

Miners' Journal.

POTTSVILLE, PA.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1862.

THE MINERS' JOURNAL.
VOLUME THIRTY-EIGHTH.
COMMENCING January 14, 1862.

The Thirty-Eighth Volume of the Miners' Journal and the Twelfth Year it has been published by the Miners' Journal Co., will be issued on January 14, 1862. Its circulation has been affected by the Civil War, but it is still the most popular newspaper in the country. Every effort will be made to keep it up to its former standard.

The following departments will receive every attention in the new volume:

LOCAL NEWS,
DOMESTIC NEWS,
AGRICULTURE,
LITERARY MATTER,
SCIENTIFIC MATTER,
RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The new volume, yet to be issued, will contain a great deal of information concerning the Civil War, and the Miners' Journal is worth as much to those who are interested in it as any other paper in the country. This is an important consideration for all.

MINERS' JOURNAL,
SPECIAL PRICE $1.00.

Single copy, in advance.

Two copies, 100.

Five copies, 500.

Subscription annually in advance.

A CHANCE FOR CHEAP READING.

Clubbing With Other Papers for 1862.

In order to accommodate those who wish to take the papers from their friends, we have arranged to club the Miners' Journal with the following papers, at the following rates, per year:

New York Tribune, $1.00
Daily New-York Tribune, .60
New York Daily Tribune, .60
Daily News, .60
Daily Graphic, .60
Daily Harper's Weekly, .60
Daily American, .60

New York Ledger, .60
Daily Ledger, .60
Leisure Illustrated, .60
Godey's Magazine (Monthly), .60
Scientific American, .60
Country Gentleman, .60
Country Journal, .60
Magazines, .60

Atlantic Monthly, .60

Harper's Magazine, .60
Atlantic Monthly, .60
Horizon, .60

At these unequal rates our readers can procure papers from all parts of the country, and pay less than the price of one paper.

Every stamp can always be sent to make up cost.

Address, E. BANNAN, Pottsville.

Particular Notice.

MEMORIAL OF PATRIOTISM.

We will be happy to receive the names of persons who served in the three months' service belonging to companies outside of the County of Schuylkill, through themselves or their friends, giving the letter of the company, number of regiment, and the name of the Colonel commanding, so that all the names may appear in "The Memorial of the Patriotic of Schuylkill County," which we are now compiling.

ED.—Will the citizens of the different towns furnish us with a correct list of the subscriptions made by citizens for the benefit of soldiers' families in their respective localities?

The West Chester Village Record has received in its old size, a decided improvement.

HON. R. REILLY, of the State Senate, will accept our acknowledgements for an early copy of the Auditor General's Report.

JAMES H. CAMPBELL will accept our acknowledgements for public documents of importance.

GOVERNOR CURRIE'S MESSAGE.—This admirable document will be found in our columns to-day. Comment upon it would be superfluous. Read it.

HON. JOHN ROWS elected on Tuesday last, Speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, represented Franklin county in the Legislature, some years ago, during several sessions, and was elected Surveyor General of the State in the fall of 1856.

HORACE BIXBY, one of the great legal minds of the country, has prepared an elaborate opinion upon the Privileges of the Writ of Habeas Corpus. He maintains his position of powerful reasoning, that the President, and not Congress, has the power under the Constitution, to suspend the privilege of the writ.

RECENTLY in England, a lad named Hazel fell head foremost down a coal shaft, one hundred and seventy feet, without sustaining serious injury. His fall escaped his escape to the fact that there were ten feet of water at the bottom of the pit. His head was jammed in the mud at the bottom of the pit, but he had presence of mind enough to press himself free; he then floated on the water, and was rescued not much worse for his perilous descent.

ATTRENTS have recently been made to fire Charleston in several places. The citizens must be kept in a deluge state of excitement at this time, threatened by the Union army on one hand, and incendiaries on the other. Attempts have also been made to fire Montgomery, Ala., Greenville, Ala., Georgetown, Texas, Richmond, Va., and Norfolk. In some instances, the attempts were successful. The "contrabands" were their telegraph in operation we suppose, leading from Port Royal.

Bacur, the able English Liberal states man, has given up cotton spinning, and is devoting himself to mining. He was the only dyer and druggist lead and copper mines, in Cardiganshire, Wales. The first of these yields a clear profit of £1,000 a month, and the other of £200. As the money is made it is expended in explorations and working, and the yield will be immense, beyond any expectation, it is said. It is expected that, in six years, his profits will be £100,000 a year, or thereabouts. Mr. Bacur is not yet fifty years old, and if things proceed favorably, he will in a short time, be one of the richest men in the House of Commons.

COTTON now New Source.—It is really surprising, remarks the New York Tribune, how many sources of cotton supply are opening up in response to the demands of manufacturers for the raw material—India, Southern Africa, Egypt, Jamaica, and a score of other countries. The latest source of supply, however, is Peru. The British steamer Callao, at Panama, had a large quantity of Peruvian cotton on board, while a still larger quantity was on its way around Cape Horn. The staple is said to be of superior quality, and a large crop is to be raised on the Peruvian coast this year. The traders of Southern Illinois are also going into the business, and we are promised, if cotton keeps up to 10 cents a pound, in less than a year, a million bales per annum from that region. At this rate planters of the South may find, when too late, that in the markets of the world "home-grown cotton" is altogether too ready to compete with the produce of free labor.

The following Allgemeine publication of which was commenced during the first administration of Franklin, will be still continued in Alexander, West Virginia. The paper is to be brought to Pottsville, and will be edited by Mr. G. W. Curtin. The writer of the article is one of the few papers to which we devote more than the usual editorial time in preparing.

