PARODY.

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view,
The chores-a-tress, the goose-pond, the pigs in the pine wood,
And every old stump that my infancy hung shadow;
The hickinkum basswood, with slide and another fell;
The horses that grazed where Rives in the meadow,
All show on the mountain to be drowned in the well.
And all the young kittens, the milk-loving kittens,
The meek little kittens we drowned in the well.

The poor ——— ses with pleasure my grandfather's goggles,
Which rode so majestic astraddle his nose;
And the harness, oft mended with tow string and "log-gins,"
That belonged to old Dolly, now five years her woes.
And fresh in my heart is the fresh maple woodpile,
Where often I've worked with beetle and wedge,
Striving to whack up enough to last a good while,
And grumbling because my axe had no edge.
And there was the kitchen, and pump that stood nigh it,
Where we sucked up the drink through a quill in the spout;
And the books where we hung up the pumpkin to dry it;
And the old cider pitcher, no doing without;
The old brown earthen pitcher, the nozzle-cracked pitcher,
The patronizing pitcher, "no doing without."

And there was a school house, away from such dwelling,
Where school-marms would govern with absolute sway;
Who taught me my "ultimelic," reading and spelling,
And "whaled me like blazes" about every day.
I remember the ladder that swung in the passage,
Which led to the loft in the peak of the house,
Where my grandmother hung up her pumpkin and sausage.
To keep them away from the rats and the mouse,
But now, far removed from that nook of creation,
Emotions of grief big as tea kettles swell,
When Fancy rides back to my old habitation,
And thinks of the kittens we drowned in the well.
The black little kittens, the milk-loving kittens,
The poor little kittens we drowned in the well.

AN INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE.

Our readers (says the Memphis Eagle) will remember a circular published in our columns from Mr. James A. Jones, a candidate for Congress in Arkansas, in opposition to Mr. Rust. Jones was defeated by some six or seven thousand majority, and upon ascertaining the result came out in his paper, the Ouachita Herald, as follows:

DEFEATED, OR UP SALT RIVER.

"We cave."—Muggins.

"Not in vain should such examples be."—Byron.

We—that is to say James A. Jones, editor of the Ouachita Herald and late candidate for Congress—are ingloriously defeated. To use a classical and entirely original expression, "we have met the enemy and we are theirs." We evidently cast our pearls before swine. We magnanimously, and at a considerable sacrifice of our habitual self-respect, offered to serve a people who had no appreciation of the offering. We didn't make the people, and are not under contract to supply them with brains. If they were wilfully blind to our merit the fault is theirs. If they are opposed to receiving individually a hundred and sixty acres of land apiece, they have a right to reject it; they know whether or not they deserve it. If they don't want the rights of the South "preserved inviolate," why they may have them pickled for all we care. We did our duty and our conscience is easy. At the enormous expense of sixteen dollars and thirty-two cents we printed a multitude of circulars, sufficient to elect any man, with which we flooded this Congressional district, and a large portion of the Cherokee Nation. We wrote to our friends and to some who were not our friends to rally to our support. But they didn't rally. We then concealed ourself as well as we could at home, refusing positively to extend our acquaintance, or to see more of the public than the public did of us. With these precautions we deemed success certain. A great many persons wrote to us that we should get an overwhelming vote; they were not deceived, it was overwhelming. Many credulous persons told us that we should be elected; we listened to them and were deceived. But we forgive them, for they made us feel very comfortable—for awhile, and all earthly happiness is transitory. We shall never become a candidate again without consulting somebody on the subject first, to ascertain whether they do or not desire us to run; for we are satisfied that it is folly to be a candidate unless somebody does want you to run, and will vote for you on the strength of that desire.

We are not without consolation. We are not the only candidate that was defeated. There are numbers in as bad a fix as ourselves; and, besides, greater men than we claim to have been as badly beaten. Gen. Harrison, afterwards President of the United States, was once defeated for county clerk in Ohio; and James K. Polk was beaten for Governor of Tennessee. We are in good company, and therefore shall not complain.

There is one thing for which the people should be grateful to us. We did not bore them with long and tiresome speeches as some of the aspirants did. We remained "quietly at home," and they so highly appreciated our modesty that they have given us the privilege of continuing to do so. We are thankful for small favors.

Among our numerous friends, ex-Governor Drew is entitled to our warmest acknowledgments.—His intention doubtless was to assist us in beating Rust, by procuring a large and influential majority of the Democratic party to vote for him. With this object in view he made a brilliant canvass, ending in a no less brilliant failure. But, notwithstanding he carried off a considerable portion of our vote, we honor him for this laudable intention. Hereafter he has but to command us and we will obey—if it suits us to do so.

To the fifteen patriotic and chivalrous voters who cast their suffrage for us in Pike county, we beg leave to tender our unfeigned gratitude. We owe them a debt that will be difficult to repay. As a slight evidence of our high appreciation and lasting regard, we propose that, if they will forward us a list of their names, we will send them the Herald for life—at the usual price, $3 per annum, invariably in advance.

In conclusion, we desire permission to remark that the small experiment we have just made is eminently satisfactory. Whatever aspirations we may have had for glory are entirely subdued.—The pursuit of a seat in Congress "under difficulties" is one in which we have no desire to engage. We are satisfied that we carry with us into retirement the best wishes of a generous though ungrateful people, and are content.

