At length his career of passive obedience came to a close; and Miss Popkin "had not the least doubt what killed him." His last words, and they were remarkable words, gave something like color to Miss Popkin's opinion. The Rev. Dr. Thunderbomb attended him in his last moments; and the conversation between them has been stated as follows:—"Dr. Pilldriver informs me that you are not long for this world." "I feel very nervous, and suppose I can't stand it long."
"No, I suppose your end is not far off. It is an awful thing to die." "Well, I don't know but what it may be for some folks." I hope you have made your peace with God. Are you prepared to meet the King of Terrors?"
"Well, I s'pose I be—I've lived with the Queen for thirty-two years!"

IRON IN THE BLOOD. It is well known to the medical profession that IRON is the vital Principle or Life Element of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we eat; but if the food is not properly digested, or if, from any cause whatever, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole system suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the langs, will stupefy the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its illisease-producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.

The great value of Iron as a Medicine Is well known and acknowledged by all medical men. The difficulty has been to obtain such a proparation of it as will enter the circulation and assimilate at once with the blood. This point, says Dr. Haves, Massachusetts State Chemist, has been attained in the Peruvian Syrup, by combination in a way before unknown. The Peruvian Syrup s a PROTECTED solution of the PROTOXIDE OF IRON. A NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE that strikes at the Root of Disease by supplying the blood with its Vital Principle or Life Element—

The Peruvian Syrup ares Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Fever and Ague, Loss of Energy, Low Spirits. The Peruvian Syrap nfuses strength, vigor, and new life into the sys-tem, and builds up an "fron Con fitution." The Most Complete Sewing Machine in Existence. The Introduction of the "FLORENCE' Dates a new era in Sewing Machines it Hems, Fells, Binds, Gathers, Braids, Quilts, and Gathers and Sews on a Buffle at the same time.

Ruffle at the same time.

The undersigned has been appointed Agent for Schuylkill County, of the Florence Sewing Machine Company, Manufacturers of the celebrated Reversible. Feed Sewing Machines.
The following advantages over any and all Sewing Machines, are claimed for the "Florence":
It makes tour different stitches, the fock, knot, double-lock and double-knot, on one and the same machine. Each stitch being alike on both sides of the fabric. abric.
It has the reversible feed motion, which enables the operator, by simply turning a thumb screw, to have the work run either to the right or left, to stay any part of the same, or fasten the ends of the seams, without turning the same of the seams, without turning the same of the seams. Changing the length of the stitch, and from one kind of stitch to another, can readily be done while the mahine is in motion. chine is in motion.

Every stitch is perfect in itself, making the seam secure and unitorm. It is almost noiseless, and can be used where quiet is necessary.

Its motions are all positive: there are no springs to get out of order, and its simplicity enables the most inexperienced to operate it.

It will not oil the dress of the operator, as all the table.

From the American Agricul twis TES AND SUCCESTIONS FOR THE MONTH ANIMALS.—Every animal needs as much attention and as good care this month, as during the winter. See that they all have a good supply of feed regularly, at least twice day, access to clean water and salt, and a comfortable place to lie and stand in. Cold. wet ground at this season of the year often produces colic, scours, or some other disease which might be prevented by keeping stock in comfortable quarters, until the ground becomes quite warm. Ewes will be yearing this month, and should receive personal atteation-not of heedless boys, but of careful men, and there is no eye like that of the owner. Watch breeding animals closely, whose time is near, visiting them late at night and early in the morning A little timely aid will often save a valuable animal. It is bad policy to feed cows short just before they are turned to grass. If possible, feed some cut roots daily, to prepare them for green food, and to keep up the flew of milk. BEEVES .- Increase the quantity of meal a ew pounds per head, every day. If the weather be pleasant, allow fattening bullocks or dry cows to exercise in a small yard, sevral hours daily ... As the warm weather omes on, their thrift will be promoted by carding, as often as once a day. As soon as grass is long enough, let them graze an hourdaily; then return them to the yard; but do not diminish the quantity of meal. At this period, beeves will fatten very fast, if managed rightly. If meat be discontinued they will not fatten much, till their bowels become accommodated to green feed.

Birds-Spare the birds, for they are great enclactors to farmers and gardners. Do nothing to frighten them from your grounds; they destroy legions of insects that are ready to injure your fruit and fruit trees. BEES.-The profits attending bee-keeping.

Bones.-Collect every bone possible; pay poor children for collecting them in the village; (25 cents per bushel will pay them well and you too; and they will be glad to do it for less.) Calves.-Give caives a comfortable yard or pen whether raised by the hand or the cow. Confined in close quarters, the floor

Boiled Indian Pudding .- (Good enough for a bachelor.) Scald half the meal and add the other half, with cool water enough to reduce the whole to a quite a thick batter. Don't put in too much salt. 'Add fruit, dried or fresh, whortleberries, or currents, or cherries, or best of all, dried pears. Put into a bagewith room to swell, drop into hot water and boil 2 or 3 hours. It is well to put some bits of crockery under it to prevent its sticking to the pot. Then turn it out and eat with cream, or maple molasses, or a dressing made of the thickened liquor in which it was boiled, sweetened and seasoned with a dash of cinnamon. If no fruit was put into the pudding it can be caten with a fruit syrup.
