A Conversation with President Johnson _____ His Policy on Reconstruction. HE FAVORS GRADUAL NEGRO SUFFRACE.

BEDFORD, MASS., Oct. 8, 1965. Bedford Mass, Oct. 8, 1965.

My Dear Str: I was so much impressed with our conversation of last Tuesday, that I returned immediately to my room and wrote down such of the points made as I could remember, and having pondered them all the way home, am to day, more than ever convinced that, if corrected by you and returned to me for either public or private use, it will go far to promote a good understanding between you and our leading men.

It will also unite the public mind in favor of your plan, so far at least as you would carry it out without modification.

Yan are aware that I do not associate much with men in political life, but rather with those who, representing the advanced moral sense of the country, earnestly labor, for the good of our people, without hope of, or even desire for office of other immediate reward. The latter class desire earnestly to understand your plans, and, if possible, support your administration.

I think the publication of your process of reconstruction, with the reasons for your faith in it, will commend itself to their candid judgment, and, as I told you, inspire our whole Northern people with confidence in your daministration. our administration.

The report is meager and unsatisfactory, but I think it conveys, for the most part, the spirit of our conversa-tion. Therefore, although the whole, tenor of your words led me to believe it was not intended to be kept words let me to believe it was not not not to be kep private. I have refrained from answering the specific inquiries of anxious friends, whom I met on my way home, lest I might, in some way, leave a wrong impression on their minds.

Truly your friend.

Gronge L Strags.

Washisotos, D. C. Oct. 3—11% A. M.
I have just returned from an interview with President Jehnson, in which he telked for an hour on the process of reconstruction of Rebel States. His manner was as cardial, and his conversation as free, as in 1963, when I met him daily in Nashville.

His countenance is healthy, even more so than when I first free him. first knew him: I remarked that the people of the North were anxious I remarked that the people of the North were anxious at the process of reconstruction should be thorough, and they wished to support him in the arduous work, at their ideas were confused by the conflicting reports unstantly circulated, and especially by the present potion of the Democratic party. It is industriously circulated in the Democratic Chilis that he was going over them. He langhingly replied. "Major, have you term known a man who for many years had differed om your views because you were in advance of him laim them as his own when he came up to your stand-oint?"

point?"

I replied, I have oden. He said, so have I and went on: The Democratic party finds its old position untenable, and is coming to ours: If it has come up to our position. I am glad of it. You and I need no preparation for this conversation; we can talk freely on this subject, for the thoughts are familiar to us; we can be perfectly frank with each other. He then commenced with saying that the States are in the Union, which is whole and indivisible. with saying that the States are in the Union, which is whole and individuals tried to carry them out, but did not succeed, as a man, may try to cut his throat and be prevented by the bystanders; and you cannot, say he cut his throat hecause he tried to do it.

Individuals may commit treason and be punished, and a large number of individuals may constitute a rebellion and be punished as traitors. Some States tried to get out of the Union, and we, opposed it, houestly, because we helieved it to be wrong; and we have succeeded in putting down the Rebellion. The power of those persons who made the attempt has been crushed, and now we want to reconstruct the State Gövernments and have the power to do it. The State institutions are prostrated, laid out on the ground, and they must be taken up and adapted to the progress of events; this cannot be done in a moment. We are making very rapid progress, so rapid I sometimes cannot realize it it appears like a dream. We must not be in too much of a nurry; it is better to let them reconstruct themselves than to force them.

You could not have broathed the subject of equal You could not have broached the subject of equal suffringe, at the North, seven years, ago, and we must remember that the changes at the South have been more rapid, and they have been obliged to accept more unpaleable truth than the North has; we must give them time to digest a part, for we cannot expect such large affairs will be comprehended and digested at once. We must give them time to understand their new position.

My position here is different from what it would be if was in Tennessee. There I should try to introduce negro suffrage gradu ally; first those who bad served in the army; those who could read and write, and perhaps a property qualification for others, say $200 or $250.

