FARMERS AND MINERS.

The Scranton Republican gives the following excellent advice to the Farmers and Miners of Luzerne County, which is equally applicable to thusu of Schuylkill County:

A Word to Farmers. Democratic farmers I a word with you. You belong to a party that opposes Protection to in-dustry, because nichtims that it is the beight of fully to pay a high price for goods near at home when you are been on words because above en you can get them so much chesper abroad. Admit that your coats, your shoes and hats, your fabrics of liken and iron costs more if manufac-tured at home than if brought from abroad. Don't you ce that the men that make them are near you too, that they and their stock consume what products you raise. You sell them hay, potatoes, turning, oats, and a host of articles which are too bulky to be transported. A foreign market will take only grains, but if you can secure a sale for all you can raise of every description of produce, you can afford to pay a little more a yard for your sloth and take a little less per bushel for your wheat. The dectrine therefore is not always when you can sell dearest." Admit that Free more protection in fact, he soarcely deserves to Trade enhanced the price of a farmers grain; it cuts him off from a market for his butter and eggs.