WASHINGTON STAR Vol. 1, No. 1, next Saturday, January 14, 1862.

Commencing January 14, 1862.

The Thirty-Eighth Volume of the Miners' Journal and the Twelfth Year it has been published by the Miners' Journal Co., will be issued on January 14, 1862. Its circulation has been affected by the Civil War, but it is still the most popular newspaper in the country. Every effort will be made to keep it up to its former standard.

The following departments will receive every attention in the new volume:

LOCAL NEWS,
DOMESTIC NEWS,
AGRICULTURE,
LITERARY MATTER,
SCIENTIFIC MATTER,
RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The new volume, yet to be issued, will contain a great deal of information concerning the Civil War, and the Miners' Journal is worth as much to those who are interested in it as any other paper in the country. This is an important consideration for all.

MINERS' JOURNAL,
SPECIAL PRICE $1.00.

Single copy, in advance.

Two copies, 100.

Five copies, 500.

Subscription annually in advance.

A CHANCE FOR CHEAP READING.

Clubbing With Other Papers for 1862.

In order to accommodate those who wish to take the papers from their friends, we have arranged to club the Miners' Journal with the following papers, at the following rates, per year:

New York Tribune, $1.00
Daily New-York Tribune, .60
New York Daily Tribune, .60
Daily News, .60
Daily Graphic, .60
Daily Harper's Weekly, .60
Daily American, .60

New York Ledger, .60
Daily Ledger, .60
Leisure Illustrated, .60
Godey's Magazine (Monthly), .60
Scientific American, .60
Country Gentleman, .60
Country Journal, .60
Magazines, .60

Atlantic Monthly, .60

Harper's Magazine, .60
Atlantic Monthly, .60
Horizon, .60

At these unequal rates our readers can procure papers from all parts of the country, and pay less than the price of one paper.

Every stamp can always be sent to make up cost.

Address, E. BANNAN, Pottsville.

Particular Notice.

MEMORIAL OF PATRIOTISM.

We will be happy to receive the names of persons who served in the three months' service belonging to companies outside of the County of Schuylkill, through themselves or their friends, giving the letter of the company, number of regiment, and the name of the Colonel commanding, so that all the names may appear in "The Memorial of the Patriotic of Schuylkill County," which we are now compiling.

ED.—Will the citizens of the different towns furnish us with a correct list of the subscriptions made by citizens for the benefit of soldiers' families in their respective localities?

The West Chester Village Record has received in its old size, a decided improvement.

HON. R. REILLY, of the State Senate, will accept our acknowledgements for an early copy of the Auditor General's Report.

JAMES H. CAMPBELL will accept our acknowledgements for public documents of importance.

GOVERNOR CURRIE'S MESSAGE.—This admirable document will be found in our columns to-day. Comment upon it would be superfluous. Read it.

HON. JOHN ROWS elected on Tuesday last, Speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, represented Franklin county in the Legislature, some years ago, during several sessions, and was elected Surveyor General of the State in the fall of 1856.

HORACE BIXBY, one of the great legal minds of the country, has prepared an elaborate opinion upon the Privileges of the Writ of Habeas Corpus. He maintains his position of powerful reasoning, that the President, and not Congress, has the power under the Constitution, to suspend the privilege of the writ.

RECENTLY in England, a lad named Hazel fell head foremost down a coal shaft, one hundred and seventy feet, without sustaining serious injury. His fall escaped his escape to the fact that there were ten feet of water at the bottom of the pit. His head was jammed in the mud at the bottom of the pit, but he had presence of mind enough to press himself free; he then floated on the water, and was rescued not much worse for his perilous descent.

ATTRENTS have recently been made to fire Charleston in several places. The citizens must be kept in a deluge state of excitement at this time, threatened by the Union army on one hand, and incendiaries on the other. Attempts have also been made to fire Montgomery, Ala., Greenville, Ala., Georgetown, Texas, Richmond, Va., and Norfolk. In some instances, the attempts were successful. The "contrabands" were their telegraph in operation we suppose, leading from Port Royal.

Bacur, the able English Liberal states man, has given up cotton spinning, and is devoting himself to mining. He was the only dyer and druggist lead and copper mines, in Cardiganshire, Wales. The first of these yields a clear profit of £1,000 a month, and the other of £200. As the money is made it is expended in explorations and working, and the yield will be immense, beyond any expectation, it is said. It is expected that, in six years, his profits will be £100,000 a year, or thereabouts. Mr. Bacur is not yet fifty years old, and if things proceed favorably, he will in a short time, be one of the richest men in the House of Commons.

COTTON now New Source.—It is really surprising, remarks the New York Tribune, how many sources of cotton supply are opening up in response to the demands of manufacturers for the raw material—India, Southern Africa, Egypt, Jamaica, and a score of other countries. The latest source of supply, however, is Peru. The British steamer Callao, at Panama, had a large quantity of Peruvian cotton on board, while a still larger quantity was on its way around Cape Horn. The staple is said to be of superior quality, and a large crop is to be raised on the Peruvian coast this year. The traders of Southern Illinois are also going into the business, and we are promised, if cotton keeps up to 10 cents a pound, in less than a year, a million bales per annum from that region. At this rate planters of the South may find, when too late, that in the markets of the world "home-grown cotton" is altogether too ready to compete with the produce of free labor.

FIRST TRIBAL MEETING.

ANDREW G. CURTIN,
CHIEF JUSTICE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

To Both Houses of the Legislature,

AT THE HEAD OF THE STATE,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,

TO AN ASSEMBLY,

AT THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

ON THE 27th DAY OF MAY, 1862,

BY THE WILL OF GOD,

WE THE PEOPLE,

DO HEREBY CALL,