

THE WESTERN CONSPIRACY.

To awaken public attention to the importance of giving decisive majorities at the coming election for Lincoln, Johnson and the Union, we commence this week the publication of the report of Judge-Advocate-General Holr upon the secret revolutionary associations in the West, and the Democratic con- Union majority last year. spiracies to aid the rebels in their plans to invade the North and overthrow the power of Union loss on majority. the Government. As the report is lengthy, Union vote this year.... we cannot publish it entire this week, but will endeavor to conclude it in our next.-We hope that all of our readers will, notwithstanding its length, peruse it attentively, for it shows conclusively, that the Democratic leaders organized in at least fifteen States, a vast, oath-bound conspiracy, having for its. main object, to incite soldiers to desert from the armies, and to harbor and protect deserters; to discourage enlistments and resist the draft; to circulate disloyal and treasonable publications; to communicate with and impart intelligence to the enemy; to aid the enemy by recruiting for them, or assisting the State on the home vote. States, to be torn by force of arms from the Federal Union.

It was the exposition of this dreadful conspiracy, that recently awakened the people of Ohio and Indiana to the importance of overwhelming it at the polls. It swept the West for the Union ticket. Dodd, one of the principal conspirators, who was arrested and placed on trial in Indiana, recently escaped through the assistance of his fellowconspirators—a proof of his guilt. He is probably now beyond the boundaries of the country, a fugitive traitor.

After perusing the portion of the report which refers to the outbreaks among the lawless in the coal districts of Eastern Pennsylvania, during the past two years, we are not surprised that Frank Hughes and others of the noted Copperhead leaders of this section, confidently predict that our streets will run with blood in the event of the defeat of McClellan. They know as leaders of a treasonable, secret, oath-bound association, what | XVIII.—Theodore Wright...... its guilty plans are, and from past experience they have confidence that their dupes will commit any act against the lives and would stand 12 and 12, as it does in the pre-

In the meantime let the Union men of Schuylkill and of Pennsylvania resolve to administer a signal rebuke to them at the ballot-box on the 8th Union of November. Let us show the traitors in Democrat .. the North who are too cowardly to go down South and fight for disunion, that we despise them and their threats.

LAWLESSIESS. We might keep the above word in every number of the Journal, and under it publish weekly a list of new outrages perpetrated in Schuylkill County. Some sections of this Country are positively unsafe to live in, and those sections give overwhelming Democratic majorities. The violence and disregard of life and property which distinguish this Region, are the legitimate fruits of the Copperhead teachings of Frank Hughes and the We will illustrate. Before the late election Hughes suspecting correctly, that the more intelligent of the Democratic party were disgusted with a portion of the County ticket of Cops fire salutes for such victories. Surely, the party, and that they would cut it, cautioned the faithful in his speeches against splitting the ticket and warned them of the consedox rule, "vote the whole ticket," and calling down the vengeance of the party upon those who should be guilty of this thing.— He made a speech of this character at Mahanov City, and his dupes swallowed all he said as if it was gospel truth. Highly Important Revelations THE GREAT CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE UNION. Secret Armed Organization to Defea the Government and Aid the Rebels. OFFICIAL REPORT OF JUDGE HOLD OF KENTUCKY.

Drigin, History, Signs and Page words of the Secret Order. NAMES OF PERSONS CONCERNED IN THE The following official report makes startling revelations of the conspiracy against the Government, concerning which various reports have been current for some months WAE DEPARTMENT, BUREAU MILITARY JUSTICE, WARRINGTON, D. C., OCCOBER 8, 164.

To the Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.
Siz: Having been instructed by you to prepare a detailed report upon the mass of testimony furnished me from different sources in regard to the secret associations and compairacles against the Government, formed principally in the Western States, by traitoir and disloyal persons, I have now the honor to submits as follows:

During more than a year past it has been generally known to our military authorities that a screet treason ble organization, affiliated with the Southern rebellion and chiefly military in its character, has been raddy extending itself throughout the West. A variety of agencies, which will be specified berein, have been of agencies, which will be specified uniting that each employed, and successfully, to ascertain its nature and extent, as well as its aims and its results; and, as this mies to their country, it has been geemen proper to se-forth in full the acts and purposes of this organization, and thus to make known to the community at large its intensely treasonable and revolutionary spirit.

The arbiect will be presented under the following

ITS ORIGIN, HISTORY, NAMES, &c. ITS ORGANIZATION AND OFFICERS, ITS EXTENT AND NUMBERS, ITS ARMED FORCE. ITS RITUAL OATHS AND INTERIOR ITS WRITTEN PRINCIPLES.
ITS SPECIFIC PURPOSES AND OPERA VIII. THE WITNESSES AND THEIR TESTI

1.—Its Origin, History, Names, &cc.
This secret association first developed itself in the West in the year 1862, about the period of the first conscription of troops, which it aimed to obstruct and resist. Originally known in certain localities as the "Mutual Protection Society," the "Circle of Honor," or the "Circle" or "Knights of the Mighty Host," but more widely as the "Knights of the Golden Circle," it was simply an inspiration of the Rebellion, being little other then the extension among the disloyal and disaffected at the North of the association of the latter name, which had existed for some years at the South, and from which it derived all the chief features of its reanization.

