Galena. (iii), September 1.—The day has been rainy and disagreeable overhead and under foot. The Republican mass meeting was a success, nevertheless. Thousands crowded around the gallant. General John A. Logan, to hear him expound the true political gospel, and he did it admirably.

Before proceeding to the discussion of the political questions of the day. General Logan took occasion to yndicate General Grant from the attempts of the Copterneads and the Johnsonites to create the impression that he was in sympathy with them. General Logan le intimately acquainted with General Grant, saw him but recently in Washington, and spoke to day in the presence of Hon. E. B. Washburne, who understands General Logan said General Grant-sympathies are entirely with the true Union men of the country—that, to his certain knowledge, he was in favor of the Civil Rights-bil, and is in favor of the ratification of the constitutional amendment. Mr. Washburne confirms General Logan's assertions in these respects. Genoral Grant is laddeal Republican in his ways of thinking, and has no political sympathies with the Copperheads forts to identify him with his "policy" by dragging him west must fail. General Grant is not the man to disobety orders, but he is the man to do right when the time comes for him to act.

CONVENTION. PHILADELPHIA'S WELCOME.

UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM. The Unionist's Convention at National Hall.

We could fill a dozen papers the size of the liners' Journal, with accounts of the mag nificent reception of the Southern Unionists n Philadelphia; of the immense processions the eloquent speeches, and the innumerable incidents. The procession that on Monday last escorted them to Independence Hall and to the Union League was such a procession is Philadelphia never before saw. The ovation was literally made to the new born spirit of liberty—a demonstration almost supernal n its enthusiasm, and that no common occation or exigency could call forth. The Convention met in National Hall

Market Street, which was beautifully decorated. Among the patriotic inscriptions cov ering the walls were these: "I tremble for the country when I reflect that God I st."-Jefferson. "I tremble for the country when I renect had God is Just."—Jefferson.

"There can be , o neutrals, only patriots or traitors."

S. A. Dougles.

"Treason must be made odious and traitors punished. Their great plantations 'must be setzed and divided into small farms for houset and industrious men.

Andrew Johnson.

"The Union: it must and shall be preserved."—Andrew Johnson.

On the front of the speaker's stand were the words:

"Welcome, patriots of the south:

Ye bore, as freedom's hope forlorn,

The private hate, the rebel scorn:

Yet held, through all the paths ye trod,

Your faith in man and trust in God."

The first days of the Convention was devo-

The first day of the Convention was deve ed to temporary organization. On the secand day the committee on permanent organzation reported the name of Hon. James Speed, of Kentucky, as permanent President, together with a number of representative men as Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The successful working of the Convention was also attained by the appointment of a committee on address, on resolutions and on reconstruction. A delegate from Maryland, Hon. Hugh R. Bond, presented a resolution with the request tinat it be referred to an appropriate committee, which urged the adoption of the reconstruction amendment to the Constitution passed by Congress, and adding, "In our opinion there can be no permanent peace check its production. or security for the loyal men of the South "without a return to negro suffrage." This resolution, which was in the shape offered, and so far as acted upon, but an expression of the views of the gentleman who proposed it, was referred to the committee on resolutions. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a union for the Southern Loyallists and Northern delegates. All of the Northern States have appointed delegates; and on Monday there was a union of the delegates from both sections in front of the Union League House. The Northern delegates afterwards assembled by themselves, and elected their own officers, but they ex-miscellaneous character. Several resolutions questions of negro suffrage, were offered and referred. A resolution that Andrew Johnson be requested to resign, was received with vociferous applause. Another, to the effect that a committee should be appointed to follow in the footsteps of the President in his pilgrimage to Chicago, and on his return to Washington, was received with immense applause, and a number of effective in front of the League House, which proposition was carried. In the afternoon the delegates were entertained by a banquet at the Union League House. The meeting on Wednesday night in Broad street was a magnificent demonstration, whether we consider the numbers who took part in it, the effectiveness of the speaking or the enthusiasm which prevailed. It was also be ruinous; hence the only alternative a marvel among public meetings, something is to decide which course would cause the which once seen will nover be forgotten. As there is every intention to give free the Convention may yet occupy some days. Wednesday night, says :

Welnesday night, says:

