THE TIMES —In a recent issue of the London Times, we find an interesting article on wine and its consumption in past, years in Eng-land. We make the following extract —America now produces a wine or cellent in quality and exquisite in flavor, as all testify who have tasted the Port Grape wine of Mr. A. Speer of New Jersey, U. S. A. In our perambulations through Spain, France and Portigal we acquired some experience in whe, and have tasted none to excel the Port vintage of America. In our option, this wine cannot fail of success. It is already altract-ing considerable attention in London and Paria, and with the ladies will become a general favorite on account of its non-intoxicating properties.— Surgeon II. R. Sillyman, U. S.
