

Wit and humor.

A GAZA UPTON SWEEZ.—The May number of the Knickerbocker Magazine, has the following extract from a famous Union speech, reported by T. Hobart Underwood:

During the exciting campaign of '63, in Illinois, a prominent politician made a division speech at Quincy. After he was done, and before the crowd had dispersed, a man who styled himself "The Abolition M. D." was called for. He was fished upon the platform; so "elevated" that he could not stand without holding on to something.

Gentlemen and ladies, you're talkin' of dis-union; the Union you can't do it! That's all a fag a wavin' up thar called the Star Spangled Banner; how ye goin' to divide that, ha? Are you goin' to give the stars to the North, and the stripes to the South? No sirree, the thing can't be did. [Cheers.]

And that's that good old chit, the band's a playin' out there, that called Yankee Doo-dle; how ye goin' to divide that, eh? Are ye goin' to give the Yankees to the North, and the Doodle to the South? I say boldy, the thing can't be did!

But that's that stream of water runnin' down that called the "Inheritor" waters; how ye're goin' to divide that? Are ye goin' to dam it up with Mason and Dixon's line? I say ye can't do that thing, wal' yo' head!

[Cheers.] And that's the railroad layin' out thar, how ye goin' to divide that, eh? Are ye goin' to tie it up with Mason and Dixon's line? You can't do it. [Cheers.]

And that's all the fast houses standin' round here; how are ye goin' to divide them, old houses? Are ye goin' to run 'em North, and run 'em East, and run 'em West? [Cheers.]

And that's all the handsome wimmas' round here; how are ye goin' to divide them? Are ye goin' to give the old ones to the North, and the young ones to the South? Wal' yo' head! If you go to thunder you can't do it! [Inunes cheering.]

Our reporter could hear no more, for the roar of laughter which ensued as the "Doctor" caved in and fell from the platform.

ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR YEARS AGO, the hundred drill specimens of Yankee will appear in a Providence paper:

To be sold by Nicholas Branch; at the factory, west end of the bridge, Providence: SOLID ARGUMENTS, Consisting of Bread, Butter, Cheese, Hams, Eggs, Salmon, Meats, Porgies, Oysters, &c., &c., Ready Cooked.

AGITATIONS. Cider, Vinegar, Salt, Pickles, Sweet Oil, &c. GRIEVANCES. Pepper Sauce, Mustard, Black Pepper, Cayenne Pepper. PUNISHMENTS. Wine, Brandy, Gin, Spirits, Bitters, Porter, SUPERFLUITIES. Snuff, Tobacco, Cigars.

N. B.—Any of the above articles to be exchanged for NECESSARIES, viz:

French Crowns, Spanish Dollars, Pistareens, &c., &c., Mills, or Bank Bills.

Credit given for payments thirty, or ninety seconds—or as long as a man can hold his breath.

Those indebted for Arguments.

Must not be Agitated. Not think it a Gravissime if they should meet Punishment For calling such Superditties.

And supposing not Necessary To make immediate Payment.

WHAT HAPPENS IN ALL COMMUNITIES IN WINTER.—Solomon came into our sanctuary the other day, and asked us if we had heard the news.

"What news?" we asked, for an item.

"Why, a nose-pulling scrape this morning in our city; fifteen to twenty of our best citizens were engaged in it, and several of our first ladies took part. It was a very unpleasant sight, indeed!"

"Did you witness it?" we enquired with eagerness, anxious to get particulars for our "fast edition."

"Yes, Mr. Local, and came to give you the correct particulars."

"Well, then," said we, seizing our pen, prepared to bear some terrible denunciation, "what caused the unfortunate and disgraceful affair?"

"Bad colds in the head," said Solomon, as he made a sudden exit at the door, followed by our inkstand, that would have made anything but a pleasant mark on his nose, if it had him."

A SANCTE DESCENDANT OF AFRICA, by the name of Ming, having been at work at a distance, was met by his master on returning home on a frightful-looking old horse, without saddle or bridle, while the following dialogue ensued:

"Well, Mingo, how came you, by that horse?"

"Oh, massa, I by him, and gib ten dollar."

"But where did you get the money to pay him?"

"Oh, massa, me trade; me give 'em right down out of hand for three months."

"But, Mingo, when your three months are out, what then?"

"Den, Massa—den I take up that note, and give him another."

"Wur, Marry, how is this? I find you sitting here, with your affianced husband, and you told me this morning you had, indeed, had a son for a sailor."

"I father! I told you nothing of the kind."

"Oh, nonsense, I am quite sure, we had some words together."

"Yes, father, and so we had. He asked me what o'clock it was; I said I didn't know, and so he left the house, saying he was going to see. That's all I told you."

* * * Of the Ohio districts, the other day, the census-taker in the absence of the men, proceeded to ask questions of the ladies:

"Ladies," politely said the Judge, "how many male cows have you?"

"We have no male cows," replied a young lady—a sweet, ethereal creature of some 200 pounds weight—"but we have a gentleman bull calf!"

THE SCHOOLMASTER NOT AT HOME.—Near Warren, Conn., is posted on a meadow fence the following:

NOTES.—Know-kios is allowed in the med- ders any misk or wyrn lettin their kios on the rods, wot gets into my medders aforesaid, shall have that takes off by me.

ODRIAN RODERS.

"Wat did you leave your last place?" inquired a young housekeeper, about to engage in a new servant.

"Why, you see, ma'am," replied the applicant, "I was too good-looking; and when I opened the door, folde took me for the mis-

"sue."

Dixie—"I say Jack, suppose three bad eggs and a pair of old tools, were boiled down in a gallon of Croton, How do you think it would compare with Saratoga water?"

Jack, (redacting)—"It want another egg."

"I know I am a perfect bear in my man- ners," said a young farmer to his sweet heart. "No need you won't John, I have never been hugged me yet. You are more certain than it can general custom."

[Continued from First Page.]

J. C. W. says that he has inquired officially to ascertain the amount, but he should have it in about two weeks. The amount is $100,000. The cost of all the Department.

The state was to be paid herself. After its passage Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

The President appears from the following extract from his letter:

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I do you send it to the President in person, or did you send it to him?"

"D. P. Yes, you can afford it in relation to it?"

"J. C. I did; after I sent it to the President, I sent a note to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the State Dept. to let them know of it.

Mr. Pittsboro became an applicant to the Department.

He wrote to the Secy. of the Interior, and to the President in a letter which appears in the Advertiser.

"I