunuy sky, was the stern command of my tuter in the Academy, to "hold out your hand."

A score of years has passed since then, but long John and fighting Clem., with fiery, Egbert, are figures in scenes which denth alone can erase from memory. A singular thing is childhood. With a mind plastic as wax, the impressions received boy days, when the only cloud which obscured in youth, either for good or evil, remain perfect, contest of life. In a spirit therefore, at this tim the griter has long been separated, I pen there sation in the Southern States to aid the liberal at the Crystal Palace, a building which at present bears a strong resemblance to a huge sieve, in consequence of the precivity of young New York to shy stones through its crystal walts. The affair undoubtedly, was gotten up with the most charitable intentions, but, Ifeaven preserve me from again mingling in such a melange of virtue and vice, gentility and rowdyism, disorder and of the maximum. The affair undoubtedly, was gotten up with the most charitable intentions, but, Ifeaven preserve me from again mingling in such a melange of virtue and vice, gentility and rowdyism, disorder and of the maximum of Grand View, Missouri, to a maiden of the ripe age of 75! and vice, gentility and rowuysen, discussed of dischenness as marked the closing hours of the ball. There were at least, ten thousand per the ball. sons present, and the early part of the night, du-sons present, and the early part at the night, dir-ging which one was fairly bewildered by the gaily dressed crowd, the architecture, lights and music, was very pleasant; but the closing hours were a dis-grace to a civilized community. After one o'clock riot. Civilians and police omeers came into col-lision, fights took place, and in one instance a dirk was drawn by one of two intoxicated men who were engaged in a quarrel. Men forced their way into the ladies' dressing rooms, the shelves fell down, the ladies fainted, pickpockets reaped a rich harvest, and the crowd getting possession of the clock and dressing rooms, every one seized pon what he or she could get, the ladies, however, faring the worst, many of them being utterly. unable to recover their robes and having to return home in their bull costumes. Added to this that some of the must notorious griminals of the city were present, disguised in they decises, and that intoxicating drinks were about the only refreshments that were to be obtained, and you may imngine, mon char fournal, the scenes that ensued. In short, much as I-have become resigned to what seems chronic in the shape of crime in this island city, I was completely disgusted with the whole offair; charity was wronged and insulted, and rewindled. A reporter of one of our daily papers, does not exaggerate when he says—"There was

of liquor produced its natural effects, and as the small hours wore on, border ruffisnism was rampant. There was fighting, howling and screaming for lost garments. The policemen who endeavored to assist the distribution, did it in such a stupid way that they made matters worse.— Disorder reigned supreme. Pickpockets and clo-thing-thieves darted here and there like Mexican juerillas, plundering as they went. All sense of ourtery and politeness was lost. People were knocked down, kicked and trampled upon. The Palace resounded with the din of shouting, howling, fouring, cursing, awaring and screaming, in all the languages under heaven. Babel was noth-ing tools. The whole affair was a disgrace to the city. People in the wilds of Oregon or the borders of Texas would have conducted themselves subjects for a revival to act upon?

Apropos of balls, Monsieur Musard, a very ever musical conductor, one who yields his baton with graceful case and power, and without the slightest taint of affectation, but who comes here with his father's prestice, not upon his own made it, and finally, we understand, to Samuel above miracles, we have a virtuous Justice, one Mr. Welsh, who crushes them with a sweep of his pen, by informing him that the balls are in violation of the laws of the State, and that the project must be abandoned. Besides, they were not to be fashionable. A few people in "the world" were at first quite willing to take sents up stairs and look on while the common folk played the fool for their amusement. But when it was found that ladies only were to be masked, and that, for respectability's sake only black dominos and black masks were to be permitted, the thing was condemned at once as a solemn bore-a fur neral masque, and handed over to the underta-kers. So fashion will not go; and when she goes not, those who follow her, stay, of course, away.

The most respectable of our journals have taken strong ground against these demoralizing exhibitions, and we have the satisfaction of feeling that they are effectually crushed, at least in public opinion if not be less.

Vicinity was a little.—The Cincinnati Requirer has the foliosting to Passing along the street yesterday, our attention was suddenly drawn to a some not allithe novel and interesting it its character. It is an alley, with pastepot to hand, and a roll of billis on his arm, whom should we see but Wesley Schend, late President of the Chinens Rank, posting his own bills of property for sale, for the purpose of paying off the remaining debias of the Rank. Heedless of the wondering gase of the astonished passer-by, he laid out the paste and spread out the bills with all the readiness and fallity of a practical poster, taking care to place them in the most conspicuous positions, and above the reach of boys and ray-pickers. Forty-three years ago Dr. Smead was an appression in the Gazette establishment, and being the youngest, the duty devolved upon him of posting up the show-bills, &c. At this late period of his life, when overtaken by adversity, he is no bly strengting (a rare sight, indeed, among bankers,) to discharge all his obligations to his creditors.

From Sayra Fr.—Colonel Strain arrived at St. Lonis. discharge all his obligations to his creditors.

From Savya Fr.—Colonel Strain arrived at St. Louis on Sunday last from Santa Fe in advance of the innil.—He reports that Captain Marcy left the camp ground, forty miles from Fort Bulon, on the 18th of March. He had with him about twelve hundred autimals, mostly mules, with an abundant supply of forage and plenty of provisions for the base. He had one hundred and fifty regular troops, and the same number of herdsmen and mouttainees with him, and expressed entire confidence in being able to reach Camp Scott without difficulty.—He intended to travel slowly, so as to keep the animals in good condition, but expected to join Gest Johnston before the first of May.

An express from Fort Leavenworth, with orders to General Garland to furnish Captain Marcy with a strong eccort, was met on, the 18th utting, six miles cast of TERRIBLE FIGHT IN SPRIEGIFIELD, KT.—Beb. Palmer, a son of Hon. B. C. Palmer, and W. M. Booker, a son of Judge Paul Booker, met in a bar-room in Springfield, Ky., on Saturday night last, and had an altercation relative to Booker having been chosen gaptain of a volgin teer company to go to Utab. First were first used; each find an excession, three of Palmer's hitting Booker-one in the left breast. The first shot fired by Booker struck Palmer in the grote, penetrating the bladder—a mortal wound.—He was also wounded in the leg. After exhausting his shots, Palmer hurled his pistol with all his strength against Booker, who, thinking himself mortally wounded, seized the other with his left band by the cust collar, and throwing away, his pistol, drew a bowle knife and stabbed the unfortunate Palmer nine times in the breast and body. The latter foll dead in his tracks, his bdy streaming blood at every pore. Booker may possibly sarvive his wounds, though it is thought the shot in the breast will prove fatal. a gentleman in New Oriesns, with a remittance of coating sugar, and the latter being attributable to the 5000 50, collected at a lecture delivered there, on the orthogreed of Wallace and truce, and offering, on behalf of e gratefully received.
