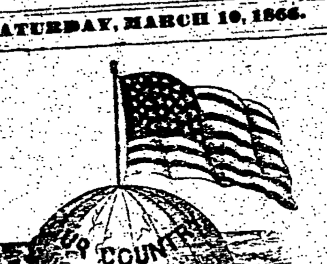
POTTSVILLE, PA.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1866.



RECONSTRUCTION.

This question was impeded in its progress to a satisfactory solution, by the President's refusal to furnish to the joint Committee on Reconstruction, the information in his possession, from various military and civil sources, showing the condition of the Southern States. This fact was elicited during the debate in the United States Senate on Friday of last week, just before the following joint resolution, which had previously been adopted by the House, came up on its final passage:

"Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That in order to close agitation upon a question which seems likely to disturb the action of the Government, as well as to quiet the uncertainty which exists in the minds of the people of the eleven States which have been declared in insurrection, no Senator or Representative shall be admitted into either branch of Congress, from any of said States till Congress shall have declared such States entitled to representation."

As the committee has been extensively calumniated, and the demand made that the committee should report; that it was too bad to keep out Tennessee; that the whole public business was delayed by the committee; and that it was the duty of Congress to allow the applicants from the South, who could take the oath, to be duly admitted, it is important to know that the President has been guilty of this alarming and extraordinary conduct, fearing it is presumed, lest his "policy" might be shown to be a delusion and a snare by his own witnesses. Had their testimony been furnished, the committee would not have been forced to send all over the South for information, and to consume the public time and fret the public patience. Three times the Senate asked the President to furnish the required information, and the expectation that the message in reply to this treble demand of the Senate, would be sent on Friday, proved to be a false alarm, and the joint resolution was passed without it. The opposition to the joint resolution was equal in violence to that displayed against the joint Committee on Reconstruction. Revolution was threatened if it passed, and more than one eminent Democratic authority called upon the President to arrest and imprison Congress if it attempted to complete this act of national defence and protection. Singular as it may appear, it is nevertheless, true, that in the last Congress nearly all the Senators who have denounced the resolution above quoted, as worse than revolutionary, voted for a proposition "declaring the States in rebellion disqualified from representation in Congress, UNTIL AUTHORIZED TO DO SO BY PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY THE PRESIDENT IN PURSUANCE OF AN ACT OF CONGRESS!"

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, in summing up this matter writes:

The true facts, viz: That nearly the whole delay in the report of the joint Committee on Reconstruction, has been produced by President Johnson's refusal to respond or recognize any of three formal requests for information in regard to the insurgent States, and that almost the same principle, so violently antagonized in the joint resolution above quoted and passed, was sustained last session by the leaders in this antagonism, will go to the people like a crushing rebuke of "my policy," as the President calls his plan of restoration. Followed, as they will soon be, by the first instalment of the testimony collected by the joint committee, you need not be at all surprised if the tables are more effectually turned upon the Copperheads and their sympathizers than in any former part of their unfortunate experience.

USURPATION ADVOCATED.

The people can form an idea of what the country may expect at the hands of the men who are dripping with the blood of our slaughtered brethren, should they be readmitted unconditionally, to power, from the following remarks of Garret Davis of Kentucky, delivered in the United States Senate on Friday of last week, on the joint resolution making Congress the judge of the time when their States shall be entitled to representation. The report of the proceedings says:

Mr. DAVIS (Ky.) then took the floor in opposition to the concurrent resolution, denying its constitutionality, &c., asserting that it was a revolutionary in its character, subversive of the Government, and a dissolution of the Union by the two Houses of Congress.

In concluding his address, Mr. DAVIS said that the Southern Senators and those who were in favor of receiving them in the Senate constituted a majority of the whole number of Senators. If these two united the President could communicate with them as the constitutional body, and by the eternal, he would advise him to do it to-morrow. He would be clearly right in doing so. He would sooner trust the Southern Senators as the friends of the country than those who were for keeping them out. The President has the remedy in his own hands and ought to use it. There was no plainer principle of law than that the President would have the right, in case the Southern Senators came here and went into session with those who were in favor of admitting them, to decide whether it was or was not the constitutional Senate.

As a sequel to this advocacy of usurpation, we have the following from one of the President's most enthusiastic supporters, THE CHICAGO TIMES:

We do not hesitate to declare that it is the solemn duty of the President to follow his words by deeds. We do not hesitate to declare that it is the solemn duty of the President to command the arrest of Thaddeus Stevens, Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner, and their confederates in Congress and all over the country, for the crime of treason. In no other way can this Northern rebellion be promptly quelled, and the public quiet restored.