We leave to love reporters the task of describing what was unquestionably the migualest popular demonstration ever winessed in this country. Such was the intigment of those who had participated in the massive gatherings of 1840, 1844 and 1840. The visit of Lafayette forty-two years ago, was the only event-claimed to bear any likeness to it. Nothing during the rebellion, crowded as that tragedy was with alternate agony and suspense, with grief and joy, could be compared to it. The secret is easily found. Andrew Johnson's appeal to the American people was not taken a moment too soon. They had become ripe for a sieril response to his ineffable treachery; and when he filled the land with Jaischoods upon them, (the worst being that rurs sustained him) and non their faithful servants, they almost antitioned his challenge. And their determination is fully taken. Whether he understands it or not, the connery will. In his masnity he hards curses and threats with equal recklessness. The wisest have apprehended that he not only menace, but areass, civil war. We know that he has repeatedly declared that he would arrest Congress if impeachment were threatened. Even as we write his reled employers have called a meeting to organize a new State government in Tennessed, Will he please to try on any one of there new fashions? We think he would ind either a lighter fit than the relearance shirt of Nessus. And whatever he incones a copy, detail of a copy to grace, he will be accommodated to a fair trial, ablee of his experiment and himself. The American people were never in so rare a humon to deal with a newerbel of a new civil ver.

Another Official Disparch Turked Up.—Another official dispatch from General Sheridan to General Grant, concerning the New Officans atrocities, has now turned up. It bears the date of August 13th, and in it General Sheridan expresses his regret that the military were not present to prevent the police from perpetrating a revolting massacre.

.98,791 2,800,079 The reports from all the coal regions, exspeakers were nominated for that duty. The cept from the Schuylkill, are for the week Committee of Conference reported that the ending on Saturday last. Whether there will Northern and Southern Conventions would be any diminution in the supply for this unite in National Hall In the evening, and week we cannot tell at present; but our imthence proceed together to the mass meeting pression is that it will diminish so long as the present state of the trade continues. Purchasers are holding off for lower prices, and the producers cannot lower the prices of coal without a reduction of wages. A large curtailment of the supply for a few weeks, therefore, appears to be the only remedy. To stop mining subjects the operator to a loss, and to go on at reduced prices would least loss. Every operator in this Region Coal Run Coal Co... would prefer working at a loss of 25 cents a scope to discussion and to the expression of ton rather than stop his colliery, if there was a the views of all the delegates, the sessions of reasonable hope that prices would advance to remunerating rates within a short time. No-The Philadelphia Press in speaking of the thing but absolute necessity will induce him tremendous, outpouring of the people on to stop his colliery during the working season. Our Philadelphia correspondent is correct. In comparison with the published coal table | Warrior Run. Sept. 1, 1864, the increase so far this year is only about 1,600,000 tons. We intended to write that the market would take this year about 2,600,000 tons in excess of the supply of 1864, which was the largest quantity sent to market in any single year. The whole Trenton Coal Co...

upply of Anthracite and Bituminous coal in Wyoming Coal Co...
Wyoming Coal Co... 1865 was only 190,554 tons less than the supply of 1864, and we are now 2,809,979 in excess of 1865, and the supply for the balance of this season is not likely to be less than i.

was last year. The difficulty with the trade now is the mpression created abroad that Coal will be cheaper, and consequently purchasers are folding back. The low prices this year com pared with the two previous years, together with the increasing scarcity of wood, has largely extended and increased the consumption of coal; and notwithstanding the largely increased supply of this year, there is not much of an overstock in the market, and there would be none, if consumers did not hold back their orders expecting a further de-One word to our operators :- You must prepare your coal better. It is notorious that a large portion of coal sent to market is badly prepared—and the consequence is that: it is losing its reputation in the market. The operators in other regions receive better pries, in many instances for an inferior coal. owing entirely to its better preparation or market. This is getting to be a se rious drawback to the Schuylkill Region, and it must be remedied if they desire to CUT FLOWERS, BOUQUETS, sustain their position in the markets. If not needed, they must expect to sell only such coal that the other regions cannot furnish. These remaiks do not apply to all, but o a majority of the operators; and those who do prepare their coal properly can always obtain a higher price for their commodity.

