In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, at the establishment, Five Hundred Beautiful Works of Art!
comprising valuable paintings, marbles, pictures, outlines &c. forming a truly national benefit.
The Engraving which every subscriber will receive entitled, "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is after the celebrated picture by Leslie, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. The subject is from Shakspeare's play of King John. Falstaff recruiting in Justice Shallow's fine, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished for the usual price of five dollars, and will be found a most desirable premium for both summer and winter use.
Call and examine it at the store of the undersigned, who has it for sale, and will take pleasure in exhibiting it.