It would not do to let the negroes have universal uffrage now; it would breed a war of race.
There was a time in the Scuthern States when the layes of large, owners thocked down upon non-slaves owners because they did not own slaves; the larger the number of slaves their masters owned the proude her were, and this has produced hostility between the mass of the white and the negroes. GEN. SLOCUM, the Copperhead candidate THE COAL MARKETS in New York for Secretary of State, has an ugly record morally. It appears that while in the army he amassed money which should have gone into the Government treasury, by illegal personal transactions in cotton. It was also, at this man's headquarters in the Army of the Potomac that the infamous tribute to McClellan of ten cents, to be withdrawn from the pay of every private soldier, was devised-an open support and treasonsble indorsement of a candidate for the Presidency in declared hostility to the Government and the War, that Secretary Stanton summarily squelched but forbore to punish. There is every probability that Gen. Slocum will next month be furnished with a ticket by the people of New York, to take passage in the s camboat "Cotton Trade, and join his friend Col. Davis, at the head waters of Salt River. THE TREASURER'S SALARY. - We called on he Commissioners last winter, to apply to the Legislature and have a law passed re lucing the Treasurer's perquisites, but these guardians of the tax payers were too busy in getting their own salaries increased, to prevent the tax-payers being robbed. We again call upon them to attend to this matter in time. The people will be robbed of about EIGHTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS the piesent year from their neglect of duty. If they refuse o protect the people. the people must do it themselves. In no other county in the State was such robbery permitted. THE New York TRIBUNE says that the eaders of the Renudiating Democracy have started the lying chorus-"The holders of United States securities are not taxed at allthe burdens of Government fall wholly on the poor!" They know they lie. They mean to lie. Every man of them knows that the Incomes derived from notes, bonds, and Chestnut. 10 50@11 other securities of the United States, are "included" in the estimate of incomes for taxation under the Internal Revenue Law. They know well that, if there is under our Government "burdensome" and "oppressive" taxation, to use their own slang, it is of the incomes of the men and the women who lent their money to the Government in its darkest hours of danger and need. THE main Copperhead argument, against that the white population which exercises the right of suffrage, is but little better off in this respect than the negro. According granting Southern freedmen the right to vote official return in Tennessee there are eightythree thousand adults in that State who can neither read nor write, and three hundred thousand children for whose education there are no adequate facilities. Its leave that one person in ten is checked. that one person in ten is absolutely illiterate.

The parade of the Philadelphia Fire Departirent on Monday week, is described by the press of that City, as one of the most imposing and splendid pageauts ever presented in this country. The procession was commissed of twenty-two divisions, each numbering from four to six companies, making in all over one buindred and fonction, including over thirty visiting coupanies. The Springfield Republican represents the opinions of many earnest men in the following:

"The Republican party will make no issue with President Johnson against his policy of leaving the regulations of the suffrage with the States, and it is fair enough to upbraid the few, who seek to do this, with their former willingness to let the South go; but the Republicans of the North will not, permit, the suffrage question to be pushed aside. They consider it vital, and they mean to keep it before the people until equal and intelligent suffrage is established in every State. The next movement will be for an amendment to the Constitumovement will be for an amendment to the Constitution to apportion representatives to Congress according to the voting population, and this will certainly prevail, because everybody sees that there is no other means of equalizing representation and preventing the Southern States from holding a large excess of power in the Government. No party will dane oppose this amendment, and its adoption and reference to the States would be one of the first acts of the next Congress.
This amendment adopted, we shall soom see a party organized in the Southern States for equal suffrage, and it will be very likely to be carried in some of them quita as soon as it is in Connecticat. At all events, the Republican party in the free States myst make an effort for equal suffrage in their respective States, or go under.
Nothing else can save them. If they fail to do it, they will lose the support of the men who are Republicans from principle, while the Democrats who have acted with them, and given them success in some States, will refrom principle, while the Democrats who have accept with them, and given them success in some States will re-turn to their old party affiliation, when it is thus mad to appear that there is no radical difference between the two parties; and the office-seeking and compromision element alone will be left to constitute what was one