And if the rump Congress shall not speedily abandon its seditions, revolutionary and lawless practices—if it shall persist in excluding the representatives of eleven States from their rightful seats, and in exercising the powers of the Congress of the United States—we do not hesitate to declare that it will become the solemn duty of President Johnson to constitute himself the Cromwell of the time, and dissolve the rump by military power.

—Let every Union man reflect where this policy will lead, and resolve to stand up, firmly, for the right, unawed by power, or unseduced by patronage.

TENNESSEE.

The case of that State came on Monday before the United States House of Representatives, upon report by Mr. Bingham from the Committee on Reconstruction. The resolutions are drawn with great care, are of great importance, and, in accordance with the resolution previously adopted by the House and Senate. They are JOINT resolutions—that is, they must be adopted by both branches and signed by the President before they have any effect whatever. They assert in the most unmistakable terms, the full power of Congress over the whole subject of Reconstruction. They insist that Tennessee is now out of the Union, and that only Congress can readmit her to the employment of "the Constitutional relations heretofore existing between [the people of Tennessee] and the United States." They recite the circumstances—the establishment of a republican form of Government by the people—which, in the judgment of Congress, contingently entitles the States to readmission. They fix certain conditions upon which that readmission shall be granted, viz: That the people shall in good faith enforce the exclusion of Rebels from the polls, and from office; that the State shall never pay any Rebel Debt, nor make any claim upon the United States, nor herself pay any claim on account of emancipation; and that these conditions shall be ratified by the Legislature, or by the people, before this act shall take effect.

A MILITARY SOIREE, will be given by the Cadets of Hofford's Military Institute, Allentown, Pa., in the American Academy of Music, Philadelphia, on Friday evening, March 23d. Birgfeldt's Band will be in attendance, and the gorgeous scenery of the Academy will be brought into requisition to lend effect to the martial scene. The Cadets we understand, perform their military evolutions with almost the precision of a piece of mechanism.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., has elected Charter officers who were Secessionists, by 200 majority. The Mayor and several other leading functionaries are fresh from the Rebel army. They are now vociferous champions of "the President's policy."

OUR SOLDIER CANDIDATE.

A thrill of joy ran through the Union heart of the State when the announcement was made that the State Convention had completed its work by the nomination of Major-General John W. Geary for Governor. He is unquestionably, the choice of the people, and as he has planted himself squarely on the platform of strong principles adopted by the Convention, his election by an overwhelming majority, is certain. He is an unqualified friend to the protection of the industry of the country. His record as the friend of human freedom, of justice, and his splendid military career have endeared him to the hearts of the people.

Gen. Geary commanded a Pennsylvania regiment in the Mexican war. As Governor of Kansas he opposed with ability and vigor, the attempt to fasten slavery on that Territory. At the breaking out of the rebellion Gen. Geary raised a regiment, and this he led in many campaigns with such distinguished ability as to make his name once more conspicuous, so that he rapidly advanced to the command of a brigade, and finally of the famous White Star division of Sherman's glorious Army of the West. He commenced operations in the Shenandoah Valley, but was subsequently sent with his regiment to reinforce the western army before the great conflict by which Grant relieved Chattanooga. His first battle in the west was that of Lookout Mountain. But after that his record is that of Sherman's army, with which he marched and fought from first to last. When Sherman took Savannah he made General Geary Military Governor of that city; but when the army marched forward to its brilliant campaign in the Carolinas, Geary was again with it.

—The campaign in Pennsylvania has fairly opened. Who can doubt the result, when every reflecting man recognizes the fact that General Geary represents the unconditional Union men of the State, while Mr. Clymer represents that sympathy with the rebellion which gave the Government so much trouble during the war?

THE greatest harmony prevailed in the Union Convention. Gen. Geary before the nomination, was called upon by several delegates—"radicals" as they called by the Copperheads—who had not been instructed. The General told them that he stood by Congress in its policy. When he was nominated, the other candidates, all worthy gentlemen, spoke, heartily endorsing the nomination. The platform of principles gives universal satisfaction throughout the State among Union men; the soldiers rejoice at the selection of a war-won veteran, and the skies are bright for a glorious and overwhelming victory in October next.

THE REV. DR. BACON of New Haven, testifies that Gen. Terry told him recently that if his troops were materially reduced he should be obliged to remove his headquarters from Richmond to Fortress Monroe. In other words, a Major-General of the United States does not think himself safe in Richmond without any army to back him. Yet the President thinks Virginia ought to be instantly admitted into Congress. As Gen. Terry is on the spot, he is likely to be a judge of the matter.

French Decorated Ware.—Mr. T. C. Boyd, of Tamaqua, has left at our store, specimens of Fancy Decorated French China Ware, which is gotten up beautifully, and which he states he can furnish from 25 to 30 per cent less than City prices. Any design desired can be placed upon any article that may be ordered from him. He furnishes all kinds of China Ware at very low rates.

