"Then the two Governments are irreconcilably apart.
They have no alternative but to fight it out. But it is not so with the people. They are tired of fighting and want peace; and as they bear all the burden and suffering of the war, is it not right they should have peace, and have it on such terms as they like?"

"I don't understand you. Be a little more explication."

"I don't understand you. Be a little more explicit."

"Well, suppose the two Governments should agree to do something like this: To go to the people with two propositions, say, peace with disuntion and Southern Independence as your proposition—and peace with union, emancipation, no confiscation and universal amnesty, as ours. Lot the citizans of all the United States (as they existed before the war) vote. Yes or 'No on these two propositions at a special election, within sixty days. If a majority vote disunion, our Government to be bound by it, and to let you go in peace. If a majority vote union, yours to be bound by it, and to stay in peace. The two Governments can contract in this way, and the people, though constitutionally numble to decide on peace or war, can elect which of the two propositions shall govern their rulers. Let Lee and Grant, meanwhile, agree to an armistice. This would sheathe the sword, and if once sheathed, it would never early one State, it might work; but as it is, if one Southern State objected to emancipation, it would nullify the whole thing; for you are aware that the people of Virginia cannot vote slavery out of South-Carolina, nor the people of South-Carolina vote it out of Virginia.

"I am not sure of that. Neither current events now history show that majority rules, or ever did rule. The contrary, I think, is true. Why, sir, the man who should go before the Southern people with such a proposition, with any proposition which implied that the North was to have a voice in determining the domestic relations of the South, could not live here a day. He would be hanged to the first tree, without judge or the south.

I replied smiling.

"I hope the day may never come, Mr. Davis, when I say that," said the Colonel.

A hall-hour's conversation on other topics, not of public interest ensued, and we then rose to go. As we did so, the robel President gave me his hand, and hidding me a kindly good-by, expressed the hope of seeing me again in Richmond in happier times, when peace should have returned; but with the Colonel his parting was particularly cordial, Taking his hand, in both of his, he said to him:

"Colonel. I respect your character and your motives, and I wish you well; I wish you every good I can wish you consistently with the interests of the Confederacy."

The quiet, straightforward bearing and magnificent moral courage of our "fighting parson" had evidently impressed Mr. Davis very favorably.

As we were leaving the room he added, "Say to Mr. Lincoln, from me, that I shall at any time be pleased to receive proposals for peace on the basis of our 'independence, I t will be useless to approach me with any other."

When we went out Mr. Benjamin called Judge Ould, who had been waiting during the whole interview, two hours, at the other end of the hall, and we passed hy the stairway together. As I put my arm within that of the Judge, he said to me.

"Well, what is the result?"

"Nothing but war; war to the knife."

THE UNION COUNTY TICKET.

The Convention that met in this Borough on Monday last, was one of the most intelligent and respectable we ever saw. The delgates came with a fixed determination to nominate a good ticket without regard to personal predilections, and it is acknowledged that they succeeded. The almost harmony and good feeling prevailed during the entire Howell Fisher, Esq., of Pottsville, the Union candidate for Congress, was born in Woodbury, N. J., and came here a boy in 1829, with his father, who removed his family here. Mr. Fisher was educated here; subsequently studied for the bar; was admitted, and has been a successful practitioner in the different Courts of this County for upwards of fifteen years. In 1859 Mr. FISHER was elected District Attorney of Schuylkill County by a large majority. Such was his popularity that he during the last session misrepresented the private parties, equally worthy and responsi-Union sentiment of Schuylkill, Mr. FISHER ble, fail? will if elected, stick to and support the Government. sterling integrity, the people of this County would be well represented by Mr. Thousa in the Legislature. Mr. GERR is a native of Tioga County. He came to this County in 1853; settled in Minersville, and entered upon the practice of the law. Mr. Gree is now recognized as an active, good lawyer, and a useful citizen. In 1860 he was a supporter of the lamented Douglass, and he now stands where that great man were he living, would be found, supporting the Government in its efforts to maintain the integrity of our laws and the union of these States. Mr. GEER if elected, will be an ornament to the Legislature, and represent the interests o the County with ability and honesty of purpose. Dr. McWilliams who is a native of Northumberland County, has been practising medicine with success in New Castle for upwards of fifteen years. He is a gentleman of decided ability. He would make a capital enresentative. DANIEL B. ALTHOUSE, Esq., of Tremont s the Union candidate for Sheriff. He was born in Berks, but has resided in this County for many years. Mr. Althouse is particularly fitted for the position of Sheriff. He speaks and writes both English and German is extensively acquainted in the County, and is universally respected for his integrity as man, his worth as a citizen. In 1860 Mr. ALTHOUSE was elected a Commissioner of this County by a large majority. He was at excellent officer, distinguished for the obliging, accommodating manner in which he discharged the duties of the position. If elected, he will make a good Sheriff.

