The Democratic County Convention. — This Con-vention for the purpose of placing in nomination a County ticket, was in session at the Court Honse on Monday last, from ten o'clock in the morning until twelves at night, without fully com-pleting its business, for the offices of Jury Com-missioner and Auditor were left for the County Standing Committee to fill. During the entire day the conduct of many of the Irish delegates towards the German and Amer-ican delegates, and towards even soine of their own countrymen, was diagraceful in the extreme. They seemed resolved by threats, oaths, yells, and every form of intimidation, to secure the nomination of their favorites, although they were clearly in the minority. They were assisted in their operations by a crowd of roughs and "Molly Maguires," who forced their way upon the floor of the Convention and kept it in a continued state of turmoil. The President was powerless to pre-serve order, and theroughs had everything pretty much their own way up to the hour of adjourn Proceedings of the Poltsville School.