Our citizens, or those from abroad, visiting Tamaqua, this County, will find excellent entertainment at the United States Hotel, kept by an experienced and courteous gentleman, Mr. D. H. Wilcox. It is located near the Railroad depot; is well furnished; has spacious, ventilated rooms, while the table is amply provided with the best the market affords.

Lineaweaver, of Lebanon, a graduate of the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery. Dr. L. has the reputation of being a good dentist, and will shortly establish his office here.

A Proper Measure.—We observe that Mr. Cressland, Representative in the State Legislature from this County, has a bill in charge which makes it illegal to kill, within the county of Schuylkill, between January 15, and November 1, any partridge or rabbit, and also prevents the sale or purchase, out of the proper season, of either rabbits or partridges. We trust that it will become a law.

Some of the Union young men of the Borough fired a salute on Saturday evening last in honor of the passage by the United States Senate of the joint resolution, previously adopted by the House, to the effect that no Senator or Representative shall be admitted from any of the eleven States which have been declared in insurrection, into either branch of Congress, till Congress shall have declared such States entitled to Representation.

Relief for the Widows and Orphans of Soldiers.—The following petition is being circulated and largely signed. The friends of the soldiers should cut it out, paste it on a sheet of foolscap, sign and send it to the Legislature. It is well considered and deserves a quick and generous answer. We should be substantially grateful to the soldiers who rescued the country from the assaults of traitors:

"TO THE HONORABLE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF PENNSYLVANIA:

"The undersigned citizens of Schuylkill County respectfully invite your early attention to the condition of the bereaved and suffering families of those Union soldiers who gave their lives or who sacrificed their health and limbs to save the Union, our free Government, and our property and our homes against the late wicked and infamous rebellion.

"The suffering among these families, in many cases, has been and is most painful and heart-rending, and in all cases demanding our deep and efficient sympathy.

"Immediate and comfortable provision for them is SIMPLE JUSTICE. Delay or neglect is CRUELTY. The Government pension is a TRIFLE.

"The provision made by the State for their orphans does not reach the case of all, and cannot be made available to those under a certain age.

"It is respectfully submitted that a law be immediately passed allowing to each widow of a Union soldier an annuity of at least three hundred dollars, to be paid monthly, and a less sum, say fifty dollars, for each child under a given age, and a similar provision be made for the families of disabled Union soldiers.

"These suffering and disabled families are the most precious and sacred inheritance of the State. Gratitude, honor, duty, and all the highest and noblest considerations that can govern human action, call loudly and eloquently on you, on us and on the whole people for a just and generous response."

Grand Opening Ball.—We understand the Union Hall will be formally opened on Tuesday, April 3, 1866, by a grand ball, given by the stockholders of the Association. No effort will be spared to render this one of the most interesting and pleasant events in the history of Pottsville. Such an array of youth and beauty as will undoubtedly be seen on the occasion, it will be difficult we can safely say, to eclipse anywhere in the country.

Gen. Thomas Harper, father of John C. Harper, Esq., of Pottsville, died at Wiconisco, Dauphin Co., on the 24th ult., aged 73 years. Mr. H. was formerly a highly popular citizen of Lebanon county, having been elected by the voters of his native county, to the offices of High Sheriff, Prothonotary and Treasurer. At the time of his death he held the office of Postmaster at Wiconisco. The deceased was "the noblest work of God, an honest man."

Lewis Reeser, Esq., who was attacked by paralysis on Friday of last week, as stated in our last, died on Monday night last. His age was 49 years. The remains were interred on Thursday last; Miners' Lodge, I. O. of O. F., of which he was a member, attending them to the grave. Mr. Reeser was an old and respected citizen of this Borough, and at the time of his death held the position of Justice of the Peace, Middle Ward. In 1851 he was elected Register and Recorder, which office he filled three years to the satisfaction of the people of the County. At three successive elections he was chosen Justice of the Peace for the Middle Ward, by large majorities, and held the position ten years. In February last he was re-elected.

Temperance.—On Sunday evening, 4th inst., Rev. G. T. Barr, of the M. E. Church, St. Clair, delivered an interesting sermon on total abstinence. A number of the members of Jones' Division, No. 544, S. of T., were present, in regalia. There is considerable complaint that the Sunday liquor law is violated in our sister borough. The good people there should enforce the law for their own comfort and the credit of the place. We learn that Mr. Barr, D. G. W. P., a most efficient and zealous worker in the cause of Temperance, and as well as a highly esteemed minister, is about to receive a new appointment in the ministry and will shortly remove from St. Clair. His departure will be a public loss to that place.

