POTTSVILLE. PA.

IATURDAY, DECREER 15, 1888. CENTRAL AMERICA. There has been much unnecessary excitein the waters of San Juan. A vorrespondent of the New York Times referring to the visit, says Commudere Melatosh sildrerred a letter to Capt. Aldham, of the Valorus, against the proceeding rantable, and that it would not be allowed. Capt. Aldham, in reply, claimed the right to Can there be a substantial union of the Oppo-vielt ships and institute an examination at San sition to the Sham Democracy in the Presidential visit ships and institute an examination at San Scanvans of 1869? This is a question which we Jans, for it was within the Mosquito kingdom, have not raised, but, fluding it under discussion, which Great British was bound by its treaties to protect. Commodore McIntosh sent a second on to Capt. Aldham, the mature of which had not transpired; but the person who carried it, said he had had an interview with Capt. Aldham and Bir William Gore Ouseley, the Brit. ish minister, and that he considered the recent affair of boarding the Washington as now entis factorily settled, as far as it could be, by fing offi cer McIntush; and that he had no doubt there would the no difficulty in future in that respect the boarding and examination of American mer chant ressels by British cruisers in the waters of the Musquito coast. Capt. Aldham and the Mini ister's Secretary afterwards visited Commodori McIntosh on board the Rosnoke, and were cord ally received, and remained on board all night.