For Commissioner Aquilla Bolton, Esq. of Port Carbon, is the Union candidate. A native of Philadelphia, Mr. Bolton has been for thirty years a citizen of Schuylkill Coun ty. Mr. Bolton possesses all the qualifications for a Commissioner. Besides, there are at the present time, many leaks in that office, and Mr. Bolton is just the man to stop them. Let our citizens remember this, and vote for ANDEW KIEFFER of Cressona, an old citizen of this County, has been nominated for Director of the Poor Mr. Kieffer is a man of good education; of sound judgment, and speaks and writes English and German. The people should have at least one reliable man in the Alms House as Director, to guard in this Borough:

Tract of land with appurtenances, Norwegian against abuses, and Mr. Kieffer is just the man for the position. A more estimable man in every respect, does not live in Schuylkill County.

For Auditor WM. M. STELLWAGON of Palo Alto, a machinist, an old citizen, and a good clerk, has been nominated. Mr. STELLWAGON is an honest, capable man; the position of Auditor is important, and our citizens should see that he is elected. A reliable, intelligent Auditor will save thousands of dollars to the tax-payers of the County. This, citizens, is the Union County ticket.

Is it not a good one? Can you not feel pride and confidence in voting such a ticket? Is it not worth working for? Your reply will assuredly be in the affirmative. Go to work then, and resolve that it shall be elected by a decided majority, in October. "They are very generous," replied Mr. Davis for the first time during the interview, showing some anery feeling. "But, amnesty, sir, applies to criminals. We have committed no crime. Confiscation is of no account, unless you can enforce it. And emancipation You have already emancipated nearly two millions of our slaves, and fryou will take care of them, you may emancipate the rest. I had a few when the war begun I was of some use to them; they hever were of any to me. Against their wills you "emancipated" them, and you may 'emancipate Gery negro in the Confederace, but we will be free! We will govern ourselves. Compel the State banks to adopt the National currency system in their issues, and the Government can regulate the currency and prevent inflation in prices and reduction of the value of its currency. Now if the Government curtails its issues, the State banks inrease theirs, and the evil still remains. This s a question that should enter into the next Congressional elections. Candidates should be required to pledge themselves that they will vote for a bill compelling the State banks o comply with the wishes of the people in How Judge Riley was done for -It is well known that Judge Riley was a candidate before the late Democratic Convention for ture for all the measures of his party and directly in opposition to the interests of the County he represented, in order to secure it. But he failed in the Convention, because he had not bought a church. His wily opponent, who we learn is also a Catholic, very quietly bought a Protestant church edifice at ran ahead of his ticket. He occupied that Schuylkill Haven and presented it to the Roposition for three years to the satisfaction of man Catholic congregation. It seems that on Wednesday last Mr. Kitzmiller, drove in a one horse buggy to his mines at Lorberry, which are located about four alles from Pinegrove.—He attended to some business there, and started to return. After passing over the road which is a very rough one, about a mile, he was observed by some children in an adjoining wood, with his foot on the axle of the wagon, leaning forward and endeavoring apparently to adjust some part of the harmess of his horse, the animal at the time walking. He was then seen to fall, but was caught by some of the gearing, and hung head and endeavoring apparatus of the harness of his horse, the animal actime walking. He was then seen to fall, but was caught by some of the gearing, and hung head down. The horse started, and ran rapidly for about a mile and a half, dragging the lifelies body of the unfortunate gentleman. The horse was finally stopped by a drove of cattle that occupied the road, and the corpse of Mr. Kitzmiller was catricated. Almost all the clothing had been torn from the body, which during the passage was terribly mutilated and disfigured.

the family, church or state. It is the hand-maidon of all true progress.

We are ever pushing out to the Divine. The human is ever broadening out to the Divine. The finite to the infinite. The latter eternally measuring the former. That which is true of the Divine in his manifested activities, must be true, and is sought after by the human. God's government and man's must be one. If Providence theans anything, it is to effect this one object.—
Lovalty to the active principle by the exercise of which man is to attain it. But loyalty to what?
To government. What is government? Government is an established means to an end, not arbitrary, nor temporary; but fundamental and inevitable. To what end? To the perfection and development of man in all his created relations.