The new Zouave company has been fully organized by the election of Frank Lieb as Captain; B. Reilly, Jr., as First Lieutenant; Frank Simpson as Second, and Theodore Patterson as brevet-Second Lieutenant. Mr. Charles Beck is First Sergeant. The company made a street parade on Wednesday evening last, armed and equipped. There were about forty muskets in the ranks. The company being composed entirely of veterans, of course each member is already fully posted in his duties. We trust that other companies will be organized not only here but throughout the County, and that we may soon be able to say that Schuylkill County has a regiment of effective volunteers.

Fenian Meeting.—A meeting of the Fenian Brotherhood was held at the Court House, in this Borough, on Wednesday evening last, Mr. Edward O'Conner presiding, assisted by a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The room was filled at an early hour. Mr. B. B. McCool stated the object of the meeting, and then introduced Dr. Reynolds of New York, who urged the claims of of Ireland in a speech of an hour's length. He said that a third of a million of men were waiting in Ireland for the propitious moment to strike a blow against the oppression of the English Government. He believed that independence would be achieved if Irishmen in this country did their duty in contributing money to aid their struggling brethren in Ireland. Capable officers, trained on the field of battle, were there, and the hour had arrived for Ireland to strike the blow.—He urged liberal contributions. Mr. Cornelius Smith followed in a few remarks denunciatory of England, when a collection was taken up. We have not heard what amount was collected on the occasion. It must have been considerable, as there was much enthusiasm in the audience.

At the regular meeting of the Pottsville Debating Club, held on Monday evening last, the Rev. Dr. Plummer, delivered an interesting and instructive lecture on "Man." The spacious hall of the Girl's Grammar School Building was literally crowded; a majority of the audience being ladies, showed that they have a laudable disposition to encourage, by their presence, a Society which has for its object the mutual improvement of its members. The very best evidence that can be given of the superior excellence of the lecture, is the fact, that, although the Doctor occupied an hour in its delivery, it was listened to with unabated attention and interest to the end.

The question, "Should the President's Veto of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill be sustained by the People?" was advocated in the affirmative by Mr. Martz, and in the negative by Mr. Burlingame. The discussion of this question will be continued at the next meeting.

The lecturer for the next meeting, will be Dr. Charles H. Haeseler. Judging from the manner in which the last lecture of this gentleman was read, we bespeak for him a full house on Monday evening next.

A regular meeting of the Washington Literary Society, of Tremont, was held on Wednesday evening, 7th inst., in the High School. Mr. John Pugh, presiding. On motion Mr. James Minnich was elected Secretary, pro tem. The regular order of exercises were quickly hurried through, after which the Literary Journal was read by the editor, Mr. J. Lineaweaver which was well received by the audience. The question, "Resolved—The liberty of the press does more harm than good," was then discussed by Messrs. Drake, Crothers and Snyder in the affirmative and by Messrs. Ashworth, Lineaweaver, Kuebler, and Kirk in the negative.

The following question, "Resolved, that novel reading is morally injurious," will be discussed at the meeting on Wednesday evening next, in the affirmative by Messrs. Snyder, Crothers, and Ashworth, and in the negative by Messrs. Drake, Lineaweaver, and Kirk. After a few other preliminary exercises, and music by Miss Maggie E. Pinkerton, entitled "Father! Dear Father come Home," the society adjourned. The meetings of the society commence at 7½ o'clock. All interested in Literary matters, and all others are respectfully invited to attend.

Alms House Report.—The regular monthly meeting of the Directors of the Poor of Schuylkill County, was held at the Alms House, March 5, 1866.

ST. CLAIR AFFAIRS.

ST. CLAIR, March, 1866

MESSRS. EDITORS—Although the borough officials of St. Clair have passed an act prohibiting the Sunday liquor traffic there is still required a little more vigilance on the part of the officers of the law.

The ordinance is undoubtedly, a very good one, and reflects great credit upon those who formed it; but unless it receives the strict attention and hearty co-operation of those interested in it, but little good can result. It is one noble step toward reforming our people, and should receive the hearty approval of our citizens.

Those who refuse to support an act embracing so much moral good as it does are entirely unworthy the title of citizens. But you will allow me here to remark that the firm of Messrs. Disobedience, Brown Stout, Lager-Beer & Co., is extremely popular, and is doing a large business, but its customers are subjected to the inconvenience of entering the back doors.

A beer shop with closed door (front) may afford some consolation to the eyes of the outsider, and seem to look very well in regard to keeping the Sabbath day holy, but the rear entrances are much more frequented than heretofore; and not only this, for men become intoxicated by means of this powerful access.

I know not who is the Chief Burgess and other officers of this Borough, but it seems very strange that they should enact such a law as the Sunday liquor law of St. Clair, and then allow it to pass by unheeded and uncared for.

My situation is of such a character as to require me to pass frequently through the Borough, and from observance and personal inquiries, I deem it prudent to make this statement. OBSERVER.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

[REPORTED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL BY CHRISTOPHER LITTLE, ESQ.]