During the Summer and Fall of 1863, the order, both the North and South, underwent some modification During the Summer and Fall of 1863, the order, both at the North and South, underwent some modifications as well as a change of name. In consequence of a partial exposure which had been made of the signs and present forms of the "Knights of the Golden Circle," Sterling Price had instituted as its successor in Missouri a secret political association, which he called the "Corps de Belgique," or "Southern League," his principal coadjutor being Charles L. Hunt, of St. Louis, then Belgian Consul at that city, but whose exequatur was subsequently revoked by the President on account of his disloyal practices. The special object of the Corps de Belgique appears to have been to unite the Rebel sympathizers of Missouri, with a view to their taking up arms and joining Price upon his proposed grand invasion of that State, and to their recruiting for his army in the interim.

Meanwhile, also, there had been instituted at the North in the Autumn of 1863, by sundry disloyal persons, prominent among whom were Vallandigham and P. C. Wright, of New York, a secret order, intended to be general throughout the country, and aiming at an extended influence and power, and at more positive results than its predecessor, and which was termed, and has since been widely known as the O. A. K., or "Order of Americas Knights."

The opinion is expressed by Col. Sauderson, Provost-has since been widely known as the O. A. K., or "Order of American Knights."

The opinion is expressed by Col. Sanderson, Provost-Marshal-General of the Department of Missouri, in his official report upon the progress of the order, that it was founded by Vallandigham during his banishment, and upon consultation at Richmona with Davis and other prominent traitors. It is, indeed, the boast of the order in Indiana and elsewhere, that its "ritnal" came direct from Davis himsels: and Mary Ann Pittman, formerly attached to the command of the Rebel Forrest, and a most intelligent witness, whose testimony will be hereafter referred to, states positively that Davis is a member of the order.

Upon the institution of the principal organization, it is represented that the "Corps de Belgique" was modified by Price and became a Southern section of the O. A. K., and that the new manne was generally adopted A. K., and that the new name was generally adopted for the order, both at the North and South.

Knights."

Meanwhile, also, the order has received certain local designations. In parts of Illinois it has been called at times the "Peace Organization," in Kentucky the "Star Organization," and in Missouri as the "American Organization," these, however, being apparently names used outside of the lodges of the order. Its members have also been familiarly designated as "Butternuts" by the country people of Illinois, Indiana, and Ohlo, and its separate lodges have also frequently received titles intended for the public ear; that in Chicago, for instance, being termed by its members the "Democratic Invincible Club;" that in Louisville, the "Democratic Reading Room," etc.

II.—Its Organization and Officers.

From printed copies heretofore seized by the Government, of the constitutions of the Supreme Council, and County Parent Temple, respectively, of the Order of Sons of Liberty, in connection with other and abundant tes, the organization of the order, in its latest form, is ascertained to be as follows:

1. The government of the order throughout the United States is vested in a Supreme Council, of which the officers are a Supreme Commander, Secretary of State, and Treasurer. These officers are elected for one year, at the annual meeting of the Supreme Council, which is made up of the grand commanders of the several States $2.0\text{Meio}_{i}$, and two delegates elected from each State in which the order is established.

2. The government of the order in a State is vested in a Grand Council, the officers of which are, a Grand Commander, Deputy Grand Commander, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and a certain number of Major-Generals, of one for each military district. These officers also are elected annually by "representatives from the County Temples, each Temple being entitled to two representatives, and one additional for each thousand members. This body of representatives is also it well with certain legislative functions.

3. The Parent Temple is the organization of the Scier for a county, each temple being formally instituted by authority of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County of the Supreme Council, or of the Grand County.

eonsiderably exaggerated. It has been asserted by delegates to the supreme council of February last, that the number was there represented to be from 300,000 to 1,000,000; but Vallandigham, in his speech last summer at Dayton, Ohio, placed it at 500,000, which is probably much never the true total. The number of its members in the several States has been differently estimated in the report and statements of its officers. Thus, the force of the officer in Indiana is stated to be from 75,000 to 123,000; in Illinois, from 100,000 to 140,000; in Ohio, from 30,000 to 105,000; in Rentucky, from 40,000 to 70,000; in Michighn and New York, about 20,000 each. Its representation in the other, States above mentioned does not specifically appear from the testimony; but, allowing for every exaggeration in the figures reported, they may be deemed to present a tolerably faithful view of what, at least, is regarded by the order as its true force in the States designated. It is to be noted that the order, or its counterpart, is probably much more widely extended at the South even than at the North, and that a large proportion of the officers of the rebel army are represented by most reliable witnesses to be members. In Kentuckyand Missouri, the order has not hesitated to admit as members, not only officers of that army, but also a considerable number of guerillas, a class who might be supposed to appreciate most readily its aims and purposes. It is fully shown that as lately, as in July last several of these rindians were initiated into the first degree by Dr. Kalfus, in Kentucky.

in Kentucky. IV.—Its Armed Force. A review of the testimony in regard to the armed orce of the order will materially aid in determining its real strength and numbers.