On motion of Mr. W. K. Jones it was resolved that the Convention vote vice voce for candidates, Mr. J. Samuel Vandersloot offered the following:

Mr. J. Samuel Vandersloot offe ing:
Resolved, That all porsons who are not delegates to this Convention, are aspectfully requested to hold no intercourse with its members during its deliberations, and that they be excluded from AFTERNOON SESSION.

AFTERNOON SESSION,
The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unamiously and anthusiastically adopted;
Resolved, That we heartly ratify the nomination of Abraham Lincoln and Androw Johnson as President and Vice President of the United States, and pledge curselves to use every honest means to secure their election.

Resolved, That the platform of principles declared by the Baltimore Convention meets with our most cordial approval. no other motive than love of country have offered up their lives for its perpetuity under the Union of our fathers; that we regard the humble blue jacket of the private as a badge of honor equal jacket of the private as a badge of nonor equate to the highest insignia of rank; that bravery and earnest devotion to the cause, is the true test of merit, and that when the war is over, the man who can say, "I'was a soldier or sailor who fought for the Union in the great rebollion," will need no other badge of distinction to entitle him to the gratitude of postority.

Thus, this rational idea is ever present controlling the various forms of government in its own in their turn, are serving this fundamental, Godgiven law, until republican and democratic governments take their place to carry the race up to its highest culmination. other badge of distinction to entitle him to the gratitude of postority.

Resolved That as this Rebellion originated in the ambitious purposes of wicked politicians and traitors, there can be no horable peace until the Rebellion has been crushed, and the majesty of the Government vindicated in the punishment of conspirators who have inaugurated civil war.—

Until the States in Rebellion lay down their arms, and submit to the lawful authority of the general Government, we hold it to be the duty of all true and loyal citizens to give a cordial and learty support to the Government, and thus enable our galant soldiers in the field to conquer an honorable peace.

Resolved, That we desire to express our profound sympathy and condelence for our departed heroes—those who have offered up their lives for the maintenance of our glorious Union; and that it is incumbent upon the living to resolve that the sacrifice all our proporty and half the life of the nation, than to let the lide of the nation, than to let the lide of Government and American government affect the life of the nation shall have wrought to support the war until this indo shall have wrought out the full and complete idea amounced in the Declaration of Independence. Freedom will triumph.—Stary will die. Every system and party in the interest of this, the whole history of incurations are conducted. All new governments, which when attained, will be Divine.

Resolved, That we desire to express our profound sympathy and condelence for our departed heroes—those who have offered up their lives for the maintenance of our glorious Union; and that it is incumbent upon the living to resolve that the race in such and relative state the race in such and relative seem in forms of state, or religion, and demands or religion, and education the their such the full and complete idea amounced in the Declaration of this, the whole history of incurations of lide and complete idea amounced in the full and complete idea amounced in the policive that the full and complete idea am astice to our brave men in the field, but becaus re believe the result of that vote will be the death low of treason and Copperheadism: Resolved, That the successful candidate shall e empowered to appoint the Congressional con-crees to meet those appointed by the Convention of Lebanon County at a time and place hereafter to be designated.

Resolved, That C. W. Taylor, Minersville, be the Sentorial and that Capt. John R. Porter, Mahanoy, E. J. Kirlin, Port Clinton, and R. B. Wallace, Pottsville, be the Representative delegates to the next Union State Convention.

existen of God's in this world for the redemption of man, is against such asurpation. The institutes of the human heart loathe such an idea. The interests of hell could not be better subserved than by the rebellion's success. Every family tie would necessarily be outraged. The discipline of the family would be broken down by the example set us in the state. Divorce at will would become the universal law. It would be a government founded on skulls, and the haggard forms of the poor, grovelling, enslaved millions. Those hierarchs of church and state would surfeit on their beds of licentiousness, while the turbid stream of death would flood away every hope of the race under its jurisdiction.

Well may Jeff. Davis be king! King and chief representative of all the low, vulgar, licentions, alave drivers of the world. He is the only one in the history of the world, who has had the audacity to make a bold offort to found a government exclusively on wone and intestice.