March Term.—Quarter Sessions.

The large Court room was unusually crowded at the opening of the Court on Monday morning, and the attendance has continued very large all the week. Much of the first day was occupied with the constables' returns, swearing in those newly elected, calling jurors, motions, &c. Heretofore two daily sessions have been held—from 8½ A. M. to 12½ P. M. and from 2½ to 6, P. M. But the Court on Thursday inaugurated a new practice by holding additional night sessions, from 7½ to 10 o'clock, in order to facilitate the business.

Up to yesterday morning last the following cases had been heard by the Court, or tried by juries, or otherwise disposed of:

Sureties of the Peace.

Elizabeth Callen, Pottsville—on oath of Ellen Bedford. Each party directed to pay half the costs.

Philip Waul, Minersville—on complaint of Louisa Smeck. Deft. to pay costs, and give bail in $100 to keep the peace, &c., for one year.

Jury Trials.

Michael Welsh, St. Clair, was found guilty of Fornication and Bastardy, with Jane Lewis, and fined $60 for lying-in expenses, and the usual sentence for the support of the child.

Alfred Chester, Minersville, was charged with selling liquor without license, but acquitted.

Franklin Bretz, Port Clinton, was acquitted of a charge of Assault and Battery on Danl. Schantz, but directed to pay the costs.

Betty Nolen, Mt. Laffee, was convicted of an Assault on Mary Canfield. Not yet sentenced.

Julia Ann Trump, Schuylkill Haven, was charged with Larceny by Wm. Witman, but acquitted. County for costs.

James Skidmore, Tuscarora, plead guilty to an Assault and Battery on Henry Outwin, and sentenced to a fine of $25, and 30 days' imprisonment.

Daniel Nunnemacher, Friedensburg, was convicted of Fornication and Bastardy with Sophia Fertig. Not yet sentenced. The parties are each married, and have families.

Isaac Nungesser, Catawissa Valley, plead guilty to an Assault and Battery on Samuel Rupert. Fined $10, and costs.

John alias Jack Kelly, was convicted of an Assault and Battery on Wm. Umpleby. Not yet sentenced.—This was a fight on the Mine Hill Railroad train, near Ashland, some two or three years ago. Both parties were passengers, and the deft. being drunk, behaved most indecently toward several ladies on the train, which the prosecutor resented when Kelly with the help of several comrades, fell upon and beat him in the most inhuman manner.

Stephen Biers plead guilty to selling liquor without license, and was fined $25, and costs.

Joseph Evans plead guilty to a similar charge, and was fined $10, and costs.

Lizzie and her husband, Thomas Brennigan, Mahanoy City, were charged with stealing some $250 in money from a trunk in the house of, and belonging to Edward Cronin. The evidence was wholly circumstantial, and insufficient to warrant the Commonwealth in asking Thomas' conviction, and the Court therefore, directed his acquittal, but the jury rendered a verdict of guilty as to Lizzie, with however, a recommendation of mercy.

Thomas Barrett, Ashland, was convicted of an Assault and Battery on Peter Monghan. Not yet sentenced.

Lord Overbeck was found guilty of a charge of Larceny, preferred by Jesse Drumheller. Not yet sentenced.

Henry Reese plead guilty to selling liquor without license, and was fined $50, and costs, and sent to prison for 30 days.

Wm. White was tried and acquitted of Larceny, charged by Manus Kramer. County for costs.

Mary Canfield and Bridget Flynn were acquitted of Larceny, charged by Betty Nolen. County for costs.

Danl Curry, Mahanoy City, was tried for an Assault and Battery on John Curry, and acquitted, but directed to pay one third of the costs—the pros. to pay the remaining two-thirds of the bill.

The same deft. was convicted of an Assault and Battery on Ann Curry, and fined $25, and costs.

Luke Kelly, Ashland, was convicted of an Assault and Battery on George Buchanan, with intent to kill. Not yet sentenced.

Edward Green plead guilty to selling liquor without license.

The same deft. was also tried for selling liquor on Sunday. Not yet sentenced in either case.

Bills Ignored, &c.

Edward and Wm. McGee, Heckscherville, were charged with Assault and Battery by Michael Brennan. Ignored, and prosecutor for costs.

Samuel Morris, Tuscarora, was charged with Assault and Battery on Henry Outwin. Ignored, and pros. for costs.

Mary Wonders was charged with keeping a disorderly house. Bill ignored, and prosecutor, John Arnold, for costs.

Frantz Fissing was charged by John McBarron with keeping a gambling house. Ignored, and pros. for costs.

Jeremiah Wingert, Pinegrove, was charged with Forcible Entry and Detainer by David Krebs. Ignored, and pros. for costs.

