Wit and humor. MORMON LOVE SONG. Bar, Sasan, will then come with me in sweet community to live? Of heart, and hand, and home to thee A sixteenth part i'll freely gigs. Of all the love that swells my breast,
Of all the honor of my name,
Of worldly wealth by me possessed,
A sixteenth portion thou shall claim. Nay, tell me not too many share The blessings that I offer theo; Thou'lt flud but fifteen others there, A household happy, gay and free. A moderate homehold I may say;
My neighbor his as many more,
And brother Brigham o'er the way
Luxuristes in folty-four. I promise thee gills of ease, And for thyself, I'll let thee choose Such duties as thy fancy please; Say, Sukan, cans thou still refuse? Sephronis cooks and sweeps the floors, And Hepsibah makes up the beds, Jemima answers at the doors, And Pradence combs the childrens' he The household duties all devolve On each according to her lot; But from such labors Pil absolve, My Eusan, if also likes them not. Into thy hands such tasks as take
A dignity, will deconsing:
Fil let thee black my boots, or make
The sock and shirt department thine. I'll give thee wha knower thou wiltso it be but a sliteenth part;
Twould be the deepest depth of guilt
To slight the rest who share my heart. Then wilt thus not the fraction yield To make up my domestic bliss? By yea-and let bur joy be sealed With just the winteenth of a kins. HERE I DANGLE. "A PLY AYORE END, AND A POOL ATTHE OTHER." Where the river seeks the cover.
Of the boughs place trees hang over,
And the slopes are green with clover,
In the quiet month of May;
Where the eddles meet and mingle,
Rabbling o'er the stony shingle, Oh, 'tis sweet is feel the plantic Rod, with top and butt classic, Shoot the line in colis fantastic, Till, like thirdle down, the fly Lightly drops upon the water. Thirsting for the fluny slaughter, As I sagle, And I langle Hutt and sly. Then I gently thake the tackle, Till the harbed and fatal hackle, In its tempered laws shall shackle That old troot, so wary grown. A HARP SERMON. My Beloved Brebering-I am an unlarut bard-shell Baptist preacher, of whom you've no doubt heern before, and I now sphear here to ex-pound the scriptures and plut out the narrow way, which leads from a wain world to the streets of the New Jerusalem, and my text which I shall choose for the occasion, is in the leds of the Bible, somewhere between the 2d Chronicles and the last chapter of Timothy Titus, and when you find it you will find if in these words: "And they shall ghaw a file and fice unto the mountains of Hepsidam, what the lion reareth and the whang-doodle mourneth for its first born." Now, my brethring, as I have before told you, I am an unedicated man, and know nothing about grammer talk and collidge high-falutin; but I'm a plain unfarnt preacher of the Gospil what's been fore-ordained and called to expound scriptures to a dyin' world, an prepar a prevers generation for the day of wrath; for "they shall knaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the whangmath for its first-born. My below-ed brothring, the tex says "they shall gnaw a file." It don't say may, but they shall. 'And now there's more'n one kind of file.'

There's the handsaw file, rat-tail file, double file and profile; but the kind of file spoken of here isn't one of them kind neither; because it's a figger of speech, my brethring, and it means going it alone, getting utered; for "they shall gnaw upon a file and fiee upto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion coareth and the whang-doodle mourneth for its first born." And now there be some here with fine close on their backs, brais rings on their fingers and lard on that har, what goes it while they're young; and that be brothers here what, as long as their constitutions and forty cent whisky last, goes it blind; and than be sisters here what, alone and got ukered; for "they shall gnaw a file and fice outo the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the whang doedle mourneth for its first born." And my brethering, there's more dams besides Hepsidam, Amsterdam, mill dam, and don't care-a-dam-the last of which, my dear brethering, is the worst of all, and reminds me of a circumstance I once knew in the state of Illenoy. Than was a man what built a mill on the east fork of Augur creek, and it ground a site of grain, but the man who built it was a miscrable sinner, and never guy nothing to the church; and my brethering, one night that come a dreadful storm of wind and rain, and the fountains of the great deep were broken up and waters rushed down and swept that man's will dam into kingdom come, and to and behold, in the morning when he got up, he found be was not worth a dam. Now, my young brethering, when the storms of temptation overtake ye, take care you don't fall from grace and become like the man's mill-not worth 'a dam, for "they shall gnaw a file and fice unto the mountains of Repsidam, what the lion rosreth and the whang doodle mourneth for its first blows his last trump, that you've all went it and goes it with a rash; but I say, my dear broth-

