The Old Home.

A pedlar of tin ware, who had been travelling from plantation to plantation with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns, an article of which he had a large stock. In despair at parting with all of them, he offered them at what he called "very reduced prices," yet he found purchasers the scarce as clover in cane time. At length a tavern keeper directed him to a planter, who, he said, was very much in want of old articles. To the house of this easily contented planter Jonathan, determined to get the trouble's worth out of him. The first person he met was lounging by the side of the road.

"You don't want to buy no tin lanterns, do ye?" asked Jonathan.

"Yes, sartain, I reckon I do," returned the overseer. "How much do you ask for one?"

"Only thirty-seven and a half cents."

"Well, guess you gin me one."

The pedlar accordingly gave him a lantern, and, receiving the money, proceeded onward.

"You don't want to buy a first-rate lantern, do ye?" said he to the overseer's wife who was washing at the spring.

"Yes," was the reply. "Mr. B. has been wanting one this long while."

Jonathan accordingly served her out one at the same price he had bargained with her husband for.

At the barn, before he reached the farmhouse, he met the son of the planter.

"You don't want to buy no first-rate lanterns, do you?"

"I don't want one myself," replied the young man, "but Bill take one for father, who has been after one this long while."

Jonathan accordingly pocketed another thirty-seven and a half cents, and became one lantern the lighter.

He now advanced boldly up to the house, and, meeting the old lady at the door, immediately put the question to her.

"You want to buy no first-rate lanterns, do you?"

"Indeed, but I do," said the old lady; "my husband has been wanting one these six months past; and I am glad you have come."

Jonathan accordingly deposited a lantern with her, and received in return another thirty-seven and a half cents.

He now departed, almost satisfied with the "spec" he had made. At some distance from the house, in a field by the side of the road, he espied the old gentleman himself, and hailed him with the old question,

"You don't want to buy no first-rate lanterns, do you?"

"How much do you ask a-piece?" inquired the planter.

"Fifty cents," replied the tin pedlar; "and considering I gave that by the wagon load, I guess that's cheap enough, considering they've come all the way from Connecticut."

"Well I'll take one," said the old gentleman, putting his hand in his pocket.

"Hadn't you better take a half dozen," asked Jonathan, "there's no knowing when a tin merchant may pass this way again. If you'll take a half dozen I will let you have them for thirty-seven and a half cents a-piece."

The planter took him at his word—and the pedlar took to his route after having disposed of ten lanterns where only one was really required.

A DISAGREEABLE SURPRISE.—Some time ago there was a dancing party given "up north," near Weaverville, California; most of the ladies present had little babies, whose noisy perversity required too much attention to permit the mothers to enjoy the dance. A number of gallant young men volunteered to watch the young ones while the parents indulged in a "breakdown." No sooner had the women left the babies in charge of the mischievous masculines, than they stripped the infants, changed their clothes, giving to one the apparel of another. The dance over, it was time to go home, and the mothers hurriedly took each a baby, in the dress of her own, and started, some to their homes, ten or fifteen miles off, and were far on their way before daylight. But the day following there was a prodigious row in that settlement; mothers discovered that a single day had changed the sex of their babies—observation disclosed startling physiological phenomena, and then commenced some of the tallest female pedestrianism—living miles apart, it required two days to unmix the babies, and as many months to restore the women to their naturally sweet dispositions. To this day it is unsafe for any of the baby-mixers to venture within the territory.

A BITE.—While walking down B—— street, last Sunday evening, "the subscriber" came up with two boys, aged respectively ten and fifteen years. The younger one carried an apple in his hand, and the elder one was using all his eloquence to obtain "just one bite of it."

"Well," said the younger one, finally, "I'll give you jes' one bite; but don't you take more'n jes' one bite."

The larger boy took the apple, opened a mouth that would have been creditable to a hundred-and-fifty-pound catfish, leaving a very small share on the other side.

"Jim," said the little one, looking up at the operation with astonishment, "you take the apple, and gave me the bite!"

A WELL-KNOWN mason lately received a visit from a countryman, who wanted a stone to place over the grave of his deceased mother. After looking around for some time, and making sundry remarks about the taste of his mother, he finally pitched upon one which had been prepared to order for another person.

"I like this one," said he.

"But," said the mason, "that belongs to another man, and has Mrs. Perry's name cut on it; it would not do for your mother."

"Oh, yes it would," said the innocent countryman: "she couldn't read it. And besides," he continued, as he observed the wonderment of his auditor, "Perry was always favorite of hers, anyhow."

A SAILOR who had been for several years on a foreign station, and had hardly ever been on shore, asked to have a trip by land, and proceeded to Aberstwyke, where, for the first time, he witnessed a funeral. When he returned on board at night, he could talk of nothing but what he had seen in the churchyard.

"Why, what d'ye think they does with the dead corpesses ashore?" said he, to a shipmate.

"How should I know?" said the other.

"Why, then, Bill, may I never stir," replied Jack, "but they puts 'em up in boxes and directs 'em."

Said the second wife of the witty Judge S——, in a reproachful way, as the horse was drawing them up a hill,

"My father always walked up all the hills."

"So did my first wife," was the reply.

"There," said Mrs. ——, giving him some trifle, "that is in return for your abuse."

"Yes," said he, "you are like the sandal tree that sheds its sweetness on the axe that cuts it down."