Evan D. Jones and Eli Moser were indicted for refusing to receive the vote of Owen Boyle at a late election.—Ignored, and County for costs.

Benjamin F. Boyer was charged in two separate indictments with Larceny, by Wm H. Boyer. Both bills ignored, and County for costs.

J. Wallace Guss was charged with Embezzlement by Lawrence McGrath. Ignored, and County for costs.

The Grand Jury.

Having finished their business, reported accordingly, and were discharged on Thursday afternoon.

They had acted on one hundred and eight bills of indictment—finding ninety-eight true, and ignoring ten. The prison and several public offices were visited, and all reported in the "best of order."

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 5, 1866. SENATE.—A resolution was adopted calling on the President for information in regard to the kidnapping of negroes in the South and their sale as slaves in Cuba. A joint resolution to provide for the resumption of relations with the Southern States, was offered by Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, and referred to the Reconstruction Committee. The representation amendment to the Constitution was debated. The bill to reimburse Missouri for war expenses was then considered.

HOUSE.—A resolution that the United States guarantee the payment of interest on the new Mexican loan was, by the casting vote of the Speaker, read twice, and referred to the Foreign Committee. Concurrent resolutions relating to the admission of the South were presented. The Reconstruction Committee reported resolutions for the admission of the Tennessee delegation on certain conditions. The report was recommitted, and ordered to be printed. A letter was presented from the Governor of North Carolina, but the House refused to receive it. Resolutions were adopted, asking information of the President in regard to pardon and to confiscated and abandoned property in the South, and of the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the money in the United States Treasury. The House then passed the Military Academy bill and the bill making appropriations for the army.

March 7.—SENATE.—A resolution was adopted looking to the appointment of a Medical commissioner to consider preventives against the cholera, and to attend the Cholera Congress. A resolution was adopted looking to the protection of army officers from suits for acts done in obedience to orders during the war. The representation amendment was debated. The bill for the admission of Colorado was made the special order for Monday night.

UNION STATE CONVENTION.

Sterling Resolutions Adopted.

Major-General John W. Geary Nominated for Governor on the First Ballot.

OUR BRAVE SOLDIERS REJOICE.

The Union State Convention assembled in the Hall of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, on Wednesday last.

Hon. John Covode was selected to preside permanently. Among the Vice Presidents selected, was Henry L. Cake of this County.

The following resolutions were then adopted—yeas, 109; nays, 21:

1. RESOLVED, That this Convention, representing the Union-loving and loyal people of Pennsylvania, who never despaired of the Republic, and who poured out millions of treasure and devoted yet more precious blood for the rescue of the country from the felonious attacks of a wicked and causeless rebellion—whose sons fought on every battle-field, and suffered in every Southern prison pen of torture and starvation—whose noble dead lie on the soil of every State, where they fell under the folds of the national banner—here renew their pledges of unfaltering devotion to the Federal Union, and repeat their determined purpose that it shall be preserved.

2. RESOLVED, That the most imperative duty of the present is to gather the legitimate fruits of the war, in order that our Constitution may come out of the rebellion purified, our institutions strengthened, and our national life prolonged.

3. RESOLVED, That failure in these grave duties would be scarcely less criminal than would have been an acquiescence in secession and in the treasonable machinations of the conspirators, and would be an insult to every soldier who took up arms to save the country.

4. RESOLVED, That filled with admiration at the patriotic devotion and fearless courage with which Andrew Johnson resisted and denounced the efforts of the rebels to overthrow the National Government, Pennsylvania rejoiced to express her entire confidence in his character and principles, and appreciation of his noble conduct by bestowing her suffrage upon him for the second position in honor and dignity in the country; his bold and outspoken denunciations of the crime of treason, his firm demands for the punishment of the guilty offenders, and his expressions of thorough sympathy with the friends of the Union, secured for him the warmest attachment of her people, who remembering his great services and sacrifices while traitors and their sympathizers alike denounced his patriotic action, appeal to him to stand firmly by the side and to repose upon the support of the loyal masses, whose votes formed the foundation of his promotion, and who pledged to him their unswerving support in all measures by which treason shall be stigmatized—loyalty recognized—and the freedom, stability and unity of the nation secured.

5. RESOLVED, That the work of restoring the late insurrectionary States to their proper relations to the Union, necessarily devolves upon the law-making power, and that, until such action shall be taken, no State, lately in insurrection, is entitled to representation in either branch of Congress; that, as preliminary to such action, it is the right of Congress to investigate for itself the condition of the legislation of those States, to inquire respecting their loyalty, and to prescribe the terms of restoration; and that to deny this necessary Constitutional power is to deny and imperil one of the dearest rights belonging to our representative form of government; and that we cordially approve of the action of the Union representatives in Congress from Pennsylvania on this subject.