"Whar the lion careth and the whang doodle mourneth for its first born." This part of the tex, my brethren, is another figger of speech, and isu't to be taken as it says. It don't mean the howling wilderness, whar John the bard shell Baptist was fed on locusts and wild asses; but it means my brethren, the city of New Or-leans, the mother of harlots and of hard lotswher corn is worth six bits a bushel one day and nary red the next; whar niggers are as thick as black bugs in spoiled bacon ham; and gam-blers, thieves and pickpockets go skirting about the streets like weasels in a born yard—what they blers, thieves and pickpockets go skirting about the streets like weasels in a barn yard—whar they have cream colored horses, gilded carriages, marble saloons with brandy and sugar in 'em—whar honest men are apareer than ben's teeth, and a the color of honest men are apareer than hen's teeth, and a strange woman once tuk in your beloved preacher and bamboozled him out of two hundred and the strange woman or the teeth strange woman o twenty-seven dollars in the twinkling of a sheep's sable to this testif.

Terms: My brethring, I am captain of that flat boat you see tied up thar, and I've got abord of her flour, bacon and pats, and potaters and apples, and as good Monongabels wiskey as you ever drunk; and I'm nighty apt to git a big price for it all. But what, oh my brethring, would it all be worth if I hadn't relidgin? Thar's nothing THE BOARD of MANAGERS have like relidgin' my brathring. It's better nor silver and gold Jimeracks, and you can no more get to Ileaven without t than a dog without a tail.—

Thank the Lord, I'm an uneddicated man, my brethring, but I've searched the scriptures from Dan to Barshebee, and found old Zion right side up and hard shell reliding in the best of all reliding the jear 1858:

THE STATE FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE Company of Penna.
OFFICE—92 Market Street, Harrisburg, Pa. Capital 380,000 dollars.
Insure all the safer classes of property against Loss by iru, perils of Inland Navigation and Transportation. JOHN P. RUTHERFORD, President. Sailing Pusitively on the Day Adsertised.

THE noble A I, extreme clip. The per slip "Sierra Newada," 1942 tons registee—Pexasilow, Commander—succeeds the "KEYSTONE," for Melbourne, and will sail punctually on the 20th of July. This noble slip is worthy of being styled a floating palace. Her saloon accommodations for fifteen presengers only are far more roomy and unufous than can be found on board of any steamer, whilst for thirty-two second class passengers, the whole of the midship house is fifted up. Navlical men will appreciate her proportions by being informed that her carpenter's measurement is 1912 tons, with capacity for 3200 tons of weight and measurement. She is of streme clipper model, and her roominess can be imagined by knowing that her breadth of beam on deck, at midship, is 44 feet. As she has frequently logged fifteen matical miles, and will be in light tim, it is expected that she will make the passage out inside of seventy days.

Passengers are recommended to makeestly application for borths. A few steerage passongers will be taken, at BENJ. BANNAN has been appointed Agent for this Company in SchuyBill county, and is prepared to insure all tinds of property at the lowest rates with regard to security. DON'T SHOOT THE BIRDS. Don't shoot the birds, the warbling birds,
That cheer you with their song.
That fill the air with melosites
The bright and heppy throng:
That carol feeth their native lays
From shrub and lofty limb,
And gaily sing their tuneful strains
From morn till evening dim. Don't shoot the birds, the harmlass birds,
That come with buds and flowers,
That soothe the farmer's weary toil
Through the summer's sultry hears:
That build their nests and brood their you
Beside your cottage door,
And linger near from early spring
Till autumn's golden store.

Don't shoot the birds, the sportive birds,
That fit o'er hill and plain.
That leave when chilling winter comes,
But soon return sgain:
That warble on their hymn of praise
With many a gleeful volce.
Which claims the daily cares of life,
And bids the heart rejoke.