GOOD TIGER!—The Geneva Gazette is responsible for the following:

A countryman, the owner of a large, but usually good natured dog, drove in town a few days since. Near the railroad crossing, on Water street, "Tiger" fell into bad company, and a regular muss ensued. Taken suddenly and almost unawares, the countryman's dog seemed hardly to comprehend whether it was a 'free fight' in earnest, or only the rough sort of play of village 'hounds' until he found himself in a "throat to mouth" contest with a regular fighting character, in the shape of a trained bull dog, and getting the worst of it. His master, however, by this time comprehended the nature of the mass, and springing from the wagon, caught the bull dog by his "narrative," and endeavored to separate the combatants.

"Let that dog alone, or I'll lam you over the head!" growled a rough and excited looking customer standing by, who proved to be the owner of the bull.

"Oh, then you want 'em to fight, do you?" ejaculated homespun, dropping the cat, and then, at his voice, shouted, "go in Tige!"

And Tige did "go in." Instantly the tide of battle was turned. Tige secured and was making good use of his vantage ground, when bull's owner suddenly became converted to a peace-maker. Suiting the action to the idea, he made felat to release his dog from the vice-like jaws of Tiger.

"Let that dog alone, or I'll lam you over the head!" shouted the countryman; and he straightened up and swelled out to such huge proportions that "Rock street" desisted, terror stricken at the menace.

Tiger pursued his work in hand until the piteous "skyi" of the assailant seemed to produce pity in the dog's heart of the former, he relaxed his hold and the latter slunk away, with the appearance of three legs behind.

As the countryman jumped into his wagon, he called out to bull dog's master—"Whenever you want another fight, just say the word, as me and Tige allers travel together!"

A KISS IN THE DARK.—Holcroft, the well known dramatist, supped one evening at Opie's. After the cloth had been removed numerous stories were told, among which was one of a gentleman who, having put out his candle on going to bed, read in phosphorescent characters on the wall—"Confess thy sins." The gentleman fell on his knees; and, as expected, began to confess his sins aloud —not from terror, however—for, aware it was a trick to terrify him, devised by a certain waggish young lady in the house, and hearing a little bustle on the stairhead, guessed rightly that she and her comrades were there to enjoy his discomfiture. He confessed, as the last and greatest of his sins, that "he had kissed Miss—— frequently in the dark," and so turned the tables on his tormentor with a vengence—a lesson she never forgot.

NOT FOND OF LIGHT FOOD.—"Glass pud in—Glass pud in," shouted a Polish glazier in one of our side streets.

"No, thank you," replied a passer by, "I'm not fond of 'glass pudding,' its very apt to give one 'panes' in the stomach."

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANDFORD.
Compounded Entirely from GUMS,

IS one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The Stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one derangement—he Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than 20 years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that a remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint, is requested to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and chimery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and sourtory retiring, prevents the food from rising and sourtory retiring, prevents ing.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at ness, meal will cure Dyspepsia. quently; all cures Costiveness.

One dose taken for spoonfuls will always remedy the cause of the disease. One bottle taken for male obstruction removes and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieves Colic, while is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

☞Only one bottle needed to throw out of the system the effects of mercury. ☞One bottle taken for seldom less after eating gives relief. Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives appetite, and prevent the makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa and Bowel Complaints in its worst forms, while Scurvy, Salt Rheum and other Skin diseases yield almost to the touch of magic. Two or three doses effect a perfect cure in the worst cases of Dropsy, by exciting the absorbents.

☞A few bottles cures tacks caused by Worms in the world, as it never fails.

☞A few bottles cures by exciting the absorbents.

Many have pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and they are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

We will warrant it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

Is a Scientific Medical Discovery, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures, as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.

Is Your Life Insured?

There is, perhaps, nothing that creates so severe a pang on the death bed as the reflection that we have leaving those we love, perhaps a wife and children, dependent upon the cold charity of the world! Therefore every one in life should prepare for this emergency. It can be done, even by the poorest, through the agency of Life Insurance.

Every man who loves his family, ought to get his life insured. Every man in debt, and every merchant, ought to get his life insured, lest at his death his property may be sacrificed. There are but few who could not save a small sum annually to insure their lives; which if not invested in this way would be spent, perhaps, in trifles, and their families thus be left to penury and want.

Wives, persuade your husbands—you can save enough in your household affairs to pay the premium, without feeling it—and the reflection that you are provided for, will alone be a full recompense for the outlay. Husbands can be insured in favor of their wives and children, and the amount cannot be touched by their creditors in case of their death. A person may insure his or her own life in favor of heirs, or may dispose of the amount by will.

THE FOLLOWING SAVINGS PER WEEK IS ALL THAT IS NECESSARY TO INSURE $500 FOR LIFE:

| Age. | Per. | Age. | Per. | Age. | Per. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 20 | 17 cts. | 24 | 21 cts. | 44 | 34½ cts. |
| 21 | 17½ " | 33 | 24½ " | 45 | 35½ " |
| 22 | 18 " | 34 | 25 " | 46 | 37 " |
| 23 | 19½ " | 35 | 26 " | 47 | 38½ " |
| 24 | 19 " | 36 | 27 " | 48 | 40 " |
| 25 | 20½ " | 37 | 27½ " | 49 | 42 " |
| 26 | 20 " | 38 | 29 " | 50 | 44 " |
| 27 | 21 " | 39 | 30 " | 51 | 45½ " |
| 28 | 21½ " | 40 | 30½ " | 52 | 47 " |
| 29 | 22 " | 41 | 31½ " | 53 | 50 " |
| 30 | 22½ " | 42 | 32½ " | 54 | 52½ " |
| 31 | 23 " | 43 | 33½ " | 55 | 55½ " |

Any sum not exceeding $5000 may be insured on a single life. The premiums may be paid quarterly, half yearly or yearly.
