Miners' Journal. POTTSVILLE, PA. SATUBDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1865.

The cessation of the late war in this coun try left the so-called Democracy beached: The tide that swept away the institution of slavery, removed beyond the use o' the leaders of that party the only means of agitation which operating on the minds of the ignorant, prejudiced and immoral, benefited their party organization. The poverty premonitory apparently, of dissolution, which has overtaken the so called Democracy, is exhibited in their abandoning in New York, in ticket.

If any State should adopt a law on the subject of suffrage which would clearly show the State government to be other than republican, it would be the duty of Congress to reject applicants for seats, and to adopt whatever legislative remedies would in their judgment be neces-cary to carry on the guarantees of the Constitution." Independent of this question which in the hands of the next Congress will be decided we are confident, in conformity with justice holds the views of the Republican party, iy are not by returned soldiers, but by memand the national honor, President Johnson that intelligence should be the basis for ex- bers of the Copperhead organ's party, who ercise of the elective franchise, and that the never were in the service.