WE understand the lease of the valuable prop erty (having fifty-six years to run) belonging to Lewis W. Illustrating and explaining the geology, origin and formation of Coal, Iron and Oil, their peculiarities, characters, and general distribution, and the economy of mining, manufacturing, and using them; with general descriptions of the coal-fields and coal-mines of the world, and special descriptions of the Anthractic fields and mines of Pennsylvania, and the Bitminhous fields of the United States, the iron districts and iron trade of our country, and the geology and distribution of Petroleum, the statistics, extent, production and trade in Coal, Iron, and Oil, and such useful information on mining and manufacturing matters as science and practical experience have developed to the present time. BY SAMUEL HARRIES DADDOW,

Practical Miner and Engineer of Miner, BENJAMIN BANNAN, Editor and Proprietor of the "Miners' Journal."

A Brief Symposis of Contents. A Brief Synepsis of Centents.

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. " and God said, let there be light: and there was light." I will teach you to pierce the bowels of the earth and bring forth, from the caverns of mountains, metals which will give strength to our hands and subject all nature to our use and pleasure."

The details of each chapter, under its appropriate head, will be found in the commencement of the work; and a complete Index is given in the Conclusion. We respectfully invite the attention of all those or

We respectfully invite the attention of all those engaged in the Coal, Iron, and Oil trades, to this work, which we believe will meet their special requirements and the demand of the times. We have faithfully endeavored, without regard to cost or labor, to make it a practical, accurate, and thorough axpositor of the subjects discussed and illustrated. We, therefore, confidently offer this book to the trades and the public generally, as a dignified and reliable work, especially designed to represent our mineral resources in Coal, Iron, and Oil.

saturday. September 8 1866 THE LATEST NEWS.

The Seathern Leyal Convention—Banquet of Philadelphia Press Club to Visiting Reliterial Brethren—Riscellany.

In Philadelphia on Thursday, the Southern Loyal Convention re-assembled. The Committee on Address reported an Appeal to the loyal people: of the United States, bitterly denouncing the President's policy.—Mr. Sherwood, of Teras, offered as a substitute an address favoring negro soffence, which was almost unanimously rejected, and the Committee's Appeal was adopted. Resolutions were then reported and adopted endursing Congress, and declaring the Southern state governments linguismate until recognized by Congress. A committee of one from each blate was appointed to lay the Address and Resolutions before Congress. The convention took a recess till 6 o'cluck, when it reds. governments literatimate until recognized by Congress. A committee of one from each state was appointed to lay the Address and kesolutions before Congress. The convention took a recess till 6 octock, when it reassembled, about forty members being present. Governor Brownlow moved to adjourn sine die, which gavortse to considerable excitement. Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, protested against the action of the Border States in thus attempting to muzzle the delegates from the non-reconstructed States. It was finally agreed that the Committee on Non-reconstructed States make their report, to be acted on by the delegates from each State. Adjourned multi Friday (restorday) morning. A complimentary banquet to the members of the newspaper profession now in Philadelpina, was given at the Continental Hotel, on Thursday evening, under the surpless of the Press Club of Panindelpina.

Among the speakers was Theodore Tition, who gave a humorous ascich of the incidents connected with the editorial profession. He considered that the American press lacked men of courage. If you want to make a first-class newspaper, and make it fame out like the sun in the cast—it you believe any doctrine, announce it as if you did believe it.

The Union Leagus House, Broad street, Philadelt phia was damaged by fire yesterday morning. The thanes were confined to the upper part of the building.

The New York Republican State convention net at Syracuse on Wednesday, and nommated Renden Eventon for Governor, stewart L. Woodford for Lieutenant Governor, and General Hammond for State Prison Inspector. Resolutious were adopted strongly endorsing congress and denouncing the President's policy.

The Corner-stone of the Dougs as monament was laid on Trunsday at Cheage with imposing encoronies. Among the participants were the President Genorals Grant and Meado, Adminish Farragut and Radford, and Secretary Seward.

