SPEAKING of branes we are reminded again of Bill Harding, who tells, with the air and bearing of Tom Pepper, some tall specimens of imaginative creations. Here, for instance is his Great Snake Story :

"I got interested in the study of serpents down in Arkansas, where I spent most of my last year. I don't know why, but I was constantly watching them, and constantly testing their sagacity, by placing them in new situations, and surrounding them with novel expedients. Of all kinds, I experimented most with rattlesnakes and copperheads."

"One afternoon I seated myself on a little knoll in the woods to smoke and read, (for I always had a book or newspaper with me,) and had been enjoying myself for some time, when I espied a copperhead making for a hole within ten feet where I sat. Of course I threw down my book and cigar, and proceeded to try a new experiment. As soon as I stirred the rascal made a grand rush for the hole: but I caught his tail, as he got nearly in, and jerked him some twenty feet backward. He threw himself into a coil in no time, and waited for me to pitch in. But I concluded to let him try the hole again. After a while he started for it, stopped when I stirred to coil himself up; but as I kept pretty quiet, he recovered confidence and again went in. Again I jerked him out. No sooner did he touch the ground than he made another grand rush for the hole, in a straight line for my legs! But that didn't work, for

I got out the way, and gave him another flirt." "This time he lay still awhile, appearing to reflect on the course to be taken. After a time he tried it again, though rather slowly. After getting his head a little way in, he stopped and wiggled his tail as if on purpose for me to grab it. I did so; and quicker than a

She had applied to several eminent physicians, without relief, when one bottle of my Drops entirely cured her.

It is impossible to enjoy the bloom of health and vivacity of spirits, unless the Menses, are regular as to the time, the quantity, and quality. When they are obstructed, nature makes her efforts to obtain for it some other outlet, and unless these efforts of nature are assisted, the patient usually experiences despondency. Nervousness, and snally, CONSUMPTION assumes its sway, and prematurely terminates a miserable life. ## DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE of THE PINE TREE, Obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tur, by which its highest inedicinal properties are re-

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pelmonary Consentrion?" My answer is this:

The invigination of the digestive organs—the strength of the debilitated system—the furnition and environment of the blood, must expel from the system the corruption which Scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetring to each diseased park relieving pain, subduing inflammation, and restoring a healthful tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative tendency and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

The contrast between those two, pot traits is so great that many would not believe them to be the same person. Yet there are hundreds of person in and around. Philadelphia who will recognize bott portraits to be true representations. When the firs was taken he weighed 101 pounds; at the present time his weight is 220 pounds.

Thirty years ago I was in the last stages of Pulmonary Consumption, and given up to die. I resided in Philadelphia, and Dr. Joseph Parish, then of this citry, ordered me to Moorestown, N. J., a distance of nine miles, which took me two days to get, there. On, my arrival I was put to bed, and there laid for many weeks. This was my native place, where all my family lived and had died of Consumption. Dr. Thornton, who attended my futher in his last illues, was called, and gave me one week to fix up my affars. He had seen all ny family go that way, and thought I was to go, too. Then I heard of the remelles I now offer to the public, which cared me. It so med to me that I could feel them penetrating my whole system.

They soon ripened the matter on my lungs, and I would spit off more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning. As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pain, night sweats—all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and I have been growing in flesh ever since. For many years I have enjoyed uninterapped good health, keeping the liver and stomach healthy with the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, as I am of a billous temperament. My weight is two handred and twenty pounds. On my recovery people would send for me, far and near, to see if their cases were like mine. For this purpose I pay professional vieits in the large cities. The consumptives wish to see the one that makes those medicines, and who was cured of consumption by them. To make new lungs is impossible: but cavities in the lungs, and chronic ulcerations of the brynchial tubes can be healed. Such cases are dying hourly under the ordinary treatment of physicians, and just such are cired by the proper, use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrike Pills. TO THE PUBLIC.
