OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH. It is & matter of gratuistion that there is strongly growing disposition on the part of the authorities to enforce upon the lawless's proper observance of 1 not respect for the Salbath. In Cincinnati the authorities have tested the question with success. In New York City for twenty years the grog-shop kaspers have lurded over the people, with but faint and ineffectual resistance. Excise laws, Sunday laws, all laws that stood 56tween the seller and his victim, or curbed the rapacity of this drasdful trame, were practically appulled. The tide of paperism, taxation and crime rolled on with increasing volume from year to year. The Lord's Day becaus a Saternalis .--While all decent trades were arrested, liquor dealing on the Sabbath became the path to fortune and to ruin. The police returns showed that more than 5000 drain shops were in full blast each Sunday, and they also proved an average increase of 25 per cent. of arrests on that day above the ordinary number of secular days. Now however, we are happy to state, under the regime of an honest. brave and pradent Superintendent of Police, things have chauged. During the last three Sabbaths nearly every drem shop in New York City reas closed. The standing orders in New York now are, that every Sunday dram-seller must be arrested, and of course, will be punished. This grows out of the decided action of the Police Commissioners, who on the 8th ultimo, adopted ananimously, the following resolutions :

1. This Board is boand by its organization to enforce the laws as they exist; it being a well set-tled principle that the administrative departments cannot excuse enforcing a law, on the ground of doubts as to its conflicting with the spirit of the

BROWN ON NORTHERN DEMOCRACY. The Members whom Mississippi sends to the United States Senate are both fire-caters of the most approved brand. Both believe in the invio lability, the divinity, the iternity of Slavery.-Both are prominent in the debates, and each as-pires to leadership in sthat body. In the mere extermis of oratory there could hardly be a broader distinction then between the off-band, rough and distinction than between the off-band, rough and noisy Brown, and the carefaily-prepared, mellow-toned Davis. The one reminds you of a dashing eamp-meeting preacher, declaiming to acres of pinneers and squatters on the fontier; the other, of a prim Metropolitan divine, a pattern of cleri-cal provintiv and distion, whether in the second cal propriety and diction, whether in the sacred desk or the drawing-room. The style and u ien of Davis in the Seaste chamber would become the Lyceum, or the anniversary of the Bible Socie-ty. The Supreme Court has done we think, but a simple duty in this matter, and for the sanctity of our hallowed Sabbaths, we trust that it will be iustaided by the people of the State, for it interests all. That man whose soul holds not communion with its Maker, as the Sabbath morning chimes fall upon his ear ; whose memory does not wander back to the time? when hand in hand with , respected father, or supporting a cherished mother, he bared his head beneath the portals of the village church ; or whose eye does not suffuse at the recollection of the simple prayer, attered at the knee of that mother, while her kind hands were half hid amid his corls, may be indifferent to this subject : but every man capable of such feelings and holding such memories, must say in his heart -let the praceful stillness of the sacred Sabbath be respected, even as it was when I was a boy. We note the progress of a strict enforcement of the his surplus, it follows, of course, that he cannot duties of the Subbath with peculiar satisfaction .---Statistics might be presented to prove how beneficial a single day of rest in the week proves pecuniarily and to individuals in a hygienic respect. But we put the question entirely upon moral and religious grounds, and contend that our real protness, prosperity and happiness degress in gres mands from all a proper observance of the day .--It is idle to talk of right in this matter. No man has a right to annoy another. An individual must yield same personal liberty for the public welfare, eise society would not exist; it were folly to en act laws. legislation. "THE APPROACHING STRUGGLE." In an article under this heading the New York Tribune gives a summary of the opinions of those Republicans who favor such as union of the Opposition as will insure the overthrow of the Denucracy in 1860. There can be no question that the leading principles of the next Presidential Dry Goods, $1378,097 $1.570,300 enmosize. of the Opposition to the Democracy, General Merchandize, 4.152,108 2,122,348 2,383,515 campaign, of the Opposition to the Democracy,. will be-resistance to the Slavery Propaganilists, and adequate Protection to American Industry .--It is not a matter of moment, that in New, England, the party designation is "American-Republican;" in New Jersey and Indiana "Auti-Le-" compton ;" in Pennsylvania the "People's Party ;" | year to July 21 : all can rally under one banner on which are inscribed the great principles alluded to. The Opposition to the Democracy never was so formidable as at present; never embraced within it a larger number of the best and most intelligent of the citizens of the Union. When the Republican party made its first movement, it gained to its side many of the best of the rank and file of the Democratic party, and readily parted with the few old line Whigs, who as corrupt office seekers, flow to meet the rewards since so lavishly bestowed by Mr. Buchanan upon his old political enemies. The Opposition therefore, has fid itself of the chaff, and retains the wheat. Its position we think, may be considered impregnable, and it is but necessary, that harwony should actuate the garrison, in order that the policy of than Rropagindists may be defeated. And it will require a
