The exhibition of the African Methodist Episco-pal Church Sunday Schöol of this Borough. for the benefit of the minister of the Church, came off at Enion Hall on Wednesday evening last, and attracted a large andience. The performance con-sisted of declamation, dialogues, singing, etc., and was exceedingly creditable to the partici-pants. The singing of Mr. James Stratton of Beading, who accompanied himself on a guitar, was especially excellent. We have rarely heard a more pleasing tenor. He sang four songs with

The Black Grook and the Black Gnome .- The popularity of these "spectacular dramas," has given rise to a lawsuit in Cincinnati, in which the population of the substitution of the information of the second state of the former piece applied to the representatives of the former piece applied to the Court for an injunction to restrain the proprietors of a theatro in that city from representing the latter "Tale of Enchautment," which it was claimed was a pircey from the Black Grook. After hearing a number of witnesses on both sides, the Court decided that there was no cause for the injunction. It appeared from the evidence that although there was a strong resemblance in the scenery and embellishments of the two pieces, the story and the language were entirely different. The "Black Gnome" will be produced at Union Hall on Monday evening next by Higgins & Philips, when all, who wish may have an opportunity of judging of its merita.

Please allow us to offer the following clucida-tion: It is well known that the tax on some of our native productions is higher, propertionately than the tariff on the foreign article, so that it makes in effect, a di-crimination in favor of the fyreigh, producer, and the tariff becomes a nullity in fact; now then take the tax. entirely off of the native productions, and the tariff be-comes really a protection; collect the deficit caused by this withdrawal of tax, by an increased rate on in-comes, and the effect would be to make the general inde independent of the tax, except in such articles as, might be denominated 'Inviries, which, no doub, should be heavily taxed. The larger the revence de-irved from castoms: the less income tax we should have to ray, and a high tariff would undoubtedly revive trade and place all inferes? is a prosperious condition. W-believe the taxes would be equilized in this way, and the burden be inore generally diffrated, as per the fol-lowing example: A. pays now, say $10,000 tax per, annum on his productions, he also pays, asy $500 in saticle unsaleable, when brought in competition with the foreign article, and eventually this state of affairs will ruin his business and bring on sugmation in all branches of trade. If this tax of $10,000 have here, lad on incomes. Ar share would have bound have not as end, and blas share for all taxes withdrawn from tax in our state. If this tax of $10,000 have here ald on incomes. Ar share would have been one bitti-eth of a cent, and blas share for all comes withdrawn from productions tax about $500, leaving at the same time, his business curredy cumubarrassed with taxes, so that the tariff would really be a protection to him.