"Then you intend to kill me, do you? When do you intend to do it?"

"Not till you are good; I think you can't have better security for your life."

WHAT HE THOUGHT.—An Ohio stumper, while making a speech, paused in the midst of it, and exclaimed:

"Now, gentlemen, what do you think?"

Instantly a man rose in the assembly, and with one eye partially closed, modestly, with strong Scotch brogue, replied,

"I think, sir, I do indeed, sir—I think if you and I were to stump the country together, we would tell more lies than any other two men in the country, sir—and I'd not say a word myself during the whole time!"

"Put him out!"

A BOY that going along the street, carrying a pitcher of milk, when presently he stumbled, and smash went the pitcher, and away ran the milk. Another boy, across the way, saw the accident and shouted,

"Oh! won't you catch it when you go home; your mother'll give it no end."

"No she won't, neither!" screamed the other, "my mother always says, 'Never cry for spilled milk.'"

At an evening party, lately, a young man from England was boasting of the pedigree, wealth, and importance of his ancestors.

"O, yes," said Sam H., "your father and mine spent part of their lives together."

"Where was that?" sharply inquired the other.

"In the Bloomingdale poor-house," was the stinging reply.

An Irishwoman, who had kept a little grocery shop, was brought to her death-bed, and was on the point of breathing her last, when she called her husband to her bedside.

"Jamie," she faintly said, "there's a Miss Mulvey—she owes me six shillings."

"Och!" exclaimed her husband; "Biddy, darlint, ye're spakin to the last!"

"Why, Bridget," said her mistress, who wished to really indulge her in the amusement of her company, upon the fantastic commencing of a leap year, "why, Bridget, did you do this, you're quite an active girl—how old you are?"

"Faiksh, it was nearly spiled and a," replied Bridget, "isn't it pretty sound? I did it with your false teeth, mum."

MEDICINAL.
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? Those symptoms are the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors; thereby save yourself the sickness, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the diseased humors which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general derangement, suffering, and illness. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and how the health and vigor of life return. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers that afflict humanity. Cured by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are, rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Hence every one should have Ayer's Pills, and neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.
Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities of the United States, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of Worms after we had given her up. She had several incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.
ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.
From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.
Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we have ever used. Mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.
From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.
DEAR SIR: Ayer's Pills cure all the complaints I have ever met with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 7, 1855.
DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache by a dose or two of your Pills, and one of your Pills, taken as a final stomach, which they cleanse at once.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PHELPS,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.
From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.
Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. I have in my practice no cathartic so effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them known to the profession, so say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their relaxing action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO HALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.
From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.
Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for dyspepsia, dysentery and diarrhœa. Their mild operation makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.
From Hon. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.
DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in disease. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.
Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.
DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.
From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.
You will confer a favor on me by sending me Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Hon. E. Staint, Speaker of the House and Richm'd, Indiana.
I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and bowels. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Reformed Epis. Church.
PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.
HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has bestowed on me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the aid of physicians, the pains grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am entirely free from pain.

MOUNT CARMEL, Hyde County, La., 5 Dec. 1855.
DR. AYER: I have been radically cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.
VINCENT GLADDEL.

Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous for the inexperienced to use. Disease caused by Mercury is incurable by human means, and no recovery or removal substance whatever.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.
For sale by John G. Brown & Son; H. Bevan and H. Rahman, Pottsville; J. K. Burns, Minersville; W. G. Mylin, Ashland; R. J. Fox, Tremont; P. Brown, Middleport; B. Hill & Co., Tremont; W. H. Lytle, Schuylkill Haven; and by Dealers everywhere.

MEDICINAL.
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? Those symptoms are the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors; thereby save yourself the sickness, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the diseased humors which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general derangement, suffering, and illness. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and how the health and vigor of life return. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers that afflict humanity. Cured by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are, rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Hence every one should have Ayer's Pills, and neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.
Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities of the United States, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of Worms after we had given her up. She had several incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.
ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.
From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.
Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we have ever used. Mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.
From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.
DEAR SIR: Ayer's Pills cure all the complaints I have ever met with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 7, 1855.
DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache by a dose or two of your Pills, and one of your Pills, taken as a final stomach, which they cleanse at once.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PHELPS,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.
From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.
Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. I have in my practice no cathartic so effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them known to the profession, so say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their relaxing action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO HALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.
From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.
Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for dyspepsia, dysentery and diarrhœa. Their mild operation makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.
From Hon. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.
DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in disease. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.
Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.
DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.
From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.
You will confer a favor on me by sending me Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Hon. E. Staint, Speaker of the House and Richm'd, Indiana.
I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and bowels. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Reformed Epis. Church.
PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.
HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has bestowed on me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the aid of physicians, the pains grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am entirely free from pain.

MOUNT CARMEL, Hyde County, La., 5 Dec. 1855.
DR. AYER: I have been radically cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.
VINCENT GLADDEL.

Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous for the inexperienced to use. Disease caused by Mercury is incurable by human means, and no recovery or removal substance whatever.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.
For sale by John G. Brown & Son; H. Bevan and H. Rahman, Pottsville; J. K. Burns, Minersville; W. G. Mylin, Ashland; R. J. Fox, Tremont; P. Brown, Middleport; B. Hill & Co., Tremont; W. H. Lytle, Schuylkill Haven; and by Dealers everywhere.