Although the order has from the outset partaken of the military character, it was not till the summer or fall of 1863 that it began to be generally organized as an armed body. Since that date its officers and leaders have been busilly engaged in placing it upon a military

A muster roll of one of the country lodges of that State is exhibited, in which, opposite the name of each member, are noted certain numbers, under the heads of "Missouri Republican," "St. Louis Union," "Anzeiger," "Miscellaneous Periodicals," "Books," "Speeches," and "Reporte;" it tles which, when interpreted, severally signify single barreled guns, double-barreled guns, revolvers, pirvate ammunition, private lead, company powder, company lead; the roll time actually setting forth the amount of orms and ammunition in the possession of the lodge and of one of the country lodges of that State is exhibited, in which, opposite the name of each member, are noted certain numbers, under the heads of "Missouri Republican," "St. Louis Union," "Anzeiger," "Miscellaneous Periodicals," "Books," "Speeches," and "Reports;" titles which, when interpreted, severally signify single barreled guns, double-barreled guns, revolvers, private barmunition, private lead, company powder, company lead, the roll time scitally setting forth the amount of arms and ammunition in the possession of the lodge and its members.

In the States of Oldo and Illinois, the order is claimed.

from Indianapolis into the interior. Beck & Brothers is designated as a fign in that city to which most of the srms were consigned. These were shipped principally from the East; some packages, however, were sent from Cincinnait, and some from Kentucky, and the boxes were generally marked "pick-axes, hardware, nalls, household goods," etc.
General Carrington estimates that in February and March last, nearly, 30,000 guns and revolvers entered the State, and this estimate is based upon an actual inspection of invoices. The true number introduced was therefore probably considerably greater. The officer adds that on the day on which the sale of arms was stopped by his order, in Indianapolis, nearly 1,000 additional revolvers had been contracted for, and that the trade could not supply the demand. He further reports that after the introduction of arms into the Department of the North had been prohibited in General Orders of March last, a seizure was made by the Government of a large quantity of revolvers and 135,000 rounds of ammunition, which had been shipped to the firm in Indianapolis, of which H. H. Dodd, Grand Commander, was a memb r; that other arms, about to be shipped to the same destination, were seized in New York city; and That all these were claimed as the private property of John C. Walker, one of the Major Generals of the order in Indiana, and were represented to have been "purchased for a few friends." It is to be added that at the office of Hon. D. W. Voorhees, M. C., at Terre Haute, were discovered letters which disclosed a correspondence between him and Senator Wall of New Jersey, in friends for the purchase of twenty thousand Garibaldi rifies, to be forwarded to the West.

It appears in the course of the testimony that a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition were brotinto the State of Illinois from Burlington. Iowa, and that ammunition was shipped from New Albany, Ind., into Kentucky; it is also represented that had Vallandigham been arrested on hils return to Ohio. It was contemplated furni

Said certificates were presented for payment on the 18th of July last, nearly one year after date of deposit, by a friend of the President, who took therefor lawfal money, and invested the same in United States stock. The present investments of the President are in United States stocks, upon which interest is payable the same as to any private citizen, but unlike citizens generally, he has not heretofore had his interest until long after it was due, and then it was always collected by some friend of the President who said the President would never collect it himself.

non. L. E. Contrengen, tate negater of the Onited States Treasury. But if the Father of, his Country was not exempt from like libels, can Father. Abraham expect to be? History shows that President Washington was equally the object of malignant attacks of the press. Bays Judge Marshall: His (Washington's) military and political character was attacked with equal riolence, and it was averred that he was totally destitute of merit, either as a soldier or a statesman. He was charged with having violated the Constitution, in negotiating a treaty without the previous advice of the Senate, and that he had embraced within the treaty subjects belonging exclusively to the legislature, for which an impoachment was publicly suggested. Nay, more, it was asserted that he had drawn from the treasury, for his private use, more than the sadary annexed to his office."—Marshall's Washington.

LETTER FROM LONG ISLAND. FLUSHING, LONG ISLAND Oct. 12th, 1864.

EDITORS MINERS' JOURNAL .—The result of the election in the three central States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana insures beyond the peradventure of a doubt the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, and as a natural consequence the sup-pression of the rebellion by force of arms. No base surronder of principles as enunciated by "the copperheads" in solemn concleve assembled at Chicage will go down with the American peo-ple. So speaks the ballot-box during this event-ful week in our country's history, and the respon-sive answer will come from Maine in the far cast nd from California upon the shores of the Pacif ic.

History will record that the American people have remained steadfast in their resolve that "the Union one and indivisible;" shall be perpetuated, peaceablp if possible, but forcibly if necessary; all hail then to the Union men of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana; who have fought so gallant's fight and achieved so substantial a victory. It will stimulate the Union men throughout the land to renewed exertions, and is the forerunner of the great victory in November next. Confidence is again being restored and the wheels of trade and commerce are once more moving. The capitalists of the country are being reassured, as the certainty of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln becomes so clearly demonstrated. New York will prove true to the great cause, although the

that no truer representative of Union principles can be found in the country, and should we fail it will be through no lack of effort on the part of the candidate to enlighten the Democracy of this beniefited district.