NOBLE CONDUCT OF EX-VICE-PRESI-DENT HAMLIN. He Resigns his Office and Repudiates Traitors. Boeron, Sopt. 3.—The Hon. Hannibal Hamila, Col-ector of the port of Boston, tenders his resignation in letter to the President, dated August 25. In his lethe says:

I do not fall to observe the movements and efforts. "I do not fall to observe the movements and efforts which have been and are now being made to organize a party in the contarty consisting aimost exclusively of these engaged in the late rebelion, and their silles who sought by other means to cripple and embarrass the Government. These classes of persons, with a small fraction of others, constitute the organization. "It purposes to defeat and overthrow the Union Republican party, and to restore to power, without enficient guarantees for the future and protection to men who have been loyal, those who sought to destroy the Government. I gave all the militances of possessed to create and uphold the Republican party during the war, without the sid of which our Government would have been destroyed and the rebellion a success. With such a party as has been inaugurated, and for such purposes, I have no sympathy, nor can I acquiesed in its measures by my silence. I therefore tender to you my resignation of the office of Collector of tratoms for the district of Boston and Charlestown, to take affect from the time a successor shall be appointed and qualified."

What a terrible mistake it was to reputi-

What a terrible mistake it was to repudiate such a man to give room for the "boorish" tailor" and "drunken brute," as the Copperhead press styled Andrew Johnson. They knew him well, while the Union men Northknew but little of his character or reputation before the Rebellion. They were deceived by his hypocritical professions of loyalty to the Union. RAYMOND EXPELLED. -The United States National Republican Committee met in Philadelphia on Monday last, and passed a resolution virtually expelling Raymond from said Committee, together with two others. Gov. Ward of New Jersey, was unanimously elect-John D. Defrees of Indiana, Secretary. Raymond called a meeting in New York, at which only five attended, and three of the five wisely concluded to adjourn, as no quorum was present. Raywond however, intinated that he intended to held on to all he had in his hands, funds and all. Of course. nothing but stealing would recommend him to his new friends, the traitors and Copperheads. Did they not steal millions of public property, steal our liberties and perpetuate. slavery, and are they not now stealing all the offices belong to the Union Republican party. that put down the Rebellion? Raymond is now in his element. IS HE INSANE OR DRUNK? With the exception of publishing the Cleveland speech which will be found in another column, we do not deem it necessary to give aught else in reference to the electioneering tour of President Johnson through the North. That is a fair sample of his insane or drunken harangues at the different points at which he has touched. He abuses the loyal press and people in the choicest Billingsgate, and no fish woman but what would yield the palm to this perambulating American clown. Upon the reassembling of Congress the people will demand his impeachment, on the ground that he is either crazy or a natural fool, and therefore unfit to occupy the Presidential chair. The people are thoroughly ashamed of Booth's President. He does not seem to possess the first instincts of a gentleman. WHILE Johnson is on his electioneering tour, the official axe is not idle. John J. Cochrane, the fearless postmaster at Lancaster, has been removed to make way for "Mr. Brown's brother," whoever he may be. In Burlington, N. J., the Union postmaster is succeeded by one of the bitterest-Copperbeads in that State. In Wheeling, Mr. A. W. Campbell has been removed from the postmastership. Mr. O. S. Long, his successor, thus referred to President Johnson in his paper, the Register, in March, 1865; A stumbling, stammebing, drunken old Man, with the from of drunkenness on his lies; DRUNK IN HIS LEGS; DRUNK IN HIS SPLLCH; DRUNK IN HIS EYES; DRUNK IN HIS HAIR; DRUNK ALL OVER,

HEBOUGH AND THEOUGH; IN the place urganged by men hames as John Adams, Thos. JETTERSON and JOHN C. CALHOUN. They knew him better than we did. As Mr. Huones in his speech at the Copperjohnsonhead ratification mee ng in this Borough on Monday last garbled that portion of Gov. Browniow's late speech in Philadelphia from which he quoted, we will give eiactly what that staunch, persecuted, loya Tennesseean did say. He said : I say to you that if the wicked and rebollions headism of the North shall bring on another war, and you onlist, I want you to divide your army in o three portions. Let the first and largest come armed with weapons and do the kning. Let the second come with live torches and no the burning. Let the third come with surveyor's lines and re-mark out and re-settle the country. These are people were never more resolute to preserve the country from the hands of traitors. Let traitors and their allies take warning.