Waymarks must be set up, planted in the soil of right and justice that we may know how to deal with insurrections and conspiracies in the future. In a word, we must understand what loyalty is. To say a word about it is my task at this time. This was not necessary until treason's children-turned against the mother who bore them. Loyalty I hold to be an activity of the soul arising out of man's moral nature. With Dr. Bushnell, I believe that it is no creature of the law and is not dependent on Constitution. man's moral nature. With Dr. Bushnell, I believe that it is no creature of the law and is not dependent on Constitution. Neither can the law nor can the Constitution. Neither can the law nor can the Constitution define it. It lies in the field of moral action. It cannot be forced; and therefore is not the offspring of indicted penaltics; or prisons. In this it differs entirely from allegiance, and is of higher parentage, being born of God and conscience. It grows up in the man from his childhood, broadening out from the fields and streams, grass-plots and gardenivals pendered sacred by youthful memories, to the house false, it grows and plains hallowed by ligitoric deeds. It is rendered promitation as a supplied by the storic deeds. It is rendered promitations are the field of the properties of the supplied by that can be gain by the rebellion's success? That would be the trithe rebellion's success?. That would be the United States, and will not the taxes necessarily increase in proportion? If not, they will burden the country so much longer. The nation's debt will be to liquidate, in any ovent. But will these murmurers go to the South and settle down amid slaves and the crack of the slave-driver's lash, expecting to avoid taxation? Would not their tax, in the event of success, be as great as our own, propertionately? They would have a debt to liquidate. The people would be called upon, through taxation, 20 do it. There he would sit down amid slave labor, where the evidences of its curso are written out in wasted and poverty stricken lands. Here, aside from his disloyal action, he stands out in the power of his wealth as representing the dignity of free labor. It makes men. Each man becomes a lord. This is the plan of God in creation. Men love powers to develop; this requires personal activity, growing development of man in all his created relations. The family is the starting point for the humanity. Loyalty receives its first lessons there. It goes out from it to the State. The family is the nation in its meipiency. The state therefore already exists and the race grows up into it. It is not made in view of some advantage which may accrue from it. It is no compact such as a bissingest firm to attain ends by mere shrewdness. Neither is it the result of might or mere force or superiority of age and ability, imposing certain and the heavens show the dignity of such free labor. America has caught this idea, and to some stretches it the result of might or mere force or superiority of age and ability, imposing certain restrictions upon the inferior and dependent.—The very order of God in the plan of creation precludes such idea. The flowers of the field form thomselves into groups. The troops of birds: velop; this requires personal activity, growing out of assumed responsibilities. In this God is the great Exempler. Here he is king, and moves in the sphere of his own choice. His family, at some time, may mingle in the legislative halls of the nation. There he nover could rise. The enthe nation. There he never could rise. The entire future would be against him. These glorious opportunities for individual achievement would forever have passed. Loyalty to our grovement at this time, manifested by all our sympathics, by all our powers of wealth, and by the sacrifice of personal service, is only our hope. We are working only for our own best interest when we have taken this stand. orgy over so great, make up for the want. So with man in regard to the state. He may tear himself away from the world, and lead the life of the "Peace Democrat." Is this loyalty? Peace declared now on other terms but complete subjugation or annihilation, would be the beginning of war. The whole symmetry of free government would be marred. The same old history of bickerings and lightings that characterized the last thirty years, would be repeated. It would eventuate in another war, even more terrible than this. This is true, from the fact that the rebellion says it is not safe for the neoally define. But a recluse; but he will still crave society. He will be conscious of his nature withering under such isolation. The state therefore is a result of his being and not appear to the state was formed of the But again: The first state was formed of the members of the same family, consequently the strength of family ties, of near kinship, would bind them together in the interest of government. This first might be called a Patriarchy, but it has nothing in it which should lead to the conclusion that all government should be patriarchal. It is a form to be used, until it has accomplished all for the race it can, though it is to be laid aside. The form of its expression must not be permitted to usurp the place of the principle of government. Thus, this rational idea is ever present controlling the various forms of government in its own inlion says it is not safe for the people to rule. But the idea of God underlying humanity, as well as His examples given us, say the people mustrule. This is to be so from the nature of things. Human progress demands this. Hence, when men's actions collide with divine principles, there will eventually be wer. However we may look at our present relations, whether in the light of first principles or merely in the light of policy, the path of duty is plain. The light of peolicy, the path of duty is plain. The light of Heaven points in the direction we must go as a people.—The nation must be supported by every possible means. Better sacrifice all our proporty and half the life of the nation, than to let the idea of God on the throat of slavery. An offering to God means the destruction of sin. An offering to liberty means the destruction of slavery. Hence the graves of the noble dead speak to encourage were loyal to the state as it dwelt in the reason of things.
