

Miners' Journal.

POTTSVILLE, PA.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1858.

MR. JAMES H. CAMPBELL AND THE TARIFF.

The Miners' "Catechism" of this week, reproduces from the "Catechism Journal," a sketch on the subject of Hon. James H. Campbell's course in Congress, full of the most shameful and base-faced falsehoods, some of which we will quote:

"Mr. H. is a 'tall man' reported in the Committee of Ways and Means (of which Mr. Campbell was a member) reducing the duty on Railroad Iron from 30 per cent, down to 24 per cent."—This falsehood is called by the record of the proceedings of Congress, which shows that no reduction was made on Iron by the Bill reported by the Committee of Ways and Means. See Committee Report, p. 16, 1857, ibid.

"Mr. H. is a 'tall man' reported in his power to defeat the Free Trade Bill in the Committee of Ways and Means, and was silent on the subject, and refused to pass the Committee, and come up before the House, where it was ushered through, and became the law of the land."—The record shows that present Tariff Bill was framed by the Finance Committee, the Buchanan Free Trade Committee, and passed in the Senate by a vote of 36 to 10, and in the House over Mr. Campbell's negative vote. The House Committee of Ways and Means were not the authors of the present Tariff Bill, but it is the creation of the Dewart and Cale Democratic party.

"Mr. No. 3.—'The present Tariff Bill originated in the Committee of Ways and Means, which was composed of six men and three Free Traders, and its author is the author of the six men.'—We have already shown that this falsehood is made out of the whole cloth—that such Bill was reported by the Committee of Ways and Means.

"Mr. No. 4.—'Mr. Campbell entered into the contest for N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, an avowed Free Trader, opined to the protective system and protection of our own interests.'—This is disproved by the fact that he appeared in the Committee of Ways and Means, Senator Banks, and a Protective Tariff majority on that Committee, who stood firmly by Pennsylvania interests.

"Mr. No. 5.—'Mr. Banks, when selected Speaker, to preside over an American Congress, was Aged of a Free Trade Bill to make large sales in this country of Buchanan's bill, brought down the Anti-Billing Mills, Passaic, etc., &c., &c.'—A bold, bold, unblushing falsehood originated in the wicked brain of the Shamokin assessor, and is repeated only by such men as purchased "Price" of the Catechism and the Catechism.

What can an insulted community do to rebuke these bold libelers? The strong arm of the law protects us to restrain them. Let an indignation sweep over the people, and let them stand upon their falcons on the Twelfth of October month, at the ballot box, by voting with overwhelming majorities—strike candidate the People's Ticket, from the Hon. James H. Campbell down. We will give the blighters some slight idea of the contempt in which they are held here.

OVERWHELMING TESTIMONY.

MR. GEO. E. LUCAS & HENRY C. CAREY'S TESTIMONY IN FAVOR OF THE TARIFF.

James H. Campbell.—Knowing that a score of eminent gentlemen took a lively interest in favor of Protection to American Industry, and used every effort to defeat the bill of 1857—what could we do? We visited Washington, and also kept up a correspondence with others, showing what was the course of the Hon. James H. Campbell, while that Bill was pending in the Senate. We sent him a copy of the passage reported to us. To this we received the following explicit reply which will satisfy every honest man in search of the truth on this point:

"B. HARVEY, Esq.—POTTSVILLE, Sept. 20, 1858.
Sir:—Your letter, addressed to me, and referred to your office, has just reached me. I am sorry to say that he has been a traitor to his country. The people of Pittsfield, Mass., will bear witness to this. Mr. Campbell has, on every occasion, done his best to sustain the bill. I am very sorry to hear of his conduct."

HENRY C. CAREY.—
"I have seen, Sir,—Dear Dr. Read, Sept. 20, 1858. On the 1st of August, I received a letter from you, relating to my services to the country, and I most heartily thank you for the kind words you said of me. I have no doubt that he has been a traitor to his country. The people of Pittsfield, Mass., will bear witness to this. Mr. Campbell has, on every occasion, done his best to sustain the bill. I am very sorry to hear of his conduct."

JOHN M. READ.

Another lie of the Free Traders nailed.

The Democratic press assert that John M. Reid, the People's candidate for Judge of Supreme Court, sent a letter to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846. The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

JOHN M. READ.

Another lie of the Free Traders nailed.

The Democratic press assert that John M. Reid, the People's candidate for Judge of Supreme Court, sent a letter to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating him for having voted for the tariff of 1846.

The statement is false. The letter signed by John M. Reid was John F. Read, a responsible democratic newspaperman, who then resided in Chester street, that city. In addition to that, Mr. John M. Reid says that he was in the city of Philadelphia when the letter of 20th of July, 1846, and the answer of Mr. Dallas of the 1st of August were written, and that he never saw the original of the letter of the 20th of July, nor did he ever receive any communication from him.

Mr. C. C. Read, in his article in the "People's Journal," dated 1st of August, 1846, and attached to the letter of 20th July, to Mr. Dallas, signed by Alexander Ford and others, I find the name of John F. Read, but not the name of John M. Reid." Thus is another lie.

Since the above has been prepared for publication, we have received a letter from Mr. Henry C. Carey, of New Haven, Conn., to Mr. Dallas, congratulating