ber. THE MINING DISTRICTS AND THE DRAFT. - 1864 .- Aug. BUN BUR BETS An effort is being made to create the impres-sion that if the draft is enforced in the mining is not so. The mining districts are not only as able to furnish their quotas as the towns but the ability of the Region to produce coal is in advance of the power of the transporting companies to take it to market. Besides many of the miners in this region dc not now work half time. No fear of the production of coal being seriously affected if the draft takes place in the mining districts. It will not make the difference of a pound of coal in the aggregate amount sent and to be sent to rating showers. market this season. Let the mining districts do their duty as well as the towns. They are fully as able.

To murder a Union man in Berks County costs just nothing at all. Some time since a Connerhead workman in the Reading Rail-Connerhead workman in the Reading Rail-Copperhead workman in the Reading Railroad shops at Reading, who had said that "if Lincoln was re-elected, he would sooner fight for Jeff. Davis than for him," shot and killed a Union man named Thomas Gabriel, while Gabriel in a friendly manner was advi-sing him to leave the shop, as the workmen were indignant at him, and might injure him. The murder was a malicious, cold blooded while Gabriel in a friendly manner was advione, and the perpetrator merited hanging.one, and the perpetrator mented hanging.— Last week however, the case was tried at Reading before a jury composed entirely of Copperheads, and as might have been antic-insted the scenesd was acquitted. What a ipated the accused was acquitted. What a mockery of justice! But a county that gives nearly two thousand majority against our brave soldiers, is capable of any outrage. Narrow Escape.—The danger of jumping on or off a train of cars while it is in motion was ex-emplified at Schurkkill Haven on hast Saturday noon, in the narrow escape of a man, George B. Lindermuth, a saddler of that place, who in at-tempting to jump on a train foll in among the baggage, and then slipped under the train. He was resented by the baggage master at the depot, or in all probability he would have had both legs cut off. This should prove a warning to those who are in the habit of jumping on trains of cars while they are in motion. Reader, if you hear a Copperhead say this war unless we mean to compromise our honor, and become slaves ourselves.) We must subdue the while they are in motion.

The Third Pennsylvania Cavalry, in which, there were several soldiers from this County, and which during its term of service participated in thirty pitched battles, and in over two hundred skirmiabes, has been mustered out of the service. Among the gallant soldiers who have returned, is Sorgt. Thomas: M. Davis, of this Borough, who was with the Regiment during its entire term of service, and participated in all the engagements. The men comprising the command have never been the recipients of any bounty, with the ex-ciption of the usual one. Paff, located on the turmpike in North Manbeim tewnship near Schuylkill Haven, was destroyed by fire on the 9th first. The ori i fir of the fire was accidental. But a portion of Mr. Paffs turniture was saved. His loss is, $200, inpon which there is no insurance. The amount of loss on the house we have not learned. The Transqua Journal states that on Wednes-day afternoon of last week, a fire broke out in the barn attached to the "Homestown Hotel," at Homestown, about two miles above Tamaqua, on the Hazleton road. The hotel was owned and compiled by Mr. J. Stockdorff, who was absent in a grain field, at the time the fire started. The flames spread with great rapidity, and soon com-municated to the hotel, which, together with the barn and all the outbuildings, was totally consumed. So rapid was the spread of the flames that it was impossible to save any of the contents of either barn or house. Even the clothing of Mr. Stockdorff's family was consumed. The barn contained hay, grain, &c., which was all destroy-ed, together with a calf, a number of hogs, poul-try, &c. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Stockdorff's loss will reach $4,000, above an insur-ance of $1,500. UNITED STATES SERVICE MAGAZINE.—The Au-gust number of this Magizine contains a fine por-trait and biography of Gen. Wm. T.
