Fowle.—Pear Sir.: Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave.--resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent Pains in the Side and Chest. I became so much reduced that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis I heard of Wieter's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately cent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonder-ful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, sine which time I have continued to in prove daily and the same physician who had given me up told me, a lew days since, that I might yet live many years. Respectfully, MARY ROWE.