6. RESOLVED, That no man who has voluntarily engaged in the late rebellion, or has held office under the rebel organization, should be allowed to sit in the Congress of the Union; and that the law—known as the test oath—should not be repealed, but should be enforced against all claimants for seats in Congress.

7. RESOLVED, That the national faith is sacredly pledged to the payment of the national debt incurred in the war to save the country and to suppress the rebellion, and that the people will not suffer this faith to be violated or impaired, but all debts incurred to support the rebellion were unlawful, void and of no obligation—shall never be assumed by the United States, nor shall any State be permitted to pay any evidences of so vile and wicked engagements.

8. RESOLVED, That the public faith is not less solemnly pledged to the protection in the enjoyment of all their natural rights—of their persons, property, and domestic relations—of the colored population who have been emancipated by the fiat of the people, and under the providence of God; and who deserved liberty by their kindness and fidelity to our soldiers in prison, or wounded, or seeking escape from their tormentors, and by their courage in bearing arms for and fighting the battles of the Union. Even as man is more precious than money in every just account, so the honor of the nation is more sacredly engaged to these humble but never treacherous friends, than to those who hold its bonds stamped with the broad seal of the United States, that their freedom shall not be a mockery, nor their just hopes of security, education and elevation in intellectual and moral improvement disappointed—and this faith must be kept inviolate.

9. RESOLVED, That protection to all branches of useful and productive industry is the only wise policy in our present national condition—is the true plan of restoring the losses and ravages of war—of advancing the national prosperity, increasing the national wealth, and supplying the means of maintaining the public faith with the public creditor, and ultimately wiping out the national debt; that in the provision of internal revenue and the laying of duties on importations from foreign nations, the object should be to cause the former to press as lightly upon, and the latter to protect as fully as possible our own citizens who are engaged in works of labor, mining, manufacturing and every other province of home industry, against unequal and unfair competition with foreign capital and policy, which neither contribute to develop the resources of our country, assist to pay our taxes, nor are concerned to maintain our Government or confirm our national power or authority which, during the recent life-struggle, they insidiously and maliciously strove to subvert.

10. RESOLVED, That the administration of the public affairs of Pennsylvania by Governor Andrew G. Curtin, during the years of trial, toil, responsibility and anxiety which have recently passed over us, has been marked by such patriotic devotion, unyielding courage, constant watchfulness, unwearied labor and shining ability, as have made his name illustrious in the annals of this Commonwealth, and given him a place in the affections and memory of the people which cannot be lost; his enviable title of "soldier's friend" is in itself expressive of the highest eulogiums that could be pronounced on any public officer, and when his term of honorable, useful and most beneficial service shall close, he shall not be forgotten, but honor, love, affectionate remembrance and the plaudits of a grateful people shall cluster around his person, and make his name memorable.

11. RESOLVED, That this Convention congratulate the people of the State on the passage of a law relieving the real estate of the Commonwealth from taxation for State purposes, and tender to the members of the General Assembly their thanks for their considerate attention to relieve the popular burdens, while they confidently refer to it as a proof of the superior capacity of the Union organization for the beneficial conduct of public affairs, that after a long and exhausting war, the debt of Pennsylvania is reduced, and the taxes imposed in a time of peace by their political opponents, are diminished by the judicious management of executive officers and a General Assembly chosen by the Union party.

12. RESOLVED, That the loyal people of Pennsylvania, having steadily manifested, through the war with the rebellion, their warm regard for the rights of the gallant defenders of the Union, and never having voted to refuse them the right of suffrage when in the camp and on the field—a right inestimable to them and formidable to traitors and their sympathizers only—we take pleasure in expressing, not now for the first time, their gratitude for their gallantry and devotion, and declaring again a long settled purpose to appropriate the means and resources of the Government as well to the comfort, consolation and support of the disabled survivors, or the widows and orphans of those who fell in the conflict.

13. RESOLVED, That the services, labors, consummate ability and unvarying faith in the destiny of the country manifested by the Hon. Edwin M. Stanton as the head of the War Department during the rebellion, have been of inestimable value to the country, and entitled him to the warmest commendation of the people.

14. RESOLVED, That Congress should not fail to make an equitable adjustment of bounties and allowances to the brave men who were engaged in the military service of the country; and that we heartily approve of the liberal appropriation now pending in the Legislature of Pennsylvania for the care and education of the orphan children of the soldiers who gave their lives for the salvation of the Republic.

15. RESOLVED, That in this crisis of public affairs, full of grateful recollections of his marvellous and memorable services on the field of battle, we turn to the example of unfaltering and uncompromising loyalty of Lieut. Gen. Grant with a confidence not the less significant and unshaken, because at no period of our great struggle has his proud name been associated with a doubtful patriotism, or used for sinister purposes by the enemies of our common country.

