THE VIRGINIA ELECTION. The returns leave no doubt that Mr. John a greatly reduced majority on that of Wire in 455, 640 negroes are openly advertised for sale. In com-Latcher, Dem., has been elected Governor, but by The Domostats have sustained severa losses in the Senate and House of Delegates. Democrate, some Independent, are elected to Congress, in all the districts but one. Mr. Faulkner is defeated in the Harper's Ferry District, where Mr. B. A. Boteler appears to have succeeded by a handsome majoriry. This is the district in which the Administration exerts a vast influence through its employees in the National Armory, where hundreds of welldisciplined Democrats are regularly marched to the polls under command of their officers. Mr. Boteler has earned his success after a long career Doteier has carned his success siter a long career of gallant campaigning. In 1855 he came with-in twenty-sayen of a mejority, but was overborne in 1857 by the avalanche of Buchananism before it had become so well-known in Virginia as it is

Although Letcher has been elected by a majority not exceeding 5000, this election may be regarded as one of the most remarkable checks the 1856, 30,000 majority. Six months afterwards a delegation to Congress, unanimously Democratic, was elected, with hardly a show of opposition .--No opposition party worthy of the name, has ex. isted in that State for ten years. When Letcher was nominated six months ago it was not belieged majority so small that his victory is a numiliation. of the old Whig and American parties, took a very altra pro-Blavery position. Mr. Goggin was In The Vickeburg True Southron of the 13th. presented to the people by the Convention which nominated him, as a man who would make more is President. It is but too plain that if things be suffered to go on in the course they are now extreme demands upon the North on behalf of Slavery than Mr. Letcher had done, and that be falling into, it will not be long before the slave-trade will be carried on with as much open con-tempt of the laws against it, and with as much would resist concessions to which Letcher had assented. The charge against Letcher which was most warmly urgrd, was that be had twelve years Impunity, as our New York City liquor-trade now ago contributed to the publication of a pamphlet
