Jeffrey being a likely lack, the compatition was high. The first bid was $1,100, and he was finally bid for $1,310. Jeffrey wassold alone: he had ne incumbrance in the shape of an aged father or mother, who must necessarily be sold with him; nor had ha any children, for Jeffrey was not married. But Jeffrey, chattel No. 319, being human in his effections, he had nei neumbrance in the shape of an aged father or mother, who must necessarily be sold with him; nor had hard to chariai a love for Dorcas, chattel No. 378; and Dorcas, not having the teer of her master before her yes, had given her heart to Jeffrey. Whether what fol-lowed was a just retribution on Jeffrey and Dorcas, for during to take such liberties with their master's proper-ty as to each nuge hearts, or whether it only goes to prove that with black as with white the saying Bolds, that "the course of true love mever did their houses, mare not to realize the consummation of their hopes in happy wedlock.