16. RESOLVED, That any attempt by foreign nations to establish a monarchical government on this continent, is evidence of a design to destroy this Republic. Regard for our own safety and for the future security of the Republic, demands that no such attempt should be permitted to succeed.

17. RESOLVED, That the Honorable Edgar Cowan, Senator from Pennsylvania, by his course in the Senate of the United States, has disappointed the hopes and has forfeited the confidence of those to whom he owes his place; and that he is hereby most earnestly requested to resign.

17. RESOLVED, That the State Central Committee to be constituted by the appointment of a Chairman by the President of this Convention, in consultation with the Union candidate for Governor, and that the remainder of said Committee shall consist of one member from each county in the State, except that the city of Philadelphia shall have eight members, and the counties of Lancaster, Berks, Dauphin and Allegheny each two members, to be named by the representative delegates from said counties in this Convention; and that the Association of Loyal Pennsylvania residents at Washington shall also be allowed one member, to be appointed by their delegates present.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Governor.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Major-General John W. Geary received 81 votes; Winthrop W. Ketchum, 39 votes; Gen. Harry White, 3 votes.

On motion of Mr. Connell, of Philadelphia, the nomination was made unanimous, amid intense enthusiasm.

On motion, a committee, consisting of R. P. King, Geo. V. Lawrence and Wm. B. Mann, was appointed to wait upon the successful candidate, and also upon the gentlemen whose names had been mentioned before the convention, and invite them to address the meeting.

During the absence of the committee the convention called upon Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Allegheny, for some remarks. Mr. Marshall endorsed the nomination, and stated that in a conversation he had had with General Geary, that gentlemen expressed his endorsement of the course of Thaddeus Stevens. If he stood up in the position he then announced, he would receive the support of a majority in Allegheny County as would make Heister Clymer wish he had never received a nomination. (Laughter and cheers.)

Hon. John Cessna was next called upon. He congratulated the convention and the loyal men of the country upon the result of the deliberations of that body, and he then referred to the importance of the struggle upon which they were about to enter. Those who had predicted division and contention in the Union ranks would soon be undeceived, for Pennsylvania was as much in earnest now as she had been in the war.

Addresses were also delivered by Messrs. A. K. McClure and Galusha A. Grow.

Major General Geary, the candidate of the convention, was then introduced by the Committee.

He expressed his appreciation of the high compliment which had been bestowed upon him, and accepted it in the hope that he might be made fully sensible of the great responsibilities which devolved upon him, and that he might be strengthened with a sincere purpose to advance the true principles of humanity and the true interests of the country. He accepted the nomination with the firm and unfaltering determination to sustain the great principles of equal justice which underlie our republican institutions, and a hearty endorsement of the principles embodied in the platform. He received it also as due to the three hundred and fifty thousand soldiers of the State of Pennsylvania, who had done battle valiantly for their country and for liberty. He assured the convention that as far as he possessed the ability, with the aid of intelligent Union men of the State, the coming grand political contest should be fairly and honorably conducted to its legitimate termination and a still grander future.

Hon. Winthrop W. Ketchum, of Luzerne; General Moorhead, of Allegheny; Col. Harry White, of Indiana county; Hon. John Scott, and William B. Mann, followed in endorsement of the nomination.

After General Geary had spoken, the following despatch was read amid great excitement and applause:

Hon. John W. Forney, Harrisburg:

My acquaintance with General Geary is of long standing. I knew him in California, Mexico, and during the rebellion. It gives me great pleasure to bear testimony to his most excellent character as a military leader and as an honorable man. I know of no officer who has performed his whole duty with more fidelity than Gen. Geary.

JOSEPH HOOKER,
Maj.-Gen. Com'g.

There being no further business, the convention adjourned sine die, with cheers.

We Keep Pace with the Times.

On the horse-jogging principle we never could go;
By the lightning express we must move;
The former belongs to an age that is past,
But the latter is one which we love;
Then crack on the steam! for the business wheels
Should never in tardiness roll;
Rather the air of the fleetest steed
Than the pace of the sluggish mole;
We therefore have bought on the largest scale
To meet the demands of our trade,
That none may go off without a good fit,
And none without being well paid.
Then let it resound over valley and plain,
That the "STAR" has got charms for the eye;
Its clothes are well made, sure always to fit,
Come then, all YE PEOPLE and buy.

Having made up an immense stock of Clothing from goods bought since the decline, we are thereby enabled to undersell those houses which have such immense stocks on hand, bought when goods were at a much higher figure, for to mark down the prices to the present standard would cause considerable loss, which they will meet very reluctantly.

N. B.—Having marked our Overcoats far below the actual cost, they would be a desirable investment for those who intend buying next winter. Lot of Vests, one dollar each.
