Scrofula, or King's Evil,

IS a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No one of the fluids is free from the scrofulous taint, and there is no solid but what is more or less affected by it. Hence it is that scrofula is called the most democratic of diseases, since it attacks the high and the low, rich and poor, the king on the throne and the beggar in the street, with equal impartiality. Nor is it more capricious in the victims it selects than in the organs it prefers for attack. Any one of the internal or external organs may become the seat of scrofulous action, and thus we have running sores, ulcers, and external eruptions; or tubercles in the lungs, liver, and other internal organs, which are scrofula in its most concentrated and fatal form. Or the joints may become diseased, the bones enlarged, the glands of the neck swollen, constituting what are commonly called "King's Evil," or the eyes may be affected, and entire blindness result. Indeed, there is no power in medicine which can more surely and speedily develop all the hidden humors of the blood, and thus show their presence, than

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial; conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.
