A DISCRIMINATING JUDGE .- The police court in the thriving town of B., id Maine, which boasts a bay rivalling that of Naples, is presided over by one Judge W., who is something of a wag as well as a lawyer. On one occasion, while enjoy-ing postprandial feast of reason and flow of soul ing postprandial least of, feason and now of soul of the colleges design perfecting a with some of the jolly fellows of that region, the Judge was summoned to the court room, to try a man arrested for drunk mess. Having heard the testimony, which clearly proved the crime, the Judge then asked the accured : the testimony, which clearly proved the crime, the Judge then asked the accused : "Have you any friends ?" "No, your honor." "Have you any money ? "No, your honor." "Then," said Judge W., "if you have no friends and no money, I must proceed to pronounce the sentence of the court, which is, that you be inprisoned for thirty days in the house of correction, and may God have mercy on your soul." A SMART PEOPLE.--- Not long ago, writes a cor-respondent of the AnickerSocker, an attorney with aiderable swell, but not much braine, came to C----, in Ohio, to locate
